your active men to get in the good luck and get all the men possible out of the plants.

Take Time is Pica
If the men start to join in any numbers you must not try to write out books as fast as they want them but take your time and send them on their way until you have the necessary books and stamps on hand. Charge no initiation fee, just the first month's dues and if they are on strike more than one month we will give them strike stamps in place of the regular stamp dues.

I have ordered more stamps from hdqts and expect them in soon so I will be prepared for any emergencies. No need to be afraid that we cant handle the thing and for funds I will say that I have sent out calls all over the country for funds and the St. has informed locals that this fight must be supported. The Gen. Organization has over $4,000, in the treasury as the result of the Lawrence strike and there is no reason some active organization in the bargain.

Tailor workers local has been striking hell in this burg since they were organized a little over a month ago. Have had four strikes in different shops, and have got the 8 hour day in on all of them besides having over 100 members. A. F. L. tailors going on the blink right they tried to put the local out of biz this morning but the I. W. W. picketed the shop and told the scabby bunch that they could take out cards in the I. W. W. by paying $1.50 and they then would be considered union men and could work only 8 hours a day.

All but one of them joined the O. B. U. and the show now runs 8 hours per day with a full crew of reds on the bench. Some direct action to a good purpose I guess.

Marshfield Next Move
Word from Marshfield that the men are already there to jump a straddle of the bosses neck and ride him to hell, can pull some stunts in that country this summer if necessary.

Wire from San Francisco yesterday that the salmon cannery industrial union is on strike for raise in wages and better work. Ship star of Russia left Frisco forty men short and the Alaska packers are up in the air.

Late letters from the front indicate that they are getting scabs from various sources some from here and some from other places even the high school boys from Tacoma are acting as scabs. Those rah-rah boys had better look sharp or they will get their brains loosened up down there.

If there are any fellow-workers there who are not working tell them to go to Cosmopolis and the pass word is sabotage. Use it in any and all openings and use it to a purpose too.

We will have to send some from here as a last resort if we cant do anything else but it is hard to get this bunch here stirred up to go out to do anything, cant even get them to go out and do a good job of picketing on the employment sharks. They would rather warm the chair and wear out their clothes sitting around the halls.

Well Lee, I am too mad to write more so will close before I get a brain storm and grab up a club and get out among the bunch.
Yours for the revolution,

LOCAL OVERFLOW

Drops Contest—Arvid Johnson of Cooston has dismissed his contest of the homestead of B. F. Stage. The homestead is near Cooston and Mr. Stage appeared before Land Commissioner Peck today and proved up on it.

Parrot in Trouble—Capt. O'Kelly's parrot was the center of attraction for a crowd at Front and Central this forenoon. The parrot flew up and alighted on a telephone wire. The wire was too small for its claws to grip and hold the bird upright and evidently the height frightened it. It was doing all kinds of acrobatic stunts trying to keep upright and finally got sick. Then Joe Baker took pity on it and got a lineman to climb up and bring the bird down.

Price Lower—C. H. Marsh, right of way agent for the Southern Pacific, states that the price paid for the right of way across the tide flats at Pony Slough belonging to Fellows and Backey was $300 per acre instead of $400, as was reported yesterday. Mr. Marsh says that he has not yet closed with Mr. Jacobson for the latter's property, although he hopes to do so soon. He has not closed with any of the other new ones at North Bend.

PORT TAX NOTICE
All tax payers who desire to have their port tax used for the improvement of the harbor are requested to immediately sign a relinquishment directing the same to be paid to Dr. E. Mings, Trustee. This can be done at either Flanagan & Bennett Bank, the First National Bank or the Chamber of Commerce.

PORT MATTER IS DISCUSSED

Chamber of Commerce Arranges to Continue Work—Plans Outlined.

At a meeting at the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce last evening, further steps towards carrying out the harbor work until the Port of Coos Bay can be reorganized were perfected. Good progress has been made towards securing waiver from the taxpayers regarding their port tax and it was estimated that at least $20,000 of the $24,000 would be available for Dr. Mings, as trustee, to expend for harbor work.

It was stated that the large corporations would waive their claims against refund of the port tax and pay it in just as soon as the heads of them could be communicated with. Just as soon as their waivers are secured it is proposed to publish a list of them. M. C. Horton stated he had secured waivers from over 90 property owners and only one had refused.

It is also proposed to have Sheriff Gage and Treasurer Dimmick turn over to Dr. Mings as trustee the taxes that already have been paid. The county officers will be given an indemnifying bond to protect them against any future contingency in relation to the tax money. It is estimated that this will make several thousand dollars available in a few weeks.

This will, it is believed, relieve the guarantors of the $7000 fund for having the dredge Oregon carry out the channel improvements between the Cold Storage and Porter, from putting up the cash. Dr. Mings and some others who had talked with Engineer Lee stated that they thought the report that the entire $7000 in cash would have to be deposited now was incorrect. They understood from Mr. Lee's remarks all that would be necessary would be that the money would be there to meet the monthly payrolls. If the port tax money is paid over by the county officials as is now expected, Messrs. Powers, Bennett and Grimes will not have to put up the $7000. Mr. Powers stated last night that although he did not expect to have to put up any of the cash when he guaranteed the fund, he was ready to do so if necessary.

Relative to money that might be obtained from the property owners in front of Ferndale for the benefit of having their property filled, it was stated that if sufficient to pay the cost of the bulkheading and the handling of shore pipe was obtained, they would do well. Tom Bennett stated that Claude Nasburg in behalf of the Nasburg estate positively refused to pay for anything except the bulkhead and would not contribute towards the cost of handling the shore pipe. Some suggested that if Mr. Nasburg would not pay for handling the shore pipe, it be turned so that his property would not get the greatest benefit from it. However, the committee decided that this was too small a matter to quibble over.

Plan Port Election.

Wm. Grimes, who was chairman of the meeting, suggested that steps be taken to hasten the special election to reorganize the port. He said the public generally was anxious to have this done as soon as possible. He said he had talked with Judge Hall about the matter and the latter had informed him that the county court had checked up on the judges and clerks of election that had been appointed at the January session and hoped to avoid any trouble similar to that encountered in the port election case. He said that the county court would again check up the judges and clerks in the port of Coos Bay district at the May term of court if the special election was then ordered.

He suggested that the committee of attorneys looking after the matter be requested to try and get it ready so that the county court could order the election at the May term.

C. R. Peck said that the committee had not had any conference about the matter yet and that J. W. Bennett had not decided that he would serve on it. Mr. Peck said that he was asking the supreme court for a rehearing and hoped to get a decision on the application in about two weeks. He said that he and the other attorneys were anxious to have the supreme court pass on the "forty to sixty day" question and also on the question as to the right of the county to pay for special district elections. He said that he further was asking the supreme court to designate a manner in which the affairs of the old Port Commission could be wound up and how the funds in its hands and the property held by it could be utilized for the people. In view of this doubt was expressed as to whether the special election for the reorganization of the Port could be called at the May term of the county court. If it is not called at the May term, the election cannot be held before fall. Some suggested that it be held in conjunction with the regular November election but some of the attorneys are of the impression that it will have to be a special election.

Some also suggested that the Commissioners of the new port be elected at the November election instead of being appointed by the Governor.

C. R. Peck asked that an actual survey be made to outline the boundaries of the Port of Coos Bay district. He said that it was his understanding that the boundaries had been determined from a topographical map and were not correct and that the Port of Coos Bay district might overlap the Coquille watershed. He suggested that the committee be empowered to have a survey made of the Port district to guard against this question being raised in the future. Henry Sengstacken said that he understood that the Port did not take in enough and if the survey was made, it might be possible to include a large strip of timber land which would contribute considerable to the Port tax. A. H. Powers said that it would not be difficult to definitely establish the lines and finally a motion was adopted instructing the committee to have the new survey made.

Dr. E. Mings wanted to know what should be done about the final payment of the mortgage on the Adams' property which the Port bought for a dock. The amount due is $3000. He was instructed to write Mr. Adams for an extension of time in view of the mix-up over the situation.
