Committees have been appointed as follows: refreshments: Joan Fitzgerald, chairman; Alta Soule, Anna Downs, Eddeva Wheeler, Genevieve Gosney and Howard McLaughlin; games: Mrs. Claude Stutsman, chairman; Ruth McLaughlin, Helen Gulovsen, Thelma Heatherington and Whitford Hall.

The Modern Woodmen of America will give their monthly dance and social Saturday evening, April 13, at the Finnish hall. The Royal Neighbors will be guests of honor.

The Coos Bay Concert Band will give an after-Lenten dance April 13 at the Eagles' Hall.

The concert that was to have been given tomorrow at the Masonic Opera House by the Coos Bay Concert Band has been postponed until a later date because of the many other happenings that occur on Easter Sunday. The Knights Templar services are to be held at two-thirty.

Mrs. A. E. Pollexfen and little son, Jack, are expected on the Bay shortly for an extended visit at the W. S. Turpen home and with other relatives and friends on the Bay. Mr. Pollexfen will join them here in the early summer for a short stay.

H. J. McKeown was host at a Turkey dinner at the Chandler Grill last evening, the occasion being the carving of the bird which he won at a recent shoot of the Marshfield Gun Club. The spread was arranged by Henry Day, the popular steward of the Chandler who has just returned to his old position after a few months' stay in Boise, Ida., and the table was decorated in a novel way, typifying the nimrod. Clay-pigeons served as platters, etc. Among those enjoying Mr. McKeown's hospitality were Dr. Geo. E. Dix, Dr. A. L. Houseworth, G. A. Brown, J. Albert Matson, Frank Laise, James Baines and W. N. Ekblad.

Word has been received by Coos Bay friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Lafon who left here recently that instead of going back to North Carolina that they will go to Vancouver, B. C., where Mr. Lafon has secured a most excellent position. When they left here, Mr. Lafon planned to resume his old position in government forestry work near Ashville, N. C., but when he reached San Francisco he was offered the position of supervising the sale of all the Canadian government land in British Columbia. His many friends on Coos Bay are elated over Mr. Lafon's advancement.

Mrs. A. B. Gidley will sing the solos, "Where have they laid him," from "The Light of the World," by Sullivan, and "I know that my Redeemer liveth" from "The Messiah" by Handel, at the Easter services of the Knights Templar at the Masonic Temple. Mr. L. K. Ballinger will sing the solo "Hosanna" by Granter. The Episcopal choir is to furnish the other music.

It has been asked by the Library Board that the paper print the following list of fiction and children's books with the request that persons who have these books and feel able to do so contribute them to the library and thus enlarge its stock. In spring house-cleaning, books that the children have outgrown, or of which one has two copies, are often found and these are more than acceptable as the library fund is limited and few books find their way to the shelves except by the kindness of contributors. So if anyone is possessed of any of the following list the library will greatly appreciate the gift of them:

- Fiction: Deland—"The Iron Woman." Smith—"Kennedy Square." Barclay—"The Following of the Star." Farnol—"The Money Moon." "My Lady Caprice." Malet—"Adrian Savage." Johnston—"Lewis Rand." "The Long Roll." Forman—"The Unknown Lady." Bacheller—"Keeping up with Lizzie." Ward—"The Case of Richard Meynell." Lincoln—"Cap'n Warren's Wards." Abbott—"Molly Make-Believe." "The Sick-Abed Lady." Parker—"The Pomander Walk." Nicholson—"A Hoosier Chronicle." Reed—"At the Sign of the Jack o' Lantern." Cable—"Kinkaid's Battery." Stevenson—"Travels with a Donkey." "Merry Men." Meredith—"The Ordeal of Richard Feverel." Howells—"A Modern Instance." Tarkington—"The Two Vanrevels." Bulfinch—"Age of Fable."

- Children's: Barrie—"Peter and Wendy"—Scribner $1.50. Sidney—"Five Little Peppers, and How They Grew." Alcott—"Joe's Boys"; "Under the Lilacs"; "Rose in Bloom." Valle—"Orcutt Girls"; "Sue Orcutt." Stevenson—"Treasure Island." Pyle—"The Christian Angel." White—"When Molly Was Six"; "Ednah and Her Brothers." Johnston—"Little Colonel Stories." Lagerlof—"Wonderful Adventures of Nils." Ray—"Teddy; Her Book"; "Half a Dozen Girls." Barbour—"Captain of the Crew"; "For the Honor of the School." Munroe—"Derrick Sterling." Davidson—"The Businikins—Bunnies in Camp"; "The Businikins—Bunnies in Europe." Aldrich—"Story of a Bad Boy." Bennett—"Master Skylark." Spyri—"Heidi." Cox—"Brownie Books." Duncan—"Adventures of Billy Top-sail." Saylor—"Airship Boys' Ocean Flyer."

The Cordiality Club will be entertained Thursday of next week by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hildenbrand.

Miss Bessie Flye entertained the C. I. E. club at a real April Fool's party Monday evening, April 1. The surprise came with the serving of refreshments when the guests attempted to eat (as was perfectly natural) the delectable salad mounds covered with whipped cream and garnished ever so prettily which lay at their plates and found them as cotton in their mouths. But after this little April fool joke very real and delicious refreshments were served and the party broke up after a very merry evening. Among the guests were Misses Beatrice Smith, Mary Hansen, Edith Hildenbrand, Eliza Ayre and Bessie Ayre, the latter of whom will be hostess to the club Tuesday evening, April 9.

The Sacred Cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ" was given last night at the Emmanuel Episcopal church by the church choir under the direction of Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., before an audience that filled the church and adjacent grounds. Compliments and praise have come from all quarters to Mrs. Horsfall for her wonderful work in training the choir in its support of the soloists, Mrs. A. B. Gidley and Mr. L. K. Ballinger. The cantata is one which, holding high dramatic possibilities, has been attempted by no other city on the coast, with the possible exception of Portland, and its presentation here was made possible only by the presence of the two soloists, Mrs. Gidley and Mr. Ballinger, both of whom were in splendid voice last night and did full justice to the great selection. Mrs. Horsfall is to be complimented on her interpretation of the cantata and on the work which resulted in the excellent support of the choir last evening.

The High School of North Bend gave a picnic party at the sandhills last Saturday evening, about twenty-five attending. Mr. and Mrs. Grubbs and Mrs. Woodbury acted as chaperons of the party.
