intended dance of next week to May 17. The delay is principally because the bazaar of the Catholic ladies falls upon the regular Friday night of the Dancing Club and upon the nights preceding and following.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

The congregation of the Episcopal church will hold the annual parish meeting in the church at 7:30 Monday evening, May 6, for the purpose of electing a vestry to serve for the coming year.

Mrs. H. R. Hyde entertained at tea Friday afternoon six Presbyterian ladies, Mrs. A. E. Diment, Mrs. F. S. Dow, Mrs. L. W. Langdon, Mrs. A. L. Butz, Mrs. Mary Thompson and Mrs. F. A. Tiedgen.

The Baptist Mission Circle met Wednesday at the home of Miss Mamie Gulovson on Fifth Street. The meeting was opened with singing, Scripture reading and prayer. The topic "Western Women in Eastern Lands" was discussed by Mrs. Patchett; and papers on "Women's Life in India" and "Women's Life in the Orient" were read by Mrs. Colvin. Mrs. Marsh also read a paper on the subject "Objections to Mission," and Mrs. Alva Doll on "Finding a Pastor." At the close of the program, refreshments were served. A good many members were present.

The Art Club was entertained Friday by Mrs. John Blatt at sewing and accompanying chat. A very pleasant afternoon was spent. Mrs. A. B. Gidley and her mother, Mrs. Stanley, were guests of the club. Among those members present were Mrs. F. M. Flye, Mrs. W. B. Curtis, Mrs. F. L. Sumner, Mrs. Ivy Condon, Mrs. E. D. McArthur, Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer, Mrs. A. L. Hoagworth, Mrs. J. G. Kinney, Mrs. Wm. Hoagland, Mrs. J. W. Hildenbrand, Mrs. Wm. Schroeder, Mrs. Levi Hensner, Mrs. Jas. Cowan, Mrs. C. M. McFeores, Mrs. Lydia Lang, and Mrs. John Blatt.

Mrs. F. S. Dow is to entertain Monday at tea as one of the links in the Presbyterian chain of teas. Her guests are to be Mrs. C. H. Walter, Mrs. Eva Gammill, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Flye, Mrs. Rolandson and Mrs. A. E. Diment.

Miss Marian Seaman, Miss Adelaide Clarke, Miss Gladys Diment, Miss Helen Dow, and Miss Ruth Horton are luncheon guests of Mrs. F. G. Horton today as a variation of the Presbyterian chain of teas.

Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. A. W. Myers completed her link of the Presbyterian chain of teas by entertaining Miss Hattie Hansen, Miss Della Chapman, Mrs. Perry Dodson, Mrs. C. H. Walter and Mrs. Ketting.

Her home was prettily decorated with orange blossoms and pansies.

Mrs. Esther Converse, entertaining in behalf of the Presbyterian tea fund, was hostess Thursday to Mrs. C. W. Tower, Mrs. L. M. Noble, Mrs. Thos. Howard, Mrs. J. W. Flanagan, and Mrs. W. S. Nicholson.

Mrs. Henry Bishop, taking part in the week's entertainment, was hostess Friday to Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Jas. Barkhouse, Mrs. Mary Nicols, Mrs. G. W. Dungan, Mrs. J. C. Swinford and Mrs. Walter Wilson of Ferndale.

Half-a-dozen little maids of the very-younger set gathered at the home of Miss Kathryn Horton last Saturday for an afternoon tea such as their mothers, members of the Presbyterian Women's Auxiliary, have been giving for the last two weeks. Once met, they decided that a sewing club would offer more attractions, so they promptly organized, strictly according to Parliamentary rule, and elected their officers. The proceeds of the tea were generously donated to the fund being built up by the Auxiliary in its chain of teas, but hereafter the weekly tax will probably go toward providing enjoyment for the sewing circle. Today Miss Anna Myers is hostess to the members, among whom are Misses Virginia Clarke, Lillian Seaman, Helen Reese and Kathryn Horton.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church met with Mrs. Eva Gammill Wednesday afternoon for a short business meeting and for hearing the report of the committee in charge of the chain of teas. Although the chain has been broken in one or two links by illness of members, still the result is going to be very satisfactory and quite a sum netted. Among those present this week were Mrs. H. R. Hyde, Mrs. Ketting, Mrs. A. E. Diment, Mrs. F. S. Dow, Mrs. F. M. Flye, Mrs. A. L. Barker, Mrs. A. E. Seaman and Mrs. C. H. Walter.

Mrs. Jas. Cowan, Jr., was hostess to the Sisters of Bethany Tuesday afternoon in place of Miss Maude Reed from whose home in Ferndale the party was debarred by the unusually wet weather. A cooked food sale to be held at Perry-Nicholson's store this afternoon was planned as part of the business of the day. Among those present were Mrs. J. T. McCormac, Mrs. F. A. Hazard, Mrs. Mary McKnight, Mrs. Harry Bradford, Mrs. F. M. Denning, Mrs. F. A. Sacchi, and Rev. R. E. Browning. Mrs. P. A. Sandberg will be hostess next Tuesday, May 7.

The A. N. W. Club was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. J. T. McCormac. No particular business came up at the business session and the meeting was largely devoted to needle work. Refreshments were served, Mrs. McCormac being assisted by Mrs. M. C. Maloney. Those present were Mrs. F. E. Allen, Mrs. H. R. Hyde, Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mrs. Mary McKnight, Mrs. S. Lando, Mrs. I. Lando, Mrs. Geo. F. Murch, Mrs. Mary R. Smith, Mrs. F. M. Friedberg, Mrs. J. T. Hall, Mrs. E. G. Flanagan, and two guests, Mrs. Tozer and Mrs. Hicking, the latter being the guests of Mrs. Murch and Mrs. Allen, respectively. The club will meet next Thursday with Mrs. E. G. Flanagan.

Doric Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will have a social session next Tuesday evening for the members and some of their friends.

The C. J. E. Club meeting this week was postponed on account of the illness of one of its members, but will be held next Monday with Miss Edith Hildenbrand.

The Social Sewing Club met with Mrs. Wm. Chapman this week. Only the regular members were present, Mrs. Geo. Ayres, Mrs. Rhodes, Mrs. J. C. Swanson and Mrs. J. C. Swinford. Mrs. Rhodes will be hostess Thursday, May 9.

The Minnie-Wis Social Club partook of a dainty little lunch and spent the afternoon at fancy work at the home of Mrs. Mary Thompson Thursday. Mrs. A. Z. Downs and Mrs. Davis were guests of the club. The members present were Mrs. Helen Baldwin, Mrs. J. H. LaChapelle, Mrs. E. E. Kelly, Mrs. W. K. Perkins, Mrs. F. H. Dresser and Mrs. D. A. Jones. In place of next week's meeting a Coos River picnic is planned, to occur either Saturday or Sunday of next week or the following week, as the weather is favorable or wet. Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Chas. LaChapelle have been named as a boat committee while Mrs. Baldwin and Mrs. Dresser will plan the "eats." A fine outing is anticipated. Husbands and a few friends will be invited.

This afternoon the W. C. T. U. are holding a meeting at the home of Mrs. Fannie Wheeler on Third Street, to consider the usual business that comes up at the monthly meetings.

The Progress Club was very pleasantly entertained last Monday by Rev. and Mrs. Robert E. Browning on the topic "Places of Interest in the Orient." Rev. Browning, who has spent some time in the East gave a short talk on the customs and appearances of people and towns, particularly those along the many great rivers of China, India, and Northern Africa, including the cities of Port Said, Aden, Ceylon, Hongkong, and Shanghai. Mrs. E. G. Flanagan was appointed chairman of the educational work committee, in response to a request to that effect from the State Federation. At the close of the afternoon the hostess served tea and cakes, furnished by the refreshment committee, Mrs. M. C. Maloney and Mrs. F. E. Lefe. Present were Mrs. G. W. Kaufman, Mrs. E. G. Flanagan, Mrs. J. M. Upton, Mrs. C. W. Tower, Mrs. J. W. Bennett, Mrs. M. C. Maloney, Mrs. F. E. Lefe, Mrs. F. G. Horton, Mrs. W. S. Nicholson, Mrs. I. Lando, and Mrs. Robert E. Browning. Mrs. J. M. Upton will entertain the club Monday, May 13.

The Jolly Dozen will meet Wednesday for their regular session with Mrs. J. Brockmiller at her home on Bunker Hill.

The Priscilla Club met Wednesday with Mrs. Henry Olson at her home at Bunker Hill for the usual social meeting. The day was spent in conversation, needlework and music, after which the hostess served lunch. Present were Mrs. Knud Erickson, Mrs. J. McIntosh, Mrs. J. Dennison, Mrs. Frost, Mrs. Fred Grinolds, Miss Mabel Mathison, Miss Signa Larson, and Mrs. Geo. Rourke. May 15, Miss Tellefson will entertain the club at her home at Eastside.

Mrs. D. A. Jones is entertaining this afternoon Mrs. A. E. Seaman, Mrs. Chas. LaChapelle, Mrs. John LaChapelle and Mrs. Chas. Curtis.

BRIDGE

Mrs. Frank Frame was hostess Wednesday evening to a few friends at Bridge, entertaining Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Byler, Mrs. L. J. Simpson, Miss Jeanette Barrett, Miss Esther Imhoff, Edgar Simpson and Allen and Ted Kissam.

Mrs. C. M. Byler was hostess at an informal Bridge party Monday entertaining at two tables of cards at her home prettily decorated with violets, roses and hyacinths. In serving the afternoon's dainty refreshments Mrs. Byler was assisted by Mrs. L. J. Simpson. Among those present were Mrs. Warren Painter, Mrs. Geo. D. Mandigo, Mrs. W. E. Best, Mrs. R. A. Wernich, Mrs. Geo. Gelsendorfer, Mrs. T. W. Rennie, and Mrs. L. J. Simpson.

Mrs. Geo. Gelsendorfer entertained Mrs. C. M. Byler, Mrs. T. W. Rennie and Mrs. L. J. Simpson at cards Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. L. C. Sorenson, Mrs. F. W. Greenough and Mrs. J. T. Sullivan of Bandon were guests of honor at an informal Bridge party given Wednesday evening by Mrs. A. L.
