

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

Saves Butter, Flour, Eggs, and makes home baking easy

No Alum — No Lime Phosphate

(Continued from page 2.)

are the committee in charge of the cake sale that is to be given Saturday, March 2, at the Coos Bay grocery. The Altar Guild will be entertained March 9 by Mrs. Phillips.

Mrs. Chas. Williams was guest of honor at a surprise whist party given at her home Tuesday evening by a number of friends and planned by Mrs. Edward Olin. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brainard, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Loomis, Mr. and Mrs. Haines, Miss Emma Johnson and Miss Florence Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger entertained Mr. Smeaton, Mr. McReen, Mr. and Mrs. John Lafon and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Murch at dinner Wednesday evening. Miss Charlotte Murch assisted the hostess.

J. V. Smeaton returns today on the Nann Smith to Oakland. He has been visiting in Marshfield for about three weeks and looking after business interests on the Bay.

Miss Mary Hansen is to be hostess to a number of girls of the alumnae set at her home in South Marshfield Saturday evening, March 2. Among her guests will be Misses Rose Wall, Belya Flanagan, Nellie Tribbey, Martha Ross, Alice Curtis and Alpha Mauzey.

G. H. Hutter, one of last year's graduates of the Biltmore Forestry School, has returned to Marshfield after several months' sojourn in Portland and other northern points.

The "Pricillias" met Wednesday with Mrs. Frost in Bay City for a quiet afternoon of sewing and chat. Present were Mrs. Geo. Rourke, Mrs. Henry Olson, Mrs. McIntosh, Mrs. Mathison, Mrs. Knud Erickson, Mrs. Nelson, Miss Genevieve Tellefson and Misses Mable and Cora Mathison. Miss Signa Larson will entertain the club Wednesday, March 6.

The "Jolly Dozen" will be entertained Wednesday, February 28, by Miss Laura Dubay.

At their home in South Marshfield Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cosme celebrated Sunday, February 18, as the twentieth anniversary of their marriage, which took place in 1892. A number of friends were present and brought pretty gifts of hand-painted china. Mimosa blossoms from California effectively decorated the house. Mr. and Mrs. Cosme entertained Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Haines, Mr. and Mrs. John Blatt, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Haines and Miss Helen Sullivan.

Friends of Mrs. Wilson Kaufman will be interested in the following clipping from the Spokane Chronicle of Feb. 17:

"Mrs. Wilson Kaufman of Marshfield, Ore., formerly Miss Happy of Spokane, was the honor guest at a pretty 4 o'clock tea this afternoon. Mrs. F. E. Pope was the hostess and her home at 830 Lincoln place was prettily and tastefully decorated for the occasion. The dining room was in yellow and white, while the living room was adorned with red and white, hearts and smilax being used in profusion. About 90 friends of the hostess and the guest of honor were present. Those who assisted in receiving and entertaining were Mrs. W. J. Howells, Mrs. E. C. Atwater, Mrs. A. L. Ruff, Mrs. W. S. Frost, Mrs. R. N. Tooker, Mrs. J. H. Hemphill, Miss Helen White, Miss Bonnie Prickett and Miss Helen Hurd."

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Kaufman and little daughter are guests at the home of Mrs. Kaufman's parents, Judge and Mrs. Happy, in Spokane, where they have been visiting for a week or two. They are planning to return to Coos Bay some time next month.

The members of the Minnie-Wis Club and their husbands enjoyed a very pleasant and jolly evening Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kelley. Odd mirth-provoking games enlivened the evening and disclosed the varying talents of their participants. In the singing rivalry, solo and quartet work, Mr. Chas. LaChapelle was declared victor; in the rag-chewing contest his wife carried off the honors—honors belonging rightfully to a woman, for is it not a recognized fact that woman is pre-eminent at chewing the rag? Mrs. Helen Baldwin was lauded as being the only, original, bean-dropper and was awarded the prize for this play. Following the serving of a dainty buffet luncheon, for which hearts were matched for partners, recitations, music and a general good time employed the evening to a late hour. The house was extensively decorated with red bells, hearts and bows of ribbon that gave it a most festive appearance. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. LaChapelle, Mr. and Mrs. Freeland Dresser, Mr. and Mrs. John Dashney, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. John LaChapelle, Mrs. Helen Baldwin, Mrs. Mary Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kelley, Leo LaChapelle, Ralph Dresser, Elizabeth and Maxine Jones, Cecil LaChapelle, and Eugene and Howard Kelley. The club members will meet Thursday, March 7, at which date Mrs. John LaChapelle will be hostess.

Eckhoff Hall, North Bend, was the scene of a very pretty Leap Year dance given Saturday night by the Women of Woodcraft. The hall was decorated in greens and Japanese lanterns, which hung over the lights and shed a softened glow over the place. Leap Year customs were rigidly enforced, occasioning much laughter and enjoyment for the ninety guests present. Excellent music from Toelle's orchestra and a good program of dances, among which latter was one solitary "gentlemen's choice," set the keynote to the evening in the lively dance that ensued. The congenial crowd and excellent management made the affair very pleasant and successful.

Mrs. Phillips is entertaining a few friends this evening at her home in North Bend in honor of her son, Percy. The party is planned as a surprise to young Mr. Phillips by some of his friends and schoolmates. Cards, music and singing will fill the evening, and sandwiches, cocoa, fruit and candy, and popcorn popped before the fireplace will be served informally. Those participating are Misses Maud Crosby, Norma Chase, Esther Imhoff, Lenora Tope, Amelia Lillebo, Lola Ritchie and Olive Phillips; John Sheppard, Arthur Chase, Harold Simpson, Warren Murphy and Wm. Reel.

Mrs. Geo. Coleman and Mrs. Tom Lawhorne were hostesses at the Lawhorne home at a farewell party to Miss Myrtle Downer and Miss Edna Ray, who leave soon for Corvallis, where they will attend school. Miss Ray will visit at her home in Myrtle Point for a short time before leaving with Miss Downer for O. A. C. The hostesses had provided several games for playing, and these, with music, pleasantly employed the evening. Mrs. Lawhorne was assisted by Mrs. Edwin Busby, Mrs. Henry Bishop and Mrs. Coleman in serving. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Busby, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hopson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Coleman, Mrs. H. W. Painter and children, Dorothy, Wayne and Lavina, Mrs. Bowman, Misses Ida and Myrtle Downer, Miss Edna Ray, Rita and Florence Lawhorne, Ruth Hopson, Ralph Bishop, John Motley, Guy Torrey, Russell Nasburg, Ronald McGeorge, and Drexell Hopson.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer entertained at dinner in honor of Mr. Dennis T. Flynn of Oklahoma. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grimes and Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Houseworth also were present.

The Oklahoma Whist Club will be entertained Tuesday evening, February 27, by Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer.

This afternoon the Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church is holding a "cooked food" sale at the M. A. Sweetman office building on Broadway. Mrs. Langdon and Mrs. Butts are in charge of the sale.

Miss Evelyn Langworthy was hostess to a number of young people last Saturday night at an unusually dainty Valentine, or Cupid Bow-and-Arrow party. Her home was extensively decorated in greens, and was hung from corners to chandeliers with rows of little white and red cupid. Favors and place cards were of Valentine design and were very effective. Numerous games were played, among them the pursuit of colored webs that led the girls all over the house untangling skeins and finally ended in disclosing hidden bows and arrows with which they shot at the hearts the boys' search had uncovered. Partners for supper were determined by matching the archer with the quarry whose name was written on the heart. Several other games were played, and the serving of dainty refreshments, carrying out the colors red and white, ended the delightful evening. Among those invited were Misses Hazel Merriam, May Myren, Myrtle Cowan, Ruth Hoagland, Lucy Powers, Bessie Flanagan, Harriet Hansen, Agnes Sandquist, Dora Brown, Cora Dye and Bruce Kelley; Messrs. Max Reigard, Raymond Lee, Sydney Clarke, Guy Stutsman, Noble Pitman, Tom Patterson, George Johnson, Leslie Isaacson, Duncan Ferguson, Chester Isaacson, Lee Byerly, Carl Larsen.

Mrs. R. Tibbetts and baby left this week for San Francisco, where they will visit her relatives there.

Miles S. Edgerton, formerly superintendent of schools at Tacoma, who has been the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Mildred Christenson, at the J. A. Stadden home, left today for his home in Washington.

Mrs. M. J. Elrod and Mrs. A. G. Aiken returned this week from a few weeks' stay in San Francisco.

Mrs. E. Paddock returned this week from San Francisco, where she has been spending a few months with relatives.

J. V. Smeaton gave a small dinner party at the Chandler Thursday evening for a few of his close business friends on the Bay.

The ladies of St. Monica's Catholic church were entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. C. W. Montgomery at her home in West Marshfield. The afternoon was devoted to sewing and preparations for the bazaar to be given the first week after Easter. The time and place of the next meeting will be announced later.

Miss Mamie Mahoney entertained a few friends at tea and embroidery Thursday afternoon, including among her guests Mrs. E. Mings, Mrs. W. H. Kennedy and Mrs. R. K. Booth.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Richardson and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ford and daughter are expected from Portland next summer to spend a part of the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O'Connell.

Wednesday evening the Young People's Society of the Norwegian Lutheran Church met for a very pleasant time under the direction of Miss Cora Mathison and Mr. Andrew Anderson. In the business that came up it was decided to buy a piano for the church hall to supplement the organ that is already there. Following the business meeting games and music whiled the time away and refreshments were served. Miss Jennie Johnson and Oliver Larson will be in charge of the next evening. Among those present were Misses Blanche, Elizabeth and Genevieve Tellefson, Elsie Larson, Dina Hjelte, Edna Johnson, Anna Gidmark, Jennie Johnson, Ingeborg Larson, Lucy and Lily Thorwald and Mable, Cora and Alice Mathison, Messrs. Oliver Larson, Andrew Anderson, Albert, King, John Tellefson, Emil Gabrielsen, Alfred Jare, Harry Johanson, Chris Lee, Albert Anderson, Albert Orr, James Martenson, Arthur Kolstad, Peter Engstrom, W. Burman and Carl and Edwin Erickson.

Mrs. A. H. Powers was hostess at a charming Bridge party Monday afternoon at her home in South Marshfield, entertaining eleven tables of Bridge. The house was beautifully decorated in green ivy and Oregon grape, that hung in bunches from windows and chandeliers, and in red carnations that were grouped about

Watch Window Display

Balance of this week—Take your choice—Any Suit in the window.....$11.85

Another example of "MONEY TAKS" Don't you agree with us? It pays to buy for Cash.

Hub Clothing & Shoe Co.

Marshfield. Band.

NEW SPRING SHOES ARE HERE

the rooms and lay as favors at each place. Bridge trophies were won by Mrs. Downing and Mrs. M. C. Maloney. Miss Edna Stanley and Miss Charlotte Murch assisted the hostess in serving.

A delightful "ladies' evening" was given in the club rooms Thursday by the members of the Commercial Club of North Bend. Bridge and whist were the games of the evening, varied by different musical selections that were given subsequent to the serving of refreshments by Messrs. Archie Phillips, John Mullen and V. E. Watters. Professor Davidson gave a piano solo. Miss Della Brouillard and Mr. George Geisendorfer sang, and Chas. Kaiser, to a piano accompaniment by Mrs. Kaiser, gave a difficult horn solo. At cards, high whist honors were won by Mrs. Altus Kingston and A. E. Morten; low, by Mrs. M. A. Coleman and Chas. Kaiser. Bridge trophies were carried off by Miss Gertrude Mandigo and Geo. Geisendorfer, Miss Laura Kruse and Dr. Burmester being awarded the consolations. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Byler, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brouillard, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Coke, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Morten, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kaiser, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Derbyshire, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Horn, Mr. and Mrs. George Geisendorfer, Mr. and Mrs. Altus Kingston, Dr. and Mrs. I. B. Bartle, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Burmester, Mrs. W. E. Best, Miss Gertrude Mandigo, Miss Della Brouillard, Miss Thea Kruse, Miss Edith Horn, Miss Lena and Miss Laura Kruse, Messrs. S. Rogstad, R. C. Holmes, John Olson, Dan Kinney, Denny Hull, John Mullen, Robert Kehoe and Peter Loggie, and Professor Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Sumner were host and hostess at one of the few Washington's Birthday parties of the season at their home in West Marshfield. A very pleasant social evening was enjoyed, enlivened by several mirth-provoking games. Mr. Frank Sumner proved adept at making anagrams from the appropriate word, "Washington," and was awarded the prize. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Hodgins in serving the light supper that followed the games. Among those invited were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Savage, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Rutledge, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Birch, Mrs. Hodgins, Miss Hazel Merriman, Frank Howe, Frances Sumner, Dorothy Brown, Miss Mary Hansen and Miss Edna McIntosh.

The third annual banquet given Thursday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall by the members of the Marshfield Fire Department was even larger and more successful than the previous entertainments given by that popular institution. A social dance and banquet furnished the chief attractions, and as floor and music were excellent, these were enjoyed to the fullest extent. After the dancing, from nine until twelve, the banquet was spread in the lodge rooms upstairs. Chief Dan Keating presided as toastmaster and called for speeches from several members of the department, among them President James Cowan, Claude Stutsman, L. W. Traver, Geo. Selig and V. O. Pratt. The toasts embraced all subjects from the serious to the ridiculous, and were loudly applauded by an appreciative audience. Among those present were Messrs. i. Mauzey, L. Mauzey, C. Stutsman, U. Stutsman, R. Lang, J. E. Pratt, J. F. Wilson, Frank Mattson, E. S. Henderson, J. E. Cowan, M. Kruger, A. Mattson, Ralph Batchelder, L. W. Traver, G. C. Lattin, H. Briggs, R. E. Pinegor, J. W. Davis, Geo. Selig, R. V. Nasburg, R. A. Ollivant, N. Stambow, L. E. Bliven, Del Rhodes, J. G. Kinney, O. Gulovson, J. Martensen, C. Arlandson, V. O. Pratt, James Green, M. J. Ostrow, J. W. Hunt, E. A. Lindberg, Dan Keating, Gordon Smith, Wm. Abel Jr., W. Longstaff and Wm. Lynch; Mrs. H. Mauzey, Mrs. J. E. Pettit, Mrs. R. E. Pinegor, Mrs. Gordon Smith, Miss Mabel Lang, Miss Julia Holmes, Mrs. Jas. Cowan, Mrs. J. W. Davis, Miss Nettie Savage, Mrs. J. G. Kinney, Miss Ruth Matthews, Miss Della Pratt, Mrs. Dan B. Keating, Miss Edith Bliven, Miss Nellie Tribbey, Miss May Burke, Mrs. V. O. Pratt, Miss Hilda Steinholm, Miss Anna Smith, Mrs. Wm. Lynch, Mrs. L. E. Bliven, Miss Larsen, Mrs. A. Mattson, Mrs. C. A. Metlin, Miss Selma Holmes, Miss Alpha Mauzey, Miss Mary Metlin.

Miss Marjorie and Ernest Drews were entertainers at one of the prettiest Washington's birthday parties of the year, arranged for them by their mother, Mrs. E. C. Drews, assisted by Mrs. Edwin Busby and Mrs. C. O. Gosney. About twenty-three little guests were present to take part in the jolly games that were started.

"Shooting" hearts occasioned fun for the little marksmen as huntmen's trophies were brought down by Miss Eva Hansen and old Haines, Miss Dorothy Thompson and Henry Walter proving to be seconds. The hostess, Miss Marjorie Drews, was dressed in a quality thia Washington dress, in which the actor she received and entertained her guests. Her brother was a miniature George, lacking only the cherry tree. When refreshment time came even this was supplied for in the center of each of the two pretty tables was a tiny cherry tree with blossoms and fruit all complete. Red, white and blue streamers hung from above to each plate where stood little bunches of colored candles. The effect of color combination was charming. The guests present were Misses Mary L. Lain, Irene Outimette, Marjorie McCoy, Elizabeth and Maxine Jones, Margaret Powers, Emma Lou Douglas, Evelyn Fourier, Ruth Holmes, Eva Hansen, Dorothy Thompson, Genevieve, Virginia and Geneva Gosney and Edith Ayre. Marcey, Lyle Marcey, William Marcey, Howard Kelley, Albert Power, Henry Walter, Harold Haines, Albert and Wayne Gosney, George Haines, Eugene Kelley, Hershall Crane, Phillip Thompson and Guy Crane.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kennedy are planning to move into the Geo. house on Tenth and Elrod street next week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harrison returned on the Breakwater from an extended trip to various northern cities.

The W. C. T. U. have appointed committees preparatory to holding a Demorest medal contest during the one given last week in North Bend. Mrs. E. E. Kelley is chairman of the committee on general arrangements and under her expert management plans will speedily come to a finish. The ladies are thinking of having the contest given in North Bend repeated here, and if it can be arranged will reproduce it some time next week.

Miss Kathryn and Master Wm. Horton are entertaining a number of their friends and schoolmates this afternoon at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Horton. Among their guests are Misses Cora and Marie Nicholson, Marian Hoagland, Wilma Hoagland, Lillian Stearns, Virginia Clarke, Helen Merdall, Helen Rees, Clara Ferguson, Mrs. Louise McArthur, Margaret Power, Maxine Jones and Dorothy Horton, and Perry Clarke, James Knut, Geo. Haines, Ted Dow, Russell Gosney, mass, Albert Powers, Henry Walter and George Horsfall.

The C. B. H. T. E. Club was entertained by Miss Bessie Ayre Monday evening at her home in South Marshfield. A pleasant evening of sewing, music and games was spent with a dainty supper. Present were Misses Bessie Ayre, Mary Hansen, Beatrice Smith, Edith Enbrand, Eliza and Bessie Ayre. Miss Mary Hansen will be hostess Monday evening.

The cake sale given Saturday afternoon by the ladies of St. Mary's Guild, under the supervision of Mrs. Brouillard, Miss Kinney, Mrs. H. and Mrs. Lennan, was very successful. A larger market than could be accommodated was supplied by the eagerness of purchasers to buy. The other sale, either cooked food or cake, will be held some day in the first week of March.

Miss Ruth McLaughlin entertained a few friends at her home Thursday, February 22, the occasion being her fifteenth birthday. Patriotic decorations were in evidence, and many enjoyable games played, including a hatchet hunt, which produced much merriment. Those present were Carol Rahskopf, Louise McArthur, Bessie Sanquist, Thelma Hetherington, Anna Dowling, Wilma Hoagland, Myrtle Frances, Howard McLaughlin, Frances Linn, Violet Robertson, Maybelle McLaughlin, Jennie Bowman, Mabel Steadman, Elwin Johnson and June McLaughlin.

The Progress Club will be entertained by Mrs. W. S. Nicholson Monday, March 4, when various members of the club will take part in the program. The subject of the day is "Oriental Rugs and Antiques." An exhibit will be held of antiques loaned for the occasion by the club members.

KODAK

The First Spring Call of the Out-door Days Invites Your

KODAKS

Anybody can Kodak—Simple, easy, no dark room for any part of the work.

BROWNIE KODAKS—$1.00, $2.00, $3.00, $4.00, $5.00 and $7.00.

POST CARD SIZES—$10.00 and $12.00.

KODAKS $5.00 to $90.00

Red Cross Drug Store

PHONE—122-J.