Gets Results—"Kill that want ad of mine about a team for sale," telephoned H. D. Putman of North Bend today. "I sold the team the second day I had the want ad in the paper and I don't want to be bothered by so many inquiries about it."

No Decision—J. W. Bennett today received word today from Portland that the Oregon Supreme court had not yet handed down a decision in the Port of Coos Bay case.

New Steamer Here—The Delmond City, Calif., with a cargo of redwood for reshipment on the Bessie Dollar. She will return to Crescent City from here. A half dozen Crescent City people came up on her for a brief visit on the Bay.

Fire Scare—An incipient blaze of unknown origin was discovered in a laundry near the J. H. Flanagan home yesterday afternoon by Master Proctor Flanagan. He promptly gave the alarm and neighbors extinguished the blaze before much damage was done.

Father Dead—Chas. Van Duyn of The Chandler has received word of the death of his father in a hospital at Terra Haute, Ind. Owing to the great distance he will not be able to attend the funeral. Death followed an operation which was performed about a month ago.

Potatoes Higher—Potatoes are up considerably and are now selling at from $2.00 to $2.25. It is claimed that a Japanese gardener in Calif. has got a corner on the market and is responsible for boosting the price. Quite a few eggs are being shipped in here from Portland and other points and eggs are now lower than they have been at this season of the year in a long time.

Injured at Mine—Chas. Deweenso was quite badly burned by a gas explosion at the Millcooma mine across the Bay this morning. He was opening up a new chute. He had worked in it yesterday and did not notice any gas but when he returned this morning, the gas had accumulated and exploded. Manager Ward who was there immediately took him to North Bend for medical attendance and he is getting along nicely.

Nothing Done—The special school meeting of the Bunker Hill district to investigate charges against Principal S. C. Sherrill of the school there of cruelty and inability to maintain discipline resulted in naught. Director Phillips was chairman of the meeting and Mr. Morrison was secretary. Director Walter Richardson introduced a resolution asking that Sherrill be asked to resign at once but it did not receive a second. Then a motion to table the resolution was adopted and then a motion to adjourn carried. There were about twenty at the meeting besides the directors and Supt. Bunch and Supervisor McCormack.

In Partnership—Herbert Coleman, son-in-law of A. J. Savage, is expected here this week from Spokane. He and W. F. Harmon have formed a partnership as representatives of Eastern tailors and will continue the business Mr. Harmon started here. Mr. Harmon does not intend to leave Coos Bay permanently as was understood yesterday. He will make occasional trips to The Dallas to visit customers in that section but will continue to make Coos Bay his home, much to the gratification of his friends here.
