Married Here—Ralph Williams and Mabel Scott were married last evening by Justice Pennock at his office. Mr. Williams is a local teamster and his wife was formerly Mrs. Lyman Wolf. They will reside here.

Dock Finished—Toots Noble yesterday finished the new dock on North Front street for the Port of Coos Bay Commission. The total cost was about $525 and it has been leased by the Standard Oil Company. Today piling for the Standard Oil Company's dock adjoining it are being driven.

Gets New Position—Tom B. James who was formerly agent of the Alliance in Marshfield and was previously located at North Bend but who moved to Yaquina a few years ago to try ranch life, has taken a position as supervisor of the Bull Run reserve near Portland. The reserve is to protect the Portland city water supply.

Repair Dredge—The dredge Oregon was brought here today from North Bend and is tied up near the Alliance dock. The defective casting is being taken out so that everything will be ready to put in the new one which will arrive on the Breakwater tomorrow. It is hoped to have the dredge ready to start the fill near the Masonic Opera House Monday morning.

Attend Convention—A dozen or so republicans from Marshfield and North Bend left here this morning for Coquille to attend a meeting of the Coos County republican central committee which will be held there today.

Sells Song—Jay B. Tower has been notified that W. E. Rooster, the Chicago music publisher, has accepted his song "Only Dreams." It will probably be published shortly and friends of Mr. Tower, who have seen it, declare that it is bound to make a great hit.

Gets Parole—Judge Coke has issued an order that the sentence of Ralph Jackson, who is serving one year in the county jail for contributing to the delinquency of a minor, expire at the expiration of six months. This will be about March 19. The parole was the result of Jackson's good behavior and promises to do better. His parole is conditional on good behavior. Jackson's parents reside on Catching Inlet.

Meet Here—At a meeting of the members of Baker Post, G. A. R., yesterday it was decided that henceforth the regular monthly meetings should be held in Marshfield instead of North Bend, Marshfield being a more convenient location for most of the members. The next meeting, on or about April 14, will be held at Empire and will be in the nature of a picnic, the members taking their wives with them. No plans have yet been made for Memorial day.

More Trouble—Les Smith was down from his ranch today about more trouble over the road across or near his ranch from various homesteads to Coos River. Mr. Smith wanted to swear out a warrant for the arrest of a rancher named Rasmussen who he claims has made threats against him. Rasmussen was tried a few days ago on an insanity charge growing out of the road trouble. Justice Pennock referred Mr. Smith to Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Liljeqvist.

Bring Belleu Back—T. M. Walker of Coquille is expected in on the Breakwater tomorrow from Portland in charge of Bert Belleu, the barber, who is charged with confiscating money belonging to his wife. Walker was going to Portland and was deputized by Sheriff Gage to bring Belleu back with him. Belleu's parents live near Bridge. Whether there will be a reconciliation of the estranged couple is doubtful. If not, it is intimated the case and the divorce suit that is expected to follow it may be rather salacious and draw in the names of a number of well known Coos Bay people.
