Fisher, her brother, left today for New Britain, Conn., via San Francisco and Panama and if that route is not too arduous, Mrs. Scaife and family will probably go that way.

W. P. Murphy and wife who are making a trip through California have been at Los Angeles the past week. They visited for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Dow, parents of F. S. Dow, at National City, Calif. In writing of their visit, Mrs. Dow says that at the time they reached there, the first rain storm that has prevailed in Southern California in many months was in full sway, much to Mr. Murphy's disgust. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy are expected to return to the Bay about April 1.

A new organization has been started among the young men of Eastside that promises to add a great deal of pleasure and activity to Eastside social life. About eleven boys compose the membership, who plan to make the club both athletic and social. They have fitted up a club room and intend to give a party or dance each month. The officers are: Will Leaton, president; Engle Peterson, vice-president; Mark Stockle, secretary; Martin Peterson, treasurer.

Besides the officers the list includes as members: Carl West, Victor West, Emil West, Ed Horton, Roy Robinson, Elmer Vineyard, and W. J. La Palme. A dance was given by the society last Saturday night at which about twenty-five couples were present, and another is to be given April 5.

A BEAUTIFUL FOUNTAIN

New Sanitary Thirst Quencher at Sarter's.

The new soda fountain just installed at Sarter's Front street confectionery is not only the most beautiful fountain ever seen in this section, but is the only sanitary fountain on Coos Bay. It is as clean and sweet as a NEW ENGLAND housewife's kitchen. Everything is in plain sight and it is all marble, porcelain and nickel.

They have the largest list of delicious drinks in the city. Everything from the most palatable mixture of choice fruit juices to a plain phosphate. Delicious and nutritious egg drinks and everything in plain and fancy thirst quencher.

Drop into this delightful and cozy little place this evening and try one of the new drinks at the new fountain.

Don't forget—Sarter's on Front street.
