SCHOOL NOTES

HIGH SCHOOL

Supt. Tiedgen acted as one of the judges in the debate between North Bend and Myrtle Point in North Bend last night. The question debated was: Resolved, that capital punishment should be abolished and replaced by life imprisonment with limited power for pardon. The North Bend team had the affirmative side of the question and Myrtle Point the negative.

Mr. Barker, principal of the high school, went to Coquille Friday where he acted as judge in the debate between North Bend and Coquille.

There will be no regular meeting of the High School Literary Society this week. The play "Mr. Bob," to be given by the senior class for the benefit of the society may take the place of the regular meeting.

A handball court is being put in the tabernacle by Mr. Grannis.

The basketball season, so far as games with outside towns is concerned is closed, but a basketball league may be formed among the boys of the school. Several teams are to be organized among the upper grade and in the high school, contest games to be held between these teams.

Miss Ada Chapman of the fourth grade in Central building was absent from classes on Friday. Mrs. Tiedgen supplied for her.
