BORN.

NOAH—To Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Noah at their home on North Broadway, Oregon, an eight and one half pound son. Mr. and Mrs. Noah formerly lived in Marshfield.

DEAN—To Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dean at their home on North Broadway, Saturday, April 6, a daughter. Mother and child are doing nicely.

SCOTT—To Mr. and Mrs. Mark M. Scott at their home in South Marshfield, April 6, a daughter.

Enlarge Bandon—Parties returned from Bandon report that a special election will be held there May 3 for the purpose of annexing considerable outlying territory. The council there is also preparing to adopt a new charter.

Tomorrow Last Day—Tuesday is the last day to register for the primaries which will be held April 19. If you want to vote and haven't registered, you had better hurry. It is estimated that less than seventy-five per cent of the total vote in the county will be registered for the primaries.

Sought Here—The Coos county officers have not yet succeeded in locating George Morrow, accused of larceny of a rifle from B. Bates, a Melrose farmer. It was reported that he was seen in Myrtle Point, heading for the coast, but Sheriff Quine inclines to the belief that Morrow did not go to Coos county at all.—Roseburg Review.

Accept Plans—At a meeting Saturday night, the Eastside school board accepted the plans of B. B. Ostlund for the new school building there. The plan will be submitted to the county superintendent and just as soon as he approves them, bids for the construction of the building will be asked.

Baby Christened—Yesterday about 1 o'clock, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Pinegor was christened by the Rev. R. E. Browning at the Episcopal church. Robert Emmett was the name conferred upon him, being the same as the father's. The sponsors were the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Eickworth. The only other witnesses were Mrs. Fred Hauschildt and Mrs. Mildred Jamison. Mr. and Mrs. Pinegor entertained their relatives at dinner in honor of the event.

Runaway Sunday—A livery team belonging to the Blanchard livery got frightened yesterday. They were left standing untied. They ran straight for the barn. As they passed the postoffice E. K. Jones saw them and thinking that there might be some one in the rig he made a heroic effort to stop them. He succeeded in checking their speed but lost his footing and fell under the buggy. This forced him to relinquish his hold. The team proceeded to the barn slowly. Mr. Jones was more or less bruised by the fall. Had he known that the rig was empty he would not have made the attempt.

Mother Dead—E. S. Bargelt today received word of the death of his mother, Mrs. E. S. Bargelt, at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. S. Hayes, in Norfolk, Neb. Death was due to complications due to old age. She was about eighty-seven and had been failing for some time. He visited her last summer. A strange coincidence was that her death occurred just twenty years to a day after the death of her husband.

Ekblad Won—In a shooting contest between W. N. Ekblad and A. O. Rogers, Jr., at the Marshfield Gun Club grounds yesterday, Ekblad won by a score of 19 to 15 out of a possible twenty-five. The shooting yesterday was abruptly ending by the new trap breaking.

Favor Port Work—Dr. E. Mings received letters today from several Portland parties who own property on the Bay stating that they wish waivers be sent them so that their tax money can be used in improving the harbor. They stated that it would be a serious blow to the Bay to have the harbor improvement stopped.

Coquille Girl Dead—Word was received here today of the death of Miss Ray Collier of Coquille at Napa, Calif. She had been there for the last six months for the benefit of her health, having been a sufferer from tuberculosis. Her father, Henry Collier, of Coquille was with her during the last week. For several years, she was connected with the offices of the Coos County Clerk and the Assessor. She was a niece of Mrs. A. G. Alken and a cousin of Mrs. Otto Schetter of Marshfield. The body will be brought to Coquille for burial.

Close Postoffice Wednesday—On account of remodeling the fixtures of the Marshfield postoffice the office Postmaster Curtis announces it will be closed on Wednesday, April 10. Patrons having boxes can get their mail by calling before 8 A. M. The outside door will be locked at 8 A. M. and no one will be admitted until the change is made which will be toward evening.

May be Suicide—Mrs. Geo. Condie of Bandon was in Marshfield yesterday trying to trace her husband who dropped out of sight here early last week. She stated that he sent her a postoffice order for $60, all the money he had with him, but did not write any message. She and Marshal Carter have practically made up their minds that Mr. Condie committed suicide either by drowning himself in the Bay or ending his life in an obscure place in the woods.

New Members—At a meeting of the Marshfield Tennis Club Saturday night, committees were appointed to get the courts in condition for play. It was decided to arrange a tourney with the Bandon club sometime in the summer. It was also decided to issue two courtesy cards to each member who may give them to lady friends desiring to use the court. Five new members, making a total of twenty, were admitted. They were C. F. McKnight, G. H. Rodd, F. A. Tiedgen, Vernon Smith and Wesley Seaman.

New Glasses—We have just received a complete line of glassware, comprising full dinner sets, including water goblets, claret, almonds, wine, champagne, sherbets, fruits, sherbet pousse cafe, finger bowls. Both in the etched and cutglass. The only complete line ever shown in Marshfield. PIONEER HARDWARE CO.

FATHER IS DEAD
Mrs. J. H. Price of Allegany Receives Word of Parent's Death
Mrs. J. H. Price of Allegany has word that her father, J. S. Daniels, of Covina, California, passed away Thursday, April 4th. Interment will probably take place at Belleville, Kas., where his wife was laid to rest about two years ago.

Mr. Daniels and Miss Pearl, his daughter, spent two months last summer with Mrs. Price and he made many friends here.
Mr. Daniels was born in Ohio in 1844. At three years of age, his parents moved to Jonesville, Wisconsin, where he grew to manhood. He served in the 33rd Wisconsin for three years during the Civil War. In 1869 he married Aurora Dibble. They are survived by five children, Mrs. J. H. Price of Allegany, Ore., Mrs. H. Tucker, of Hardy, Neb., L. G. Daniels, of Covina, Calif., Dr. E. A. Daniels of Whittier, Calif., and Miss Pearl Daniels.

They moved to California about six years ago from Belleville, Kas., where they had resided since 1870.
