LOCAL NOTES

COOS BAY TIDES.

Rel. w is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.

The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison of consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. For high water on bar, subtract 2 hours 34 minutes.

Table with columns for Date, March, 1912, and tide heights for 13, 14, 15 hours and high/low tide.

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.) Oregon—Fair tonight with light frost in the interior and west and heavy frost in east. Thursday fair. Northwest by winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE REPORT.

For twenty-four hours ending at 4:43 a. m., Mar. 13, by Benj. Oquind, special government meteorological observer: Maximum 54, Minimum 43, At 4:43 a. m. 43, Precipitation none, Wind southwest, partly cloudy.

BORN.

PIDGEON—To Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Pidgeon, of Allegany, at the Dade Haines home in South Marshfield, Tuesday evening, March 12, a daughter. She has been christened Beatrice A. Pidgeon.

Get Boston Ready—The U. S. S. Boston is to be brought down to an anchorage off the foot of East Stark street in a few days to make preparations for her annual cruise with the Oregon naval militia aboard next June.—Portland Journal.

Medal Contest Friday—The Demorest silver medal contest will be held Friday evening, March 16, at the Methodist Episcopal church in Marshfield. Only North Bend contestants will participate. The launch Tioga will leave North Bend for Marshfield promptly at 7:30.

Improve Road—S. Jumper was in from his North Inlet homestead today. He reports that Road Supervisor Chas. Hansen has a big force of men putting through the new road from the Upper Landing on North Inlet to the Church ranch. The new road is being put through on a good easy grade and will require about another month to complete it.

Thom Guilty—Judge Hall has returned from Coquille yesterday where he heard the trial of William Thom of Myrtle Point who was charged with failure to support his family. Thom was recently arrested in California and was brought back from there. He pleaded guilty and the sentence was that he should contribute $25 per month for the next year to the support of his family. He promised to give bonds for this amount, but in case he does not, he will be put to work on the roads and the county will pay the money from his earnings. Thom is a musician and is about 45 years old.

New Fountain—Manager Sarter of Sarter's Front Street confectionery is installing a handsome, large electric soda fountain. It is one of the latest styles and aside from the convenience of its arrangements adds greatly to the appearance of the store.

Plan for Creamery—Parties in from Ten Mile today report that there is a movement on foot there for organizing a stock company to operate a co-operative creamery. The present Ten Mile creamery has been closed down for a couple of months and is said to be in arrears with its payments owing to some difficulty in the concern which is a California company. It is likely that an effort will be made to buy it and if this cannot be done, plans will probably be made to erect a new one.
