THE WEATHER.
(By Associated Press.)
OREGON—Fair tonight, with heavy frost. Thursday fair, northeast to east winds.

BORN.
FERRIS—To Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Ferris at their home at Coos City, a daughter. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Will Give Concert—The Coos Bay concert band will give a concert at the Masonic Opera House next Sunday afternoon at 2:30. The next band dance will be given at the Eagle's hall Saturday evening, April 13th.

Assessing Here—T. J. Thrift, Coos County assessor, is making the annual assessment of property in Marshfield. No great advance in values is anticipated. Mr. Thrift has practically completed the assessing of North Bend.

Here on Trip—A number of Crescent City people took advantage of the trip of the steamer Del Norte here to enjoy a visit on the Bay. Among those coming up on her were Hugh Edwards and wife and child, Bessie Maxwell, W. Parks, W. F. Betts, L. F. Kellor, E. R. Griffin and Wm. Marshal.

Frost Warnings—The local telephone company has arranged to send out frost warnings from now on to all ranchers in this vicinity and thus afford them an opportunity to protect delicate plants and shrubbery against the cold.

Auto Accident—A. Van Zile of North Bend was on his way home in his new automobile when the car swerved on the Sherman avenue bridge, running into the railing and damaged the car somewhat but Mr. Van Zile escaped injury.

Deputy Assessor—Assessor T. J. Thrift has appointed R. J. Montgomery deputy assessor to assist him in the Marshfield work. As Mr. Montgomery is thoroughly conversant with real estate values on the Bay, he will prove a valuable assistant to Mr. Thrift.

Coos River Trouble—The trouble on Coos River growing out of the dispute over the road near or across the Les Smith ranch is said to be assuming a new phase today. According to reports reaching Justice Pennock, some of the parties involved are planning to sue others for slander.

After Belleu—B. E. Belleu has returned from Coquille where he furnished bonds for his appearance before the grand jury on the charges preferred against him by his wife. Some of his Coos Bay creditors were today trying to arrange with him for a settlement.

Millis Delayed—W. F. Miller, in charge of the local Southern Pacific properties, has received word that C. J. Millis has been unexpectedly delayed at San Francisco and that it is now uncertain when he will be able to visit the Bay. Right of Way Agent Marsh returned home yesterday from a trip to the Siuslaw. With the exception of some minor details, he for all the right of way from Coos Bay to within eight miles of the Umpqua, the northern end of his territory. Another right of way

The "Child's Welfare" movement has challenged the attention of thoughtful people everywhere. Mothers are natural supporters, and will find in Foley's Honey and Tar Compound a most valuable aid. Coughs and colds that unchecked lead to croup, bronchitis and pneumonia yield quickly to the healing and soothing qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. For sale by Preuss Drug Co., and Red Cross Drug Co.

FOR SALE—120 acre homestead with improvements and a five room house on the same. 2 mi. from the Coquille River. For particulars enquire of W. W. Coy, Conlogue Camp, Lampa, Oregon.

FOR SALE—One new 26-foot gasoline launch. See Max Timmerman, 862 North Front street.

FOR RENT—Two nice sunny house-keeping rooms. Inquire at Nassburg Grocery.

LATTIN HOTEL—Board and room, $1 per day; $6 per week; family style. 315 Second St., South.

TWO FURNISHED ROOMS to rent. 392 Broadway.

man is working there. Mr. Marsh says the only place where the Summer projects threatens to interfere with them is across the Tualieoon Gun Club grounds.

Derelict Ida McKay—Capt. B. W. Olson of the Nann Smith who is in port to pilot out the Bessie Dollar says that he is quite confident that the derelict which was reported afloat off Cape Arago, is the hulk of the schooner Ida McKay. The Ida McKay turned turtle while en route from the Coquille to a California port a few weeks ago. The entire crew was saved. Nothing has been reported concerning the derelict since the Nann Smith passed her.
