Wins Honors.—In the annual drill contests of the Oregon Agricultural College cadets, Fred McCormac, of Marshfield, won second place in the private's individual drill. The contests were held last week.

Here for Fight.—Frank Street, of Chehalis, Wash., has arrived here for his match with Jess Day. The fight will probably be a 20-round go. Street is accompanied by G. C. Kitterman, of Tacoma.

Is Promoted.—E. P. Shirley, formerly in charge of the Marshfield United Wireless Station, has been promoted to manager of the United Wireless Station at Central Point, near Medford, which is the most powerful station on the coast, it is said.

Meeting Postponed.—Owing to the small attendance, the meeting of the Marshfield Improvement club called for last evening was postponed. The committees are at work forwarding the various lawn and gardening contests.

Is at Eugene.—Mother M. Agnes, who has supervision of Mercy hospital at North Bend and who is well known on the Bay where she has spent considerable time, is now at Eugene, where she has charge of the Eugene General hospital, which the Sisters of Mercy have acquired.

Will Hold Services.—It is announced that the Rev. J. T. M. Knox will preach at the Marshfield Christian Church next Friday evening at 8 o'clock. It is expected that the new minister of the church will reach here from Nebraska within a few weeks.

Erect Flagpole.—C. W. Evertsen has purchased a 44-foot flag-pole and Saturday will erect it at his home in West Marshfield and will have the Stars and Stripes floating above his place all the time. He is beautifying his place considerably and will probably be one of the principal prize winners in the contest launched by the Marshfield Improvement club for beautifying the town.

Moves Houses.—Henry Haverkamp has bought the three old residences at the corner of Market and North Second streets, and is moving them on his property at Ferndale, near the Lapp property. They were known as the Golden houses and their removal will improve the appearance of that section of town. It is expected that the Zimmer estate will erect a new building on the corner soon. Mr. Kimball, husband of the former Mrs. Zimmer, is expected here soon from Portland with his family to make their home on the Bay.

Epworth League Social.—An Epworth League party is to be given this evening at the Methodist parsonage where Rev. and Mrs. Rutledge will be host and hostess.

Search for Body.—Coroner Wilson has returned from a trip to the hills near Coos River where he and a party went to try and locate the corpse recently discovered there by R. E. Pinegor. Ren Smith, St. Noah and Frank Smith accompanied him. They were unable to find any trace of the skeleton which Mr. Pinegor reported and Mr. Wilson now thinks that Pinegor was just joking. He said that they searched carefully the country where Mr. Pinegor was. Mr. Pinegor was not familiar with the country and was not positive that he could find his way back to the scene but the others in the party were very familiar with it.

SICK AND INJURED

Alec Hall who has been laid up for a few weeks with rheumatism and gripe resumed command of the ferry Transit today.

The two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Pettit of North Marshfield fell from a chair this morning and broke his forearm.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Thrush of Eastside sustained a broken leg a few days ago. She was playing around the horses and one of them stepped on her. The fracture is a bad one.

Don Short who has been ill at the Hillis Short home at Ten Mile was able to be in town today.

Miss Adams, the city librarian, was slightly injured by a fall last evening on the sidewalk along Market avenue. The walk had just been laid and the planking had not been spiked down. She stepped on the loose end of one of the planks.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

The Tramp arrived in today from Port Orford.

The Nann Smith arrived in today from Bay Point.

The Redondo is due in tomorrow from San Francisco.

The Breakwater is due in early tomorrow from Portland.

The Rustler sailed today with a cargo of hay for Bandon.

The Wilhelmina sailed yesterday for Florence with a cargo of general merchandise.

The Grace Dollar which was hung up on the mud near Empire for awhile sailed today for San Francisco with a cargo of lumber from the C. A. Smith mill.

The Mirene which sailed yesterday for the Columbia River returned to Coos Bay to await better weather. When they reached a point opposite the mouth of the Siuslaw, they encountered a terrific gale which made it impractical to continue the voyage.

It is announced that the Steamer Homer has been chartered for four months' service in the Alaska trade and will make her next trip there from San Francisco. The Washington will handle the business to and from Coos Bay hitherto handled by the Homer.

The Steamer Washington arrived in today from San Francisco. Capt. Winkle reports that he encountered the severest storm he has known in years along the coast. On the last trip down the coast, he encountered southwesterly winds and coming back a strong northwest wind prevailed. The Washington will sail from here Sunday morning.

Call at the Royal and get particulars for the boys' contest tomorrow night. Lots of fun.
