

IN SOCIETY

(Continued from page 2.)

There was a jolly, if not large, attendance. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lattin, Mrs. Elmer Vineyard, Misses Blanche and Elizabeth Tellefson, Miss Mabel Leaton, Miss Maggie Robertson, Ed Horton, Miss Willa Leaton, Fred Benta, Emil Gidmark, John Tellefson, Miss Cleo Stockle, Martin Stockle, Miss Hildur West, Victor and Emil West and Martin Peterson.

The third of their series of dances will be given by the Marshfield Dancing Club Friday evening, May 17, at the Eagles' Hall.

PARTIES

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Barker entertained the cast of the Senior play Monday evening at their home on Fifth street. Delicious refreshments of salad, chocolate cake, and candies were served. Their guests were Miss Esther Silverman, Miss May Preuss, Miss Nora Tower, Chauncey Clarke, Milton Carlson, Bartlett Flanagan, and Ernest Harrington.

Mrs. F. A. Tiedgen has been ill at her home for the past few days.

The Epworth League gave a very enjoyable social Wednesday evening to its members and their friends at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. I. Rutledge. The evening was pleasantly spent in games originated by the chairman of the entertainment committee, Lee Byerly. A program of recitations by Mrs. Howard Savage, Mr. Howard Savage, Miss Mary Hansen and Lee Byerly, and of music, including a duet by Miss Mary Hansen and Miss Evelyn Langworthy and a song by Mrs. Hutchins, was given, after which refreshments were served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Savage, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Rutledge, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Joenck, Mrs. R. Shook, Mrs. M. Sumner, Mrs. M. R. Smith, Mrs. J. W. Carter, Mrs. Hutchins, Mrs. Woodworth, Fred Weaver, E. S. Gear, Mr. Campbell, Misses Dora Brown, Margaret Wilson, Harriet Hansen, Edna Ray, Myrtle Isaacson, Hazel Merriman, Ruth Allen, Nellie Tribbey, Maybelle Farley, Jeannette Sexton, Myrtle Downer, Ida Downer, Evelyn Langworthy, Helen Smith, Josephine Savage, Mary Hansen and Irene Woodworth, Mrs. F. L. Sumner, Messrs. F. L. Grannis, Ronald McGeorge, Harry Jones, Clifford Doane, J. E. Lyons, Stratton, Wheeler, Joe Dodge, Leslie Isaacson, Guy Torrey, Chester Isaacson, Russ Nasburg, Ray Ollivant, Cecil Robertson, Hunt, Wayne Stead, Robertson, and Lee Byerly.

WEDDINGS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

The wedding of Miss Rose Frances Wall and Harry Winkler took place Wednesday morning at nine-thirty at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wall, in West Marshfield. The wedding was very pretty and simple, and the bride, gowned in white with veil and wreath, and carrying a beautiful shower bouquet of carnations and fern, looked as lovely as one of her own namesake flowers. The ceremony was performed by Reverend Father Munroe in the presence of the father, mother and brother of the bride, and Reverend Father Springer of North Bend and Reverend Father Keyney of Bandon. The rooms in which the bridal couple stood were profusely decorated with lilacs and drooping fern and great bowls of narcissus and roses. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Winkler left Wednesday afternoon for Bandon from whence they go to San Francisco and spend a month's honeymoon travelling through California. Before leaving the south, they will meet Miss May Wall, a sister of the bride, and will probably return with her. They plan to live in Marshfield, although Mr. Winkler's position as manager of the North Bend Drug Co. will necessitate his daily presence in North Bend.

The bride was born and reared in Marshfield and is one of the most estimable and highly respected young women of Coos Bay. Mr. Winkler is one of the most successful and highly respected young business men of Coos Bay. During his several years' residence here, first as pharmacist at the Lockhart-Parsons Drug store in Marshfield and later in his present capacity as manager of the North Bend Drug company, his high character, ability and personality have won him a large circle of friends who will unite in wishing him and his bride all the happiness and success that time can bring.

The marriage of Miss Dovey Beatrice Reynolds and G. W. Woods of North Bend took place Saturday evening, May 4, at the Mercy chapel, Reverend Father Springer officiating. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Lulu Reynolds of North Bend and is well known among one of the younger sets. The groom is employed at the North Bend shingle mill. Following the ceremony, a wedding supper was served at which the following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore, Leo Moore, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Boulder, Mr. and Mrs. McConnell, Miss Vera Bergland, Miss Inez Johnson, Mrs. M. J. Barton, W. I. Poole, Wm. Anderson, Mr. McKay, G. W. Woods.

The school children of Allegany gave Miss Nina Pearl Price, a very pleasant surprise party Friday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Price. Mrs. Stemmerman chaperoned the crowd of little folks. They played games and romped all evening and were served with supper at eleven o'clock. Among those present were Gracie Shaver, Hazel Cowan, Myrl Stemmerman, Elva Gray, Annie Kudrna, Margaret Hanson, Pearl Price, Lonzo Stemmerman, Ellery Daggert, Rinardo Stemmerman, Edward Larson, John Kudrna, Jimmie Kudrna, Lemuel Gray, Hazen Price and Orrin Totten.

At the home of Mrs. Barbara Preuss last Sunday several friends and relatives gathered to celebrate the birthday of Miss May Preuss who became of age May first. Applesome made a pretty centerpiece for the dinner-table, and rhododendrons and greens decked the house. Among the guests present were Dr. and Mrs. E. Mingus, Miss Nora Tower, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Merchant, Mrs. Barbara Preuss and Jack and Helen Merchant.

The Royal Neighbors of North Bend gave a Progressive Whist party at Loggie Hall, North Bend, Friday night at which a crowd of about seventy-five were present. At the cards, Miss Gertrude Mandigo and John Starr won high honors and Miss Bessie Immel and Walter Livengood, the low. A banquet and music and dancing whiffed away pleasant hours for those who did not play. Mrs. Chapelle and Mrs. Swearingen were the receiving committee, Mrs. Swearingen and Miss Bessie Immel on the music and Mrs. Livengood, Mrs. McDaniels and Mrs. Thom on the refreshment.

A party was given Friday evening as a surprise to Miss Bessie Motley at her home near Coos River Creamery. The crowd chartered the Alice H. for the trip, leaving early in the evening and returning at midnight. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt, Mr. and Mrs. Bishop, Misses Hattie Wheeler, Nina Clarke, Mina Clarke, Myrtle Downer, Ida Downer, Jeannette Sexton, Edna Ray, Wilson, Katherine Bessey, Ursula Farringer, Deslree Wyatt and Georgina Tope; Messrs. John Motley, Tony Ray, Ronald McGeorge, Guy Torrey, Joe Dodge, Jay Clinkenbeard, Will Horton, Lee Byerly, Roy Robertson and Alton Roberts.

Mrs. N. E. Everitt was hostess to several ladies of North Bend Friday afternoon at sewing, numbering among her guests Mrs. A. J. Savage, and Mrs. D. C. Vaughan of Marshfield, Mrs. Geo. Geisendorfer, Mrs. C. S. Winsor, Mrs. J. R. Clark, Mrs. Herbert Armstrong and Mrs. S. J. Immel.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Barker entertained the cast of the Senior play Monday evening at their home on Fifth street. Delicious refreshments of salad, chocolate cake, and candies were served. Their guests were Miss Esther Silverman, Miss May Preuss, Miss Nora Tower, Chauncey Clarke, Milton Carlson, Bartlett Flanagan, and Ernest Harrington.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

The Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church meets with Mrs. W. B. Cox Wednesday afternoon, May 15.

The "Priscillas" are to meet Wednesday, May 15, with Miss Tellefson at her home at Eastside.

The Progress Club will hold a business session next Monday at the home of its president, Mrs. J. M. Upton.

The C. I. E. was entertained this week by Miss Edith Hildenbrand at her home in South Marshfield. Miss Beatrice Smith, Miss Bessie Flye, Miss Mary Hansen, Miss Eliza Ayre and Miss Bessie Ayre were present. The club will meet next week with Miss Beatrice Smith.

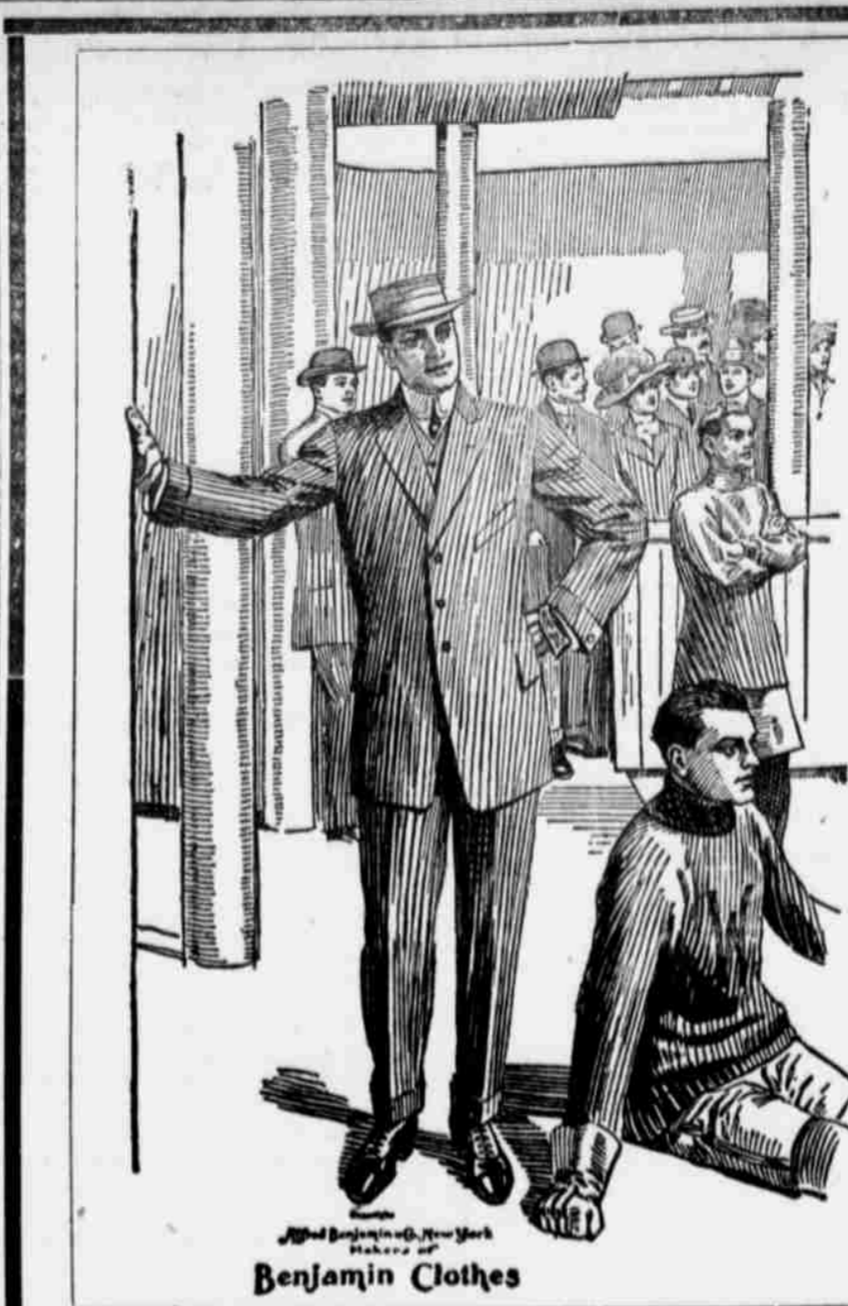

The Sisters of Bethany met Tuesday with Mrs. P. A. Sandberg in West Marshfield. The afternoon was spent at sewing and in discussion of future plans and of ways and means of making money for the society treasury. Another cake sale will be held Saturday similar to last week's which netted $18. Present Tuesday were Mrs. W. A. Toye, Mrs. F. A. Hazard, Mrs. Mary McKnight, Mrs. F. M. Denning, Mrs. Harry Bradford, Mrs. M. A. McLeod, Mrs. Earl Savage, Mrs. Jas. Cowan, Jr., Mrs. F. A. Sacchi, Mrs. J. T. McCormac, Mrs. M. Tozer, Mrs. Geo. F. Murch and Miss Charlotte Murch. At the next meeting Mrs. McLeod will be hostess at her home on North Broadway.

Owing to the absence of Rev. Browning in Portland attending the Diocesan Convention there will be no service in the Episcopal Church tomorrow. The Sunday school, however, will meet as usual.

Mrs. A. W. Myers entertained Thursday afternoon at her home in South Marshfield the members of the North Bend and Marshfield Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society. The house was prettily decorated, roses predominating in the floral scheme. Sewing and a social time followed the business session which was devoted to planning to aid the Mothers and Teachers' club fair at North Bend. Delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. E. J. Ketting and Miss Anna Myers assisted the hostess.

Among those present were Mrs. Geo. D. Mandigo, Mrs. Josephine Jones, Mrs. George Bolster, Mrs. Kate Rood, Mrs. Chas. Murr, Mrs. J. Mende, Mrs. C. R. Holmes, Mrs. N. C. MacLeod, Mrs. C. H. Farris, Mrs. C. A. Smith, Mrs. Watters, Mrs. A. H. Guershey, Mrs. Robt. McCann, Mrs. A. E. Seaman, Mrs. C. H. Walter and Mrs. D. A. Jones.

"The Little Band of Sunbeams" met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Myers in South Marshfield Saturday, May 15, with Miss Anna Myers as hostess. A business meeting was held followed by sewing. Light refreshments were served, Maxine Elliott assisting. The officers of the club are Lillian Seaman, president;

Benjamin Clothes

Mr. Miss Ella Jacobson, Miss Gladys Reynolds, Chris Borchert and August Hoelling.

Friends of Misses Ada and Della Chapman, two well known Marshfield young women, have been apprised of their approaching marriages which will take place some time this summer. Miss Ada Chapman will wed Lee Fuller, a former Marshfield young man, who is now located at Wenatchee, Wash. Miss Della Chapman will wed Harry J. Mohr, former agent at the local depot here but now agent for the Steamer Breakwater in Portland. A host of friends of the young couples will unite in extending best wishes.

The Ladies' Aid of the Norwegian Lutheran church met Wednesday afternoon at the church hall with Mrs. Larson of Ferndale as hostess. In the business of the day it was decided to hold a mid-summer bazaar on June fifteenth and to begin preparations for it immediately. Present were Mesdames C. G. Magnus, E. Erickson, J. Pitman, Oscar Erickson, Stromberg, August Frizeen, A. Carlson, W. Nelson, Olson, O. O. Lund, Ole Johnson, John Nagle, S. Perkins, Frost, Roebuck, Peterson, Tellefson, Moore of North Bend, Miss Olson, Miss Sunde, Miss I. Larson, Miss Elsie Larson, Miss Dina Hjelte, Miss Edna Johnson, Miss Lena Lillebo, Miss Emma Erickson, Miss Mabel Mathison, Miss Borghild Olson, Miss Cora Mathison, and Miss Jennie Johnson. The Aid will be entertained the second Thursday in June by Mrs. W. Nelson at her home in Bay Park.

The Minute-Wis picnic, which was to have been given tomorrow, has been postponed until May 19, when the members, their husbands and their friends will all enjoy a jolly outing up Coos River.

Miss Phoebe Larson arrived on the Redondo to spend the summer here with her mother, Mrs. Julius Larson, and sisters, Mrs. N. Rasmussen, Mrs. Willis Kennedy and Mrs. Anson Rogers, Jr.

The Jolly Dozen were entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. J. Brockmiller at chat and needlework. Present were Mrs. George Bourke, Mrs. L. Christensen, Mrs. A. L. Butz, Mrs. L. W. Langdon, Mrs. R. Bush, Miss Laura Dubay, and Miss Mabel Mathison. Mrs. Bush will be hostess Wednesday, May 22.

The Young Peoples' Society of the Norwegian Lutheran church held their bi-monthly business meeting and social Wednesday night at the church hall where Miss Mabel Mathison and Chris Lee were the committee in charge of entertainment and refreshment. Arrangements were made for giving a big social with a program of music and speeches at the Finnish hall, May 17 in commemoration of the anniversary of Norway's independence. Oliver Larson and Jas. Martinson were named as a committee in general charge, and Miss Mabel Mathison and Chris Lee as the program committee. After this business, the society paper was read by Oliver Larson and a piano solo was rendered by Miss Elizabeth Tellefson, ending the evening's formal entertainment. A social hour and supper followed. Among those present were Misses Jennie Johnson, Elsie Larson, Dina Hjelte, Borghild Olson, Lena Lillebo, Lily Thorwald, Elizabeth Tellefson, Mabel Mathison, Ingeborg Larson, Blanche Tellefson, Cora Mathison, Anna Gidmark, and Thora Lund, Messrs. Chris Lee, Harry Johanson, Albert King, Alfred Jare, Arthur Kolstad, Emil Gabrielson, Jim Martinson, Andrew Anderson, Oliver Larson, Fred Bentz, John Tellefson and John King.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Houseworth entertained at dinner Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Haines, Miss Ada McConnell and Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer.

Mrs. F. E. Allen and daughter, Miss Ruth, and son, Donald, are planning to leave about the first week in June for Salem where they will visit relatives for the summer months. Mr. Allen will go with them as far as Portland where he will attend the Grand Lodge Convention of Masons and Eastern Star.

Mrs. L. S. Kaufman is planning to leave about May 28 for an extended trip through the east and middle west, visiting, among others places, Helena, Chicago and Decatur. She will be gone for several weeks.

Mrs. C. J. Mahoney is making a short visit at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Adams and Miss Mamie Mahoney, enroute home from Coquille to her home in Florence.

Miss Bessie Coke and Miss Signa Holm, who have finished their year's course at the University of California at Berkeley, are expected home on the next Redondo to spend the summer vacation. They were delayed by late examinations from catching this week's boat.

Miss Grace Kruse returned on the Redondo from an extended trip to California where she visited with Miss Lillabel Johnson and other friends in San Francisco.

Mrs. T. H. Barry of Empire left today for San Rafael, Cal., to be present at the graduation of her daughter, Miss Madge Barry, from Dominican College, San Rafael. After a visit in Berkeley and San Francisco both will return to the Bay, arriving about June 15.

Miss May Wall is expected home soon from her training school in Chicago to spend the summer months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wall.

Judge and Mrs. J. S. Coke returned on the Redondo from a three weeks' trip to Klamath Falls and San Francisco and Burlingame, at which later place they visited Mrs. Eric Wold, a sister of Mrs. Coke, who is expected here to spend a part of the summer.

Mrs. Eugene O'Connell returned from Portland on the Breakwater Thursday from a visit of a few weeks with her daughters, Mrs. B. M. Richardson and Mrs. Wm. Ford, bringing with her as guests at her home Mrs. Richardson and daughter, Rosemary, and little son.

Mayor and Mrs. L. J. Simpson of North Bend are spending Sunday at Shore Acres.

Mrs. G. Truman of North Bend Heights and Mrs. Harvey Russell were guests Thursday of Mrs. Walter Russell of Marshfield.

Miss Ada McConnell leaves today on the Redondo for San Francisco and Los Angeles after a few weeks' visit with Mrs. A. T. Haines.

Mr. Roycraft, who is a nephew to Mrs. John LaChapelle, and wife arrived on the Bay a week or two ago from Wisconsin to make their home in Marshfield.

Geo. Kepler and wife, and daughter, Thelma, of Dayton, Ohio, will be here for a few days next week enroute from San Francisco. Mr. Kepler is sales-manager of the Dayton Computing Scale Company and Mrs. Kepler is a sister of Dorsey Kreitzer. They will visit at the Kreitzer home.

The entertainment to have been given Saturday, May 11, by the Creamery Social Club will be postponed for an indefinite time, owing to the illness of two of its members.

Mrs. H. O. Blatt and two children arrived here this week from Montreal, Canada, to spend three or four months at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blatt in South Marshfield. H.

YOUR preferences in the matter of Clothes are our guides.—We make it a point to show only the colors, the styles and patterns you most admire.—We study every whim and desire of our patrons and strive to supply your wants to the most minute detail.

Studying your wants as we do and learning them we go to the best makers this country affords and have these suits made so they will satisfy you perfectly.

What you buy here must be right or we make it right to you, always.

This is the store of reliability—the store of true value—the store of correct styles.

Let us show you our Spring Suits at $15.00, $20.00, $25.00, $30.00 and $35.00.

"Money Talks" Hub Clothing & Shoe Co.

MARSHFIELD. BANDON.

to leave about the first week in June for Salem where they will visit relatives for the summer months. Mr. Allen will go with them as far as Portland where he will attend the Grand Lodge Convention of Masons and Eastern Star.

Mrs. L. S. Kaufman is planning to leave about May 28 for an extended trip through the east and middle west, visiting, among others places, Helena, Chicago and Decatur. She will be gone for several weeks.

Mrs. C. J. Mahoney is making a short visit at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Adams and Miss Mamie Mahoney, enroute home from Coquille to her home in Florence.

Miss Bessie Coke and Miss Signa Holm, who have finished their year's course at the University of California at Berkeley, are expected home on the next Redondo to spend the summer vacation. They were delayed by late examinations from catching this week's boat.

Miss Grace Kruse returned on the Redondo from an extended trip to California where she visited with Miss Lillabel Johnson and other friends in San Francisco.

Mrs. T. H. Barry of Empire left today for San Rafael, Cal., to be present at the graduation of her daughter, Miss Madge Barry, from Dominican College, San Rafael. After a visit in Berkeley and San Francisco both will return to the Bay, arriving about June 15.

Miss May Wall is expected home soon from her training school in Chicago to spend the summer months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wall.

Judge and Mrs. J. S. Coke returned on the Redondo from a three weeks' trip to Klamath Falls and San Francisco and Burlingame, at which later place they visited Mrs. Eric Wold, a sister of Mrs. Coke, who is expected here to spend a part of the summer.

Mrs. Eugene O'Connell returned from Portland on the Breakwater Thursday from a visit of a few weeks with her daughters, Mrs. B. M. Richardson and Mrs. Wm. Ford, bringing with her as guests at her home Mrs. Richardson and daughter, Rosemary, and little son.

Mayor and Mrs. L. J. Simpson of North Bend are spending Sunday at Shore Acres.

Mrs. G. Truman of North Bend Heights and Mrs. Harvey Russell were guests Thursday of Mrs. Walter Russell of Marshfield.

Miss Ada McConnell leaves today on the Redondo for San Francisco and Los Angeles after a few weeks' visit with Mrs. A. T. Haines.

Mr. Roycraft, who is a nephew to Mrs. John LaChapelle, and wife arrived on the Bay a week or two ago from Wisconsin to make their home in Marshfield.

Geo. Kepler and wife, and daughter, Thelma, of Dayton, Ohio, will be here for a few days next week enroute from San Francisco. Mr. Kepler is sales-manager of the Dayton Computing Scale Company and Mrs. Kepler is a sister of Dorsey Kreitzer. They will visit at the Kreitzer home.

The entertainment to have been given Saturday, May 11, by the Creamery Social Club will be postponed for an indefinite time, owing to the illness of two of its members.

Mrs. H. O. Blatt and two children arrived here this week from Montreal, Canada, to spend three or four months at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blatt in South Marshfield. H.

O. Blatt, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blatt, will arrive in August to spend his vacation here and to accompany his family back home.

Mrs. Mildred Christensen leaves Wednesday on the Breakwater for her home in Tacoma, after visiting since last November at the J. H. Stadden home.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Jensen entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stadden and Mrs. Christensen at dinner Wednesday evening.

Miss Agnes Carpenter and Mr. A. Y. Myers were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McEldowney at dinner Sunday.

The many friends of Miss Agnes Carpenter will be very glad to hear that she is recovered from her recent operation sufficiently to resume regular work at school next week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Savage, Miss Nettie Savage and C. W. Wolcott are planning to take an automobile trip to the beach and spend the day tomorrow.

The Ladies' Aid of the Swedish Lutheran church of North Bend met with Mrs. Albert Wicklund at her home at Porter Hill Wednesday, May 8. Those present were Mrs. Albert Wicklund, Mrs. Andrew Strang, Mrs. William Strang, Mrs. Wittick, Mrs. Tyberg, Mrs. Salen, Mrs. Chasman, Miss A. Channan, Mrs. Seabosa, Mrs. Comas, Mrs. Weekman and Rev. Bengtson. The next meeting will be with Mrs. John Andersen at Porter Hill the second Wednesday in June. They plan to hold a social in North Bend, Saturday, May 25.

Mrs. E. G. Flanagan was hostess to the A. N. W. club Thursday afternoon. Needle work and a social time were followed by delicious refreshments. Next Thursday, Mrs. F. M. Freidberg will entertain the club. Among those present this week were Mrs. F. E. Allen, Mrs. H. R. Hyde, Mrs. Geo. F. Murch, Mrs. Toser, Mrs. I. Lando, Mrs. S. Lando, Mrs. M. E. Smith, Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mrs. Mary McKnight, Mrs. J. T. Hall and Mrs. Fannie Hazard.

Mrs. Rhodes was hostess to the Social Sewing club Thursday afternoon. Among her guests outside the members of the club were Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Rudeberg and Mrs. Wilson. Mrs. D. J. Rees will entertain the club next Thursday.

The Ladies' Art Club was entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. B. Curtis in South Marshfield. Besides the members of the club, Mrs. H. O. Blatt, Mrs. C. E. Wade and Mrs. Rolandson were guests of Mrs. Curtis. Mrs. F. L. Sumner will be hostess to the club next time.

The Cordiality club was entertained at whist by Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Campbell at their home in South Marshfield this week. Mr. J. G. Kinney won first prize, Mrs. Phloia Turner the second and Mr. Dindinger the consolation. Mrs. Turner will entertain the members at a picnic up Coos River a week from tomorrow.

Mrs. J. T. Sullivan left Friday for her home in Bandon after a two weeks' visit with Mrs. F. K. Gettings and Mrs. W. T. Merchant. Mr. Sullivan came over to accompany his wife home.

T. S. Gamble and bride of North Bend returned this week from a two months' honeymoon trip through California.

Mrs. Wm. Vaughan was called to Portland this week by the serious illness of an aunt.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY ON PAGE 4

Your Eyesight

is the most delicate of all your senses and once gone it can never be restored. In selecting eye glasses therefore it is imperative that you secure those that will aid, not injure your sight. To be on the safe side better come here where expert examination of your eyes will determine exactly the glasses needed.

Red Cross Drug Store