Moves Machinery—D. D. Pierce is arranging to move the machinery from the logging camp which he recently closed above Allegany to Allegany, where it will be stored until he arranges to open a new camp. He has been figuring on opening a camp on the Coquille, but this has not been definitely decided yet.

Injures Hand—Frank Hamilton of the launch North Star No. 1 sustained a badly crushed hand in an accident today. In docking the launch, the tide carried the craft up against the wharf with more force than he expected. He struck to loosen the joint, but his hand caught between a piling and the deck house.

Mill Sold—Hillis Short, who is in from Ten Mile, reports that the small sawmill of Fred Muetzel, near Lakeside, has been sold. He says that his father-in-law, F. J. It was found by Mrs. Dorenius, who resides at the corner of Second street and Highland avenue. Alford and Marion Hanks, has pleaded guilty to two of the charges and was fined $1000 on each charge. The other charge was dismissed. James Hughes, who was indicted at the same time by the grand jury on similar charges, was discharged on motion of the prosecuting attorney. It was alleged by the mayor and councilmen that they had been approached and offered $1000 in cash besides free paving for their respective properties if they would get a contract for the company.
