LOCAL NOTES

COOS BAY TIDES.

Below is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.

The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison of consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. For high water on bar, subtract 2 hours 34 minutes.

Date February, 1912.

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)
Oregon: Fair, except showers near coast tonight and Friday; easterly winds.

May Run Again—It is understood that W. T. Dement of Myrtle Point will be a candidate for re-nomination for county commissioner. He is the only one of the commissioners whose term expires this year.

Elks Meet—The Marshfield Lodge of Elks held a meeting last evening at which D. Y. Kyle of Florence was initiated. There was a good turnout and a social session was enjoyed following the meeting.

Store Sold—Constable W. B. Cox yesterday sold the Batchelor cigar store on North Front street under attachment proceedings. Mrs. Adele M. Howard, who held a mortgage on the property, bid it in for $250.

Lodge meets—The Western Star Rebekah Degree held a largely attended and enthusiastic meeting last evening. Seven new members were initiated and at the close of the exercises a fine banquet was served to the members and visitors.

Go to Frisco—Hon. T. R. Sheridan, F. E. Alley, A. N. Orcutt and Warren Reed expect to leave for San Francisco on March 12, where they will assist the Oregon delegation in selecting a site for the Oregon building—Roseburg News.

Locates on Bay—A. E. Diment, wife and daughter arrived this morning from Portland to make their future home on Coos Bay. Mr. Diment has taken a position with F. S. Dow as manager of the Marshfield warehouse and will be in charge of the office. Mr. Diment is a brother of Mrs. F. S. Dow.

Recital Tomorrow Night—At the Presbyterian church, North Bend, the pupils of Miss Mildred Rood will give a piano recital tomorrow evening, which will be open to the public as well as to the parents of the participants. About 15 of those taking part in the program are from Marshfield. No admission will be charged.

Good Business—Manager Scott of the Gladys Brockwell company telephoned The Times from Bandon today that they were doing an excellent business in the valley. Practically the entire house has been sold out at Coquille for tomorrow night. They will open in Marshfield again Monday night when they will present "The Great Divide."

Divide Money—In an old controversy between Levi Helsner, Frank Cameron and Mr. Bucher over a $40 account, a jury in Justice Pennock's court yesterday ordered Constable Cox to pay one-half of it to Helsner and the other half to Cameron. Helsner gave notice that he would appeal the case. The costs in the matter already exceed the amount involved. The jury yesterday consisted of W. N. Ekblad, B. R. Keller, C. A. Johnson, D. A. Jones, Tom Harvey and D. A. Rees.

Leap Year Birthdays—J. G. Horn, the North Bend contractor, was here today arranging to start the construction of the new Standard Oil warehouse next Saturday. He is forty years old today, but this is his ninth birthday, being born on February 29. C. C. Bridges of Coos River is another Leap Year birthday man, he also celebrating his ninth birthday today, although he is forty years old. Little Catherine Toye, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Toye, is celebrating her first birthday today, although she is four years old.

Taft at San Francisco—The Orpheum "House of Photoplay" again establishes the fact that it is receiving the best that the world affords in pictures, having secured the full reel production of President Taft breaking the grounds at the Panama-Pacific Exposition. Other interesting features of this feature reel are excellent views of San Francisco, before and after the earthquake, national notables of importance and Lillian Nordica closing the ceremonies by singing the national anthem. This subject will be shown at the Orpheum tomorrow night at their established price.
