FIND ELECTION FRAUD
Charles C. Bowman of Pennsylvania May Lose Seat in Congress.
 (By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
 WASHINGTON, D. C., March 29.—The House committee on elections voted today four to two to recommend the unseating of Representative Charles C. Bowman, republican, of Pittsburg, Pa., in the eleventh district, on charges of fraud and gross irregularities in his election. The committee does not recommend the seating of George M. McLean, democrat, the contestant.

OUTBREAK IN NANKING
Soldiers Loot City Following Serious Trouble.
 (By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
 PEKIN, March 29.—A report from Nanking today says a serious outbreak occurred there and that the soldiers are looting extensively. The handing over of the presidential seal to Premier Tang Shao Yi, as Yuan Shi Kai's representative is taking place there today.

EACH BLAMES OTHER
Anthracite Operators and Miners Unable to Agree.
 (By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
 NEW YORK, March 29.—In a statement it is reiterated by the operators in the anthracite region that they are ready to grant an immediate hearing if the mine workers desire to communicate with them. This may result in another conference looking to a settlement of the wage scale and other questions. Suspension of work April 1, however, is regarded today by the operators as practically certain. Each side asserts the responsibility for the situation rests with the other.
