BORN.

EGANOFF—To Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eganoff at their home in West Marshfield Saturday, February 24, a ten and a half pound son. Mother and child are doing nicely.

GULOVSON—To Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gulovson at their home in South Marshfield, Monday, February 26, a daughter. This is their first child and the proud parents are receiving congratulations from their many friends.

ROSS—To Mr. and Mrs. George Ross at their home on Catching Inlet on Sunday, February 25, a son. Mother and child are getting along nicely, and Mr. Ross is about the proudest rancher that Catching Inlet has known in a long time.

Brings Down Logs—William Bernitt is rafting down a large number of logs from the Gould camp on North Coos river for the Simpson Lumber Company.

Starts Addition—Work on the new addition to the Grand was begun by Contractor Savage today. It is to be about 28 by 30 feet and will increase the seating capacity of the house to 350.

Improves Shop—D. A. Curry is having his barber shop on North Front street newly decorated and otherwise improved by Messrs. Schaffe and Hodgins.

Start Soon—Contractor Horn expects to start work on the new warehouse and dock for the Standard Oil Company on North Front street, just north of Ocean dock, the latter part of this week or the first of next.

Superintendent Golden Present—The names of Superintendent F. A. Golden and wife were inadvertently omitted in the published list of those present at the guests' table at the North Bend high school banquet.

At Spokane—W. Ed Tribble is now at Spokane visiting relatives. In a letter to friends here, he says he expects to return to the Bay in about a month. It has been quite cold there lately.

In Roseburg—C. H. Marsh, right of way agent for the Southern Pacific, is now in Roseburg. Owing to his absence from the bay, there have not been any developments in the right of way negotiations at North Bend.

Buys Home—William Hyden has purchased the James Bennett residence property in Railroad addition for $3000. They will occupy it about March 1. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett plan to erect a fine new bungalow immediately.

Change in Firm—It is announced that Tim Seeley of Coquille has disposed of his interest in the logging business to his partner, Mr. Anderson, who will continue it alone. What Mr. Seeley's plans are has not been announced.

In New Orleans—Friends here have been advised that L. A. Sumner, who has charge of the survey of the Summer line north of Coos Bay, is now in New Orleans. What his future plans are is not stated. His father, H. A. Sumner, is still in Portland.

Move Old House—F. A. Warner, who a few months ago bought the lot on North Second street, just north of the Coke building, has disposed of the old residence on the property. He plans, it is understood, to improve the property just as soon as conditions warrant it.

Boat Robbed—George W. King is the latest victim of the petty thieving that has been going on along the water front recently. They simply stripped his gasoline boat, taking out practically all the fixtures. He has recovered part of them, but the guilty parties have not been apprehended.

To Manila—D. Y. Stafford has received word that Fred Pasley, who was employed on The Times three or four years ago, has gone to Manila, P. I., to work on a paper there. Pasley has recently been working on the San Francisco Examiner. He has a contract for a year's employment on the paper in the Philippines.

Horse Hurt—A horse belonging to Charles Doane was slightly hurt Saturday. Mr. Doane's son was driving the team with a load of lumber down South Broadway when they became frightened and tried to run away. Young Doane held them until the tongue broke, which brought them to a sudden stop.

Storm in South—Henry Sengstacken has received a letter from Mrs. Sengstacken and his daughters, who are on an extended southern trip, stating that New Orleans suffered considerable damage from a bad windstorm a week ago last Saturday. Plate glass windows of store buildings were blown out by the gale. The weather has been unusually severe for this time of year there.

Restaurant Sold—L. J. Petramoulx on Saturday purchased the Coos cafe on Front street from Mr. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Petramoulx plan a number of important changes, the most important being the establishment of a first class delicatessen with fine home cooking. A merchants' lunch will be served daily from 11 to 2:30, but no other meals will be served.

Affects Tunnel—H. C. Diers of North Bend, who was here on business today, says that if the Pacific Great Western wins the suit involving the tunnel right of way at Noti Pass near Eugene, the Southern Pacific will either have to change its route or make terms with the Sumner people. He expects the Sumner people will resume operations on their projects in the near future.

Street Fight—While coming down this morning, Justice Pennock saw the first of a lively street fight between two laborers at the corner of Second and Central. He proceeded to the office and notified Constable Cox to arrest the men, but when the constable reached the scene the combatants had disappeared. No one, apparently, knew who they were.

Freight Rate Law—The Medford Traffic Bureau, organized by the Medford merchants to secure better freight rates for that city, has sent a letter to the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce asking aid in securing the necessary number of signers to an initiative petition to submit a measure for establishing uniform freight rates in Oregon at the next general election.

Trouble at Empire—According to reports from Empire, a small sized riot took place there Saturday evening. Some of the members of the crew of the Redondo, which was lying there for the storm to subside, got into an altercation with some of the Empire people and the town marshal had to call for help to end the fracas. No one was seriously hurt and no arrests were made.

Is Candidate—W. H. Bunch, Coos county school superintendent, will be a candidate for that office again. His nominating petitions are now being circulated here by Dr. McCormac. Mr. Bunch is a Republican. Marshal Carter is circulating the nominating petitions of George M. Brown of Roseburg for the Republican nomination for district attorney and of Judge Harris of Eugene, who again seeks the circuit judgeship.

Schilling Sells Out—J. E. Schilling of Gardiner was in Marshfield over Sunday on business. He has disposed of his interest in the Gardiner hotel to the other stockholders of the company, among whom are Fred Aisenhelmer, W. F. Jewett, W. P. Reed, Perkins brothers and Captain Cornwall. He will continue to conduct the hotel until March 15. He plans to move his family back to Coos Bay and will probably engage in business here.

Council Tonight—The Marshfield city council will meet this evening to take up the waterworks matter and the question of calling a special election to vote on T. J. Nolan's proposition to sell the property to the city for $160,000. It is understood that the special committee consisting of E. G. Perham, Arno Meehan and City Engineer Gidley, appointed to appraise the real estate and water rights, will have their report ready to submit.
