

SCHOOL NOTES

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Friday morning the high school boys and Mr. Barker worked on the school grounds finishing up some work that was begun on the preceding Friday.

The regular meeting of the High School literary society will be held Thursday evening, April 25.

The Seniors have begun work on their play, "The Rose of Plymouth Town," to be given in May. The seniors will be assisted by Miss Silverman and Geo. Johnson.

SOUTH MARSHFIELD SCHOOL

Ruth Dungan was absent on Monday on account of illness.

A joint session of the A. and B divisions was held Monday afternoon in the eighth grade when Rev. R. E. Browning gave a very interesting and instructive talk to the pupils on China. Rev. Browning spent about twenty months in China as a missionary and being very familiar with the life and customs of the Chinese gave some very vivid descriptive accounts of the people to the pupils. He brought with him pictures of some of the typical Chinese students who went to school to him at St. John's University where he taught. He also read extracts in the Chinese language and then translated them. He wrote some names in the Chinese characters.

In the Seventh grade Irmond Carlson, Ruth Cowan, Charles Craig, Helen Dow, Zoe Dolan, Lawrence Horton, Karl Sandquist, and Harvey Walter have not been absent during the past four months.

In the Sixth grade Guy Clausen, Ruby Cooley, Ted Dow, Myrl Cox, Myrtle Isaacson, Eliza McKay, Albert Powers, Bessie Sandquist and Nettie Snodden have not been absent during this month.

The Seventh grade have finished their work in History and Agriculture and are doing written work in review.

Those standing above 90 in each spelling test this month were Irmond Carlson, Ruth Cowan, Zoe Dolan, Lawrence Horton, Howard Kelley, Ray Lee, Myrtle Nelson, Wesley Seaman, Carl Sandquist and Charles Craig of the seventh.

In the Sixth those above 90 in each spelling test were Guy Clausen, Ruby Cooley, Myrl Cox, Myrtle Isaacson, Bessie Sandquist, Eliza McKay and Ted Dow.

Ernest Lee accidentally cut his foot last Saturday and has not been attending school this week.

Good work in the painting of Easter lilies was done this week by Clara Abel, Stella Haglund, Marguerite Leceq, Edward Knox and Esther Holm.

High grades above 90 were won in examinations this week by Bernice Mirrasoul, Elwin Johnson and Stella Magnus of the B class, and Lillian Seaman, Eben Connor, Edward Knox of the A class.

Rev. Rutledge, with a friend, visited this room Wednesday morning.

Supt. Howard of Coquille has received copies of all orations that are to be delivered in the County Contest to be held in the Coquille Masonic Opera House, April 26. Each of the high schools will be represented. This year the speeches and subjects are as follows:

Coquille—"A Child of Misfortune," Alice Cullin.
 Myrtle Point—"Abraham Lincoln," Dora Harrison.
 Bandon—"The Passing of the Queen," Lela Buckingham.
 North Bend—"An Unwritten History," Chas. J. Van Zile.
 Marshfield—"The Man of the Hour," Leslie Isaacson.

The winner of the contest will receive the beautiful gold medal offered by R. S. Knowlton, as his permanent possession, while the school he represents will have the custody of the McCormac cup for the ensuing year.

Visitors at the Central School on Arbor Day included Mrs. W. H. Painter, Mrs. Mathison, Mrs. B. H. Patchett, Mrs. F. H. Clarke, Mrs. E. R. Henderson, Mrs. W. J. Robson, Mrs. A. B. Smith, Mrs. W. C. MR. INVESTOR!!
 When you are looking for an investment you are not looking for fancy prices; ARE YOU?
 Well, that is one of the points I pay special attention to.

When you look over my lists you will find it a bargain list from beginning to end.

My list includes timber land, farm land, city property, townsite property and city lots. Cash and easy payment propositions.

Come up and have a chat anyway. You don't know what you can do till you try.

Mr. Ball Player:
 Don't you want to compare your playing and the records of your team with the playing of men on National and American League teams, and how can you do so if you do not play with a

Cork Center Ball?
 Your accurate throwing, your perfect stick work, your long throws, and above all that perfect confidence which all ball players need, all depend upon a standard ball and the real standard ball is the style used in the World Series games.

SUMMONS
 IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF COOS.
 John S. Coke and John K. Kollock, plaintiffs vs. H. A. Monday, defendant—Summons.
 To H. A. Monday, defendant above named:
 IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON:

You are hereby required to appear and answer or otherwise plead to the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit in the above entitled Court on or before Saturday, the 4th day of May, A. D. 1912, and if you fail to so appear and answer or otherwise plead to said complaint for want thereof, the plaintiffs will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in their complaint, a succinct statement of which is as follows:

1st. That you, H. A. Monday, be required to perform the conditions of your agreement to purchase entered into on the 16th day of October, A. D. 1906, by and between yourself and L. D. Kinsey for the benefit of John S. Coke and John K. Kollock by the terms of which agreement you agreed and promised to purchase and pay for Lots one (1) and two (2) in Block forty-seven (47) of the Townsite of Coos Bay, Plat B, Coos County, Oregon, according to the plat thereof on file and of record in the office of the County Clerk of Coos County, Oregon, and that you be required to pay to the plaintiffs herein or into Court for the use of the plaintiffs above named, the sum of Three Hundred Seventy-five ($375) Dollars now due under the provisions of said agreement, together with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the 16th day of October, A. D. 1906, to date, within ten (10) days from the time of entering a decree against you or within such time as the Court may deem reasonable.

2nd. And in case you fail so to do within the time designated by the Court, that you and all persons claiming any right, title or interest to said real property by, through or under you, be foreclosed and forever debarred of any and all right or redemption or equity in said real property.

3rd. That the plaintiffs herein be awarded judgment against you for their costs and disbursements of this suit and for such other or different relief as to the Court may seem equitable and just.

This summons is served upon you, H. A. Monday, by publication thereof in the Coos Bay Times for the period of six consecutive weeks (see insertions), commencing with the issue of March 23rd, A. D. 1912, pursuant to an order of the Honorable John F. Hall, County Judge for the County of Coos, State of Oregon, duly made on the 22nd day of March, A. D. 1912.
