FARMING WITH DYNAMITE
This explosive is being used more and more as a labor-saving agent on the farm in work aside from blowing out stumps and rocks. It digs irrigating ditches and turns up subsoil. The farmer blows up trees instead of chopping them down, at the same time disposing of the stumps. He also sets out fruit trees with the aid of powder. A special moving picture has been taken showing these various operations. It will be EXHIBITED TONIGHT at the ROYAL THEATER in connection with the usual run of moving pictures—"The Two Mothers," "The Daughters of the West" and "Caves of La Jolla"—in all a good entertainment, pleasing as well as instructive. New vaudeville act on Friday. We appreciate your patronage and trust you will be well pleased at all times.

WILL ENJOIN DOUBLE TRACK

Eugene O'Connell to Oppose Terminal Railway's Action on Front Street.

It was reported here this afternoon that an injunction proceeding was to be instituted against the Terminal Railway to prevent it laying a double track on Front street.

Eugene O'Connell was reported to be the party starting action. When seen, Mr. O'Connell stated that he had the matter under consideration and would probably institute proceedings soon.

It is understood that his action will be based on the ground that the franchise did not contemplate the construction of a double track until the business warranted it and that the double track will be injurious to Front street property.

BESTCOTT CASE NEARLY CLOSED

Final Testimony Likely to Be Submitted This Afternoon—Grand Jury.

COQUILLE, Ore., April 24.—The taking of testimony in the case of Goldie Bestcott, on trial for the murder of Chas. Murray in Marshfield last December, will be completed this evening, it is expected.

Aside from the contention set up by the defense that Murray died of pneumonia and that the bullet wounds inflicted by Goldie Bestcott were not the direct cause of death, little new has developed in the testimony. Physicians were called as expert witnesses on this phase of it. The grand jury is still probing the Evans murder case. Several new witnesses are here from South Slough. Among them Ed. Metcalf, Jas. Elliott, Jas. McKenzie, John Lawson, Jas. Wasson, George Wasson and Jap Luse.

It could not be learned whether the Metcalf case is being probed.

CLEAN-UP DAY PLANS GIVEN

At a meeting of the Marshfield Improvement Club last night final plans for clean-up day were discussed and a committee appointed to take charge of the day. These plans will be made public when made complete.

Mrs. Green, chairman of the committee on outlines and plans, reported that it was the sense of the committee that a special finance committee should be appointed to consider ways and means for raising necessary funds for public work; a publicity committee to keep the work before the public; and a committee to report to the club matters requiring their attention. As work that might be taken up soon the committee recommended securing playgrounds for children which could be fitted out at small expense and would afford a place for the children other than the mudflats and the streets.

The matter of getting a landscape gardener was discussed and Dr. Straw said that there were artists in the coast cities who would be glad to come and give us the benefit of their opinion and advice for no other consideration than expenses and the fine outfit. This matter of securing such services was left to Dr. Straw.

It was decided that dues of 10 cents a month or a dollar a year if paid in advance be asked of members in addition to the entrance fee of one dollar.

The membership committee are at work and should receive the support of every family in Marshfield.
