

CLOSE CONTEST LAST EVENING

Chester Isaacson Awarded Demorest Medal Here—Good Program Rendered.

The Demorest contest held at the First Baptist church last evening was one of the closest contests which the local W. C. T. U. has conducted on the Bay. The judges for the evening were A. G. Raab, Superintendent of the North Bend schools, F. A. Tiedgen, Superintendent of the Marshfield city schools, and Rev. G. LeRoy Hall, former pastor of the Baptist church. The winner of the contest was Chester Isaacson. All the speakers spoke well and each reflected great credit upon the leadership and training of Mrs. Rebecca Luse-Stump under whose management the contest was given.

Special solos were rendered in splendid voice by Mrs. William Moe of this city, whose first appearance was a delight to all who listened. With exceptional range of voice she manifested a rare finish as well as conception of her study. She was accompanied by Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr.

Altogether the evening was a splendid entertainment and the large crowd repeatedly cheered the speakers after they had taken their seats.

Mrs. Ellen Kelly, president of the W. C. T. U., presided.

The program was as follows:

Scripture Reading and Prayer.
President Mrs. E. E. Kelly
Vocal Solo, "Because I Love You, Dear." Mrs. Wm. Moe
Oration, "The Defense of the Alamo" Leslie Isaacson.
Oration, "Court of Last Appeal" Lee Byerly.
Oration, "Why I Am a Prohibitionist" Horace Rahskopf.
Vocal Solo Rev. G. LeRoy Hall
Oration, "Prohibition and Liberty" Harvey Walter
Oration, "Baptized in Blood" Arthur Kolstad.
Oration, "Patriotism" Chester Isaacson.
Vocal Solo, "Just a Wearin' for You" Mrs. William Moe.
(Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, accompanist.)

WANT NEW PORT ELECTION

The Roseburg Review says: "W. A. Smiley brought in the Port of Umpqua election returns this morning from Gardiner. That precinct voted overwhelmingly in favor of the Port. While the measure lost heavily in the entire district the lower river people are not discouraged and expect to petition for another election at an early date, believing they will have better success when the voters are better informed as to the real conditions existing."
