REFORM IS NEEDED

LAW and justice in the United States have sometimes so flagrantly parted company that there is practically universal demand throughout the country for the reform of our legal procedure.

Many of our judges have spoken clearly and courageously against the abuses of legalism, but of reasoned and specific reformation there appear but few signs. American justice, especially in criminal cases, has broken down.

There are few crimes an American can more safely commit than murder. There is but one chance in three that he will be tried, one in 10 that he will be imprisoned and one in 50 that he will be executed. Only Mexico has more murders than America, our record, then reduced to proportions with populations, being 10 times worse than Canada's, 14 times worse than England's and 25 times worse than Germany's. Public opinion, the press, politics and abuse of the pardoning power stand among the causes for this deadly condition. But the antiquatedness and obsolescence of the procedure of our courts form one of these causes.

The criminal procedure stands bound hand and foot in technicalities. Unattainable perfection of form and record is exalted above sense. In English courts errors of form, unless they cause demonstrated miscarriage of justice, are brushed aside. In American courts any error, however technical and irrelevant to the main issue, is construed as evidence of prejudice. If an American jurist commit a single error, an appellate court grants another trial almost automatically.

WITH THE TOAST AND TEA

GOOD EVENING:
I like the man who goes
Not songless to the common task of life.
But twines a flower round his tools of trade;
Who boasts not what he does or
what he knows;
Who brings no sword but love
to conquer strife,
And king of self, of nothing is afraid.

LICENSED LYING

(Note—The trout fishing season is now open.)
I'll haste me to some bosky fen
Through which a streamlet flows,
And there permit the world of men
For aught I care to doze;
For by decree of license scroll
I may fulfil my wish;
With rod and reel invite my soul
To lie around and fish.

By nature gifted with a sense
(Like all mankind) to brag,
I'll find a ready recompense
On later days, to drag
My fishing exploits into tales
To make my neighbors sigh;
I'll presto minnows into whales—
I'll fish around and lie.

—A. W. UTTING.
In baseball backsliders do not last long.
When the money market gets tight,
business is arrested.
Many a sinner has a meal ticket.
It does not prove anything.
Funny about an umbrella—it must be used up, to be any good.
Don't get in the habit of harping;
It kills the music in your soul.

There was a wireless rumor that one of the candidates for sheriff will appoint D. A. Curry, the barber, deputy if he is elected. This moved the muse thus
"When the red and gory murders
Has gone away to hide,
The sheriff will say "Barber
Curry comb the mountain side."
Then if the bloody murderer
Should get out of his scrape,
We all could join in chorus
"What a hairbreadth escape."

IT IS EASIER FOR A SERVANT TO WASTE COAL OR WOOD THAN TO WASTE GAS.

—Turning a gas burner on or off is so easy and simple that there is no incentive for wasteful methods.

—With coal or wood the user of the stove must fire up in advance; sometimes it saves bother to fire up a long time in advance.

—It takes less trouble to empty a scuttle by dumping than a shovelful at a time.

—In the gas range any degree of heat for any purpose is obtained without labor.

—It is not necessary to waste fuel heating the oven when a top burner only is required, yet baking and broiling can be done at the same time with the same set of burners.

—Our co-operative payment plan enables you to distribute the cost of the range over a long period. Prices are based on actual cost.
