Maximum 38
Minimum 39
At 4:43 a. m. 39
Precipitation15
Total precipitation for the year 51.00
Wind south; cloudy.

Is Director.—Through an error, the name of J. E. Edmunds was omitted from the list of members of the Board of Control of the Coos Bay branch of the Provident Loan & Savings Association, which has just been organized.

Is Injured.—Mrs. C. K. Perry slipped and fell down a small flight of steps at their home last evening and severely sprained her elbow and sustained some bad bruises. Although the injury is very painful, it is not of a serious nature.

Carried Curry.—Unofficial advices from the Curry county primaries are that I. S. Smith received 181 votes and Fred K. Gettins 97 there for the republican nomination for state senator. This makes Mr. Smith's majority over Gettins 114.

Resigns Place.—C. R. Peck has resigned his place as a member of the railroad committee of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce. The action was taken because he felt that as a representative of the Sumner lines it would be hardly right for him to participate in negotiations affecting rival interests.

Will Celebrate.—Members of the Marshfield Odd Fellows lodge and encampment and of the Rebekahs will tonight unite in a joint celebration of the 93d anniversary of Odd Fellowship. As reported to the grand lodge there were 1,520,638 members in the United States in 1911. At that time Oregon had 17,774 members.

Denies Deal.—F. A. Warner, who was yesterday reported to have purchased an 80-acre tract on the east side of the Bay from Claude Nasburg and others, stated today that it was all news to him. He said that he had not heard of it before. The story was in general circulation yesterday and was apparently well substantiated, although not verified by the parties concerned.

Fireman Hurt.—Homer Mauzey while drilling with the Marshfield fire department hose teams was quite painfully injured last evening. In turning the corner at Front and Market, he slipped and fell. Realizing that the cart would run over him if he released his hold on the rope, he hung on and was dragged quite a distance. He was severely wrenched and badly bruised.

Democrats Organize.—Hugh McLain and W. J. Rust have returned from Coquille, where they attended a meeting of the newly-elected Coos county democratic central committee. Mr. McLain was elected chairman for the ensuing year and Mr. Rust secretary and treasurer. A dozen or so of the "faithful" were present and discussed plans of making a very active campaign.

Electric Incubator.—An electric incubator is the latest novelty shown here. J. E. Edmunds received one today and plans to hatch out a setting of eggs in it in the window of his store. The incubator automatically adjusts the current so as to maintain the proper temperature.

Go to Coquille.—Supt. Tiedgen, Principal Barker and Leslie Isaacson leave this afternoon for Coquille, where the Coos county oratorical contest will be held this evening. Leslie Isaacson will represent the Marshfield high school. In consequence of the contest, it was necessary for the schools to close at 1 o'clock today, the regular noon hour being dispensed with and all the regular school work being done.

Many Interested.—I. S. Kaufman, who returned last evening from a few weeks' trip to Eugene, Portland, Spokane, Lewiston and other northwestern points, reports that everywhere he went he found great interest manifested in Coos Bay. At Spokane especially, he found many were planning to come to Coos Bay to locate just as soon as they can arrange their affairs. He says Eugene is quite lively, but he did not find any place that had as good prospects as Coos Bay has.

Waterworks Deal.—T. J. Nolan's option to purchase the Coos Bay waterworks will expire May 1, according to the announcement made some time ago. Messrs. J. W. Bennett and J. H. Flanagan were to have left tomorrow for Portland and it was presumed that they were going there for the purpose of closing the negotiations, but they have postponed their trip north for a week. The abstracts of the property were forwarded but recently to Omaha, it is said, and this may have been the cause of the delay. The option price was announced to be $150,000.

NORTH BEND NEWS.

R. J. Coke, A. Van Zile and J. H. Greves have been appointed appraisers to appraise the Jacob Evans estate.

The Sumner and North Bend ball teams will play in North Bend Sunday afternoon.

Jack Nowlin's young son sustained a bad gash above his eye the other day by being struck by a ball bat while engaged in a juvenile game.

H. A. Harris and family have returned from a trip to Southern California and Florida.

The hour for the services in the Episcopal church at North Bend has been changed from 3:30 to 2 o'clock every Sunday afternoon. Services are held in a hall in the Myers building.

Miss Lenora Tope is very sick with nervous prostration at her home at North Bend Heights. She was to have graduated from the eighth grade this year but has had to give up all school work because of this illness. She hopes to be able to take the state examination at a later date.

PAY TAXES PROMPTLY

Coos County Property Owners Respond Promptly.

The total tax of Coos county for the year 1911, as appears upon the rolls in the sheriff's office is $544,588.78. Of this sum $409,915.63 was paid up to April 1, leaving a balance due for the past year of $134,673.16. When half-payments are made in the fall practically all the taxes for the past year will have been paid. No better argument could be embodied in any literature for boosting Coos county than the facts above set forth. It demonstrates in a most convincing and indisputable manner the prosperity of our taxpayers which element constitutes the stability of any community. We doubt if any other section can produce figures of a corresponding ratio.
