

REV. HALL TO LEAVE HERE

those who are "fellow craftsmen" together in God's work have a fellowship which is impossible for all others to know or experience.

My work has at times even been more strenuous than many would realize. It has had many imperfections. I regret that more has not been accomplished with the time and forces which we have had at our command. Personally the demands have been numerous. My work has been not only in this city but calls to go to Bandon, Coquille, Myrtle Point, Allegany, Eastside, Gardiner have been responded to. My ministrations have also been at points along Coos River and Summer has been given considerable time. The various inlets have been visited almost where I have preached in school houses and in private homes. Everywhere I have been always received loyally and have tried to leave a good impression for the Master. My work on this field has always been looking toward a greater work, always toward the aggressive, and I can honestly say that I have tried to adapt myself to the field and its needs. Today, this field is held more favorably in the mind of the denomination than ever. As evidence of this: Our State Board has decided to send as soon as the right man can be found, a district missionary and the Baptist Publication Society is now considering our own offer of pledges amounting to Fourteen Hundred Dollars and over to build and equip a colportage boat for this section. Our church finances have been gradually improving. The standing indebtedness has been entirely cared for by substantial pledges so that it will soon be wiped out of existence. Our offerings to benevolence and missions this year will exceed very likely Two Hundred Dollars, and the pastor's salary has been promptly paid even up to the present month. A Junior Baptist Union has been organized by Mrs. Hall, which promises a future strength to our work. Nearly One Hundred and Forty members have been received. During this pastorate this church has witnessed almost one hundred immersions. For all of this and much more, I give God the praise, and you my people my appreciation.

Permit me to make a suggestion. In order that the church shall not be without pastoral oversight, I believe that steps should be taken at once to secure my successor. Often churches make mistakes by allowing the space to be too long between pastorate. You will know that owing to our location, isolation, etc., it might require time to bring this all about. To facilitate this I desire, of the church shall so vote, a vacation at the close of April extending into May, during which time candidates may be heard and then the right man can be secured to take the work up at once right where I leave it off. This is an ideal way. Let us strive to have the new pastor ready when I lay the work down that it may go forward even greater than it has heretofore.

Finally, let me say, that my heart's prayer shall always be, "God bless you all."

Many Vacancies Here.
The resignation of Rev. Hall leaves many of the Coos Bay churches without pastors.

Rev. Lind of the Marshfield and North Bend Norwegian Lutheran churches has resigned, effective April 1.

Rev. B. F. Bengtson, who was temporarily filling the pulpits of the Marshfield and North Bend Swedish Lutheran churches, also gave up the charges recently.

ONE ACRE HOMESTEAD

Medford Man Files on Valuable Tract Long Overlooked.
ROSEBURG, March 23.—An unusual transaction was recorded at the Roseburg United States land office Saturday when John McNeill of southern Oregon filed upon an acre of land abutting the city limits of Medford, omitted from the territory embraced in government surveys. In the event McNeill resides on the land continuously for 14 months he can purchase the same from the government for $2.50 and should he wish to waive this payment he can secure a government patent to the land at the expiration of five years.

The land office map shows the acre to be situated almost directly on the outskirts of Medford, and indicates that it is quite valuable. It is believed here that McNeill accidentally learned of the non-survey of the acre by the federal engineers and regards the land as a "find."

GAFFNEY WINS BOISE MATCH

GAFFNEY WINS North Bend Pugilist Scores Victory Over Heavy Opponent in Idaho.

A. H. Gaffney of North Bend has just received a copy of a Boise, Ida., paper telling of a fast bout there recently in which his son, Tommy, won the decision. Young Gaffney fought at 128, while his opponent weighed in at 136. Concerning the go, the Boise paper says:

Tommy Gaffney of Salt Lake was awarded a decision over the Battling Dane by a foul in the tenth round of their boxing battle last night at Forest park, but Gaffney had the exhibitor belt up to that time for he out-boxed him up to that time for he out-boxed and out-pointed the Dane in almost every round and even sunk the Battler to his knees in the fourth with a body blow, only the gong saving the Dane after he had groggily covered when Little Tommy attempted to clip over the sleeping potent. It was a clever classy boxing exhibition and the foul decision of Referee Oscar Smith was conceded to be fair. The Dane caused a sensation when, losing his head, after he discovered the decision had gone to Gaffney, made a rush at the referee in an attempt to floor him, but was held off by the excited fans who swarmed into the ring and amid the excitement carried Gaffney around on their shoulders.

Gaffney won because he outclassed the Dane, and this after giving the Battler eight pounds in weight. He was entitled to a decision, barring the possibility of the Dane knocking him out in the last 10 remaining seconds of the tenth round which was far from probable, because he showed more science, a better knowledge of the boxing art and while probably he did not have the strength of the Dane, he made up for the shortage by making use of his gray matter, for he hit the Battler four times to the latter's once, drove his blows to the head, face and body quickly and with a sting, used strategy of the ring and generalship when he drew the Dane on in one of his wild rushes and then eluding him, stepped in and drove sharp blows to the face, or upper-cut viciously. He was aggressive, and even daring in his ring tactics and is as clever in ducking as any boxer who has stepped into the long ring. When the mill was over he was almost without a scratch.

BONDED INDEBTEDNESS

Of Roseburg's total bonded indebtedness, which is approximately $100,000, over 80 per cent of the bonds are held by local capitalists, according to a statement of Mayor Joseph Micell this morning. Mr. Micell says Roseburg is probably the only town in the state which carries 80 per cent of its outstanding bonds. In most towns the bonds are sold to Eastern capitalists, with the result that thousands of dollars are sent out of the city yearly.—Roseburg News.

CAUSE FOR ALARM

Loss of Appetite or Distress After Eating a Symptom That Should Not Be Disregarded.

Appetite is just a natural desire for food. Loss of appetite or stomach distress after eating indicate indigestion or dyspepsia. Over-eating is a habit very dangerous to a person's good general health.

It is not what you eat but what you digest and assimilate that does you good. Some of the strongest, heaviest, and healthiest persons are moderate eaters.

There is nothing that will cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people daily contract serious maladies simply through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge all in Marshfield who suffer from any stomach derangement, indigestion, or dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the distinct understanding that we will refund their money without question or formality, if after reasonable use of this medicine, they are not perfectly satisfied with the results. We recommend them to our customers every day, and have yet to hear of any one who has not been benefited by them. We honestly believe them to be without equal. They give very prompt relief, aiding to neutralize the gastric juices, strengthen the digestive organs, to regulate the bowels, and thus to promote perfect nutrition, and eradicate all unhealthy symptoms.

We urge you to try a 25c box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, which gives 15 days' treatment. At the end of that time, your money will be returned to you if you are not satisfied. Of course, in chronic cases length of treatment varies. For such cases, we have two larger sizes, which sell for 50c and $1. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, Lockhart-Parsons Drug Co., "The Busy Corner."
