POINTLESS INDUSTRY.

CRITICISM of the modern American declares that he is so busy that he has time for little of importance.

There may be a good deal in this point of view and one may readily convict himself of inconsistency in this respect if he stops to examine the things for which he really finds time every day.

This accusation may not be confined to Americans alone, but it is probable that the nervous activity seen in this country is very often unwisely directed.

TEXTILE STRIKE NEARLY OVER

Strikers' Committee Decided to Recommend Acceptance of Offer.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.) LAWRENCE, Mass., March 13.—The end of the textile strike is thought to have been reached today when the general strike committee voted to recommend to the operatives of the American Woolen Company's four mills, that the wage schedule offered by the company be accepted.

BANK CLERK CAUGHT

Earl Stannard, Wanted in Pomona, Cal., for $150,000 Defalcation Surrenders. (By Associated Press to the Coos Bay Times.) POMONA, Cal., March 13.—Earl Stannard, formerly bookkeeper for the First National Bank, at Pomona, Cal., charged with having absconded with nearly $150,000, surrendered at Inyo, Kern County, California, last night and is in jail here today.

Tribute to Deceased Member.

At the meeting of Mammoth Lodge, No. 87, A. O. U. W., this week, the following resolutions for the late Emil Ogren, who joined the lodge on February 26, 1903, and who died January 30, 1912, were adopted:

"Whereas, in view of the loss we have sustained by the decease of our friend and brother, Emil Ogren, and of the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to him, therefore be it

"Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say, that in regretting his removal from our midst we mourn for one who was, in every way, worthy of our respect and regard.

"Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased on the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best, and whose chastisements are in mercy.

"Resolved, That this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and sorrow be forwarded to the widow of our departed friend and brother, and a copy be spread upon the minutes of the lodge.

"S. B. GATHCART, W. B. CURTIS, E. A. ANDERSON, Committee."

The lodge has paid Mrs. Ogren $2000 insurance, although the total dues paid by Mr. Ogren was only $165.

WALT MASON

THE POET PHILOSOPHER

A hundred years ago the kid was kicking up much fuss and bother, and everything the infant did seemed cute as thunder to his father. THE INFANT The old man rocked him when he DICKENS screamed, and jollied him when cross and snarly; and as he rocked he doubtless dreamed of triumphs that might come to Charlie. "This son of mine," the old man thought, and drew the cradle close and closer, "may some day own a house and lot, or be the leading corner grocer. He may arise through stress and storm, and be a credit to his popper; perhaps he'll wear a uniform and have a billet as a copper. I do not dare to soar too high when dreaming of this latest comer, yet it may be, before I die, I'll see him busy as a plumber." Thus parents dream and scheme and plan a life for baby that's a wonder; and when the kid becomes a man, he knocks the blue prints all to thunder. Had Dickens lived to see the lad win world wide glory as a writer, he might have sighed: "This is too bad! I thought he'd be a first-class fighter!"

PLAY AT NORTH BEND SUCCESS

Prof. Swearingen and Home Talent Cast Score Hit in "Ole Oleson."

Before a large audience at Eckhoff hall in North Bend last evening, "Ole Oleson" was presented by a home talent cast under the auspices of the North Bend Fire Department. The play was most successfully given and following it a social dance was enjoyed.

In addition to the laugh producing comedy itself, specialties were introduced by P. L. Swearingen, R. J. Nowlin, Mrs. Swearingen and Miss Ellen Anderson that brought rounds of applause from the audience.

The play was under the direction of Mr. Swearingen and the cast of characters was as follows: Ole Oleson... P. L. Swearingen Paul Jordan... Frank Miller Dr. Shingle... L. A. Loomis Jefferson Beasett... J. R. Nowlin Mrs. O'Flanagan... Mrs. P. L. Swearingen Mrs. Jordan... Miss Hattie Hage Jennie... Miss Ellen Anderson Philip... Raymond Nowlin Philip's Playmates—Kathryn Swearingen, Mabel Jennings, Ollie Moore, Doris Guber, J. Sickman and Harry Kern.

R. G. Collins, Postmaster, Barnegat, N. J., was troubled with a severe grippe cough. He says: "I would be completely exhausted after each fit of violent coughing. I bought a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and before I had taken it all the coughing spells had entirely ceased. It can't be beat." For sale by Preuss Drug Co. and Red Cross Drug Co.

A Year of Great Improvement

This has been a year of unusual and heavy expense with the Oregon Power company.

Wide extension of electric distributing lines, extension of gas mains and improvement at the gas works—all have made combined attack on our resources.

The money has been invested to properly serve a first class city with a first class future.

The facts stated, however, make it particularly desirable that bills for electric and gas service should be paid on or before the 10th day of the month.

Prompt collections enable the prompt meeting of our own monthly obligations and give better service.
