

CLOTHCRAFT

All-Wool Clothes

Clothcraft = Your Idea of Clothes

PICTURE in your own mind the kind of clothes you want—the cloth, the style, the fit, wear and serviceability.

Then compare your ideal with Clothcraft. You will find they tally in every particular—except perhaps in the price you thought you would have to pay. For Clothcraft Clothes, guaranteed to be all-wool, to hold shape and smartness, to give satisfaction in wear and service; yet cost less than other clothes of the same high quality—$10 to $25.

They enable you to save money without sacrificing anything that your clothes should have. Our Spring line, strong in every range of price between the limits of $10 to $25, includes values at $15, $18 and $20 that you will be especially interested in. We show the cream of the season's best styles and patterns in plain and fancy weaves—worsted, cassimeres and serges—in all the colors stamped with the season's approval, blues, grays, browns, tans, in a variety of shades and combinations.

When will you be ready?

Just a minute—have you seen 5130, the Clothcraft Blue Serge Special, $15?

BORN.

COLEMAN.—To Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Coleman, at the home of the mother's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Savage, Monday, May 13, a nine pound son. Mother and child are doing nicely. The mother was formerly Miss Madge Savage. Mr. Coleman, who is a member of the Harmon Tailoring company, says the little stranger "just suits" and Grandpa and Grandma Savage are elated.

SEELEY.—May 7, 1912, to Mr. and Mrs. Tim Seeley, of Coquille, a son.

New Firm.—The Merchants' Caf., which recently changed hands, is now owned by a firm consisting of Mrs. T. J. Scaife and A. W. Nichols. E. C. Anderson, who was reported to

Just Arrived From Africa

A large Boa Constrictor, 27 feet long and weighing 259 pounds. The Chinese Dragon, eight feet long, a strange fantastic bird-like creature. The African Gorilla Family, exhibited for the first time in the United States. The big Python, the South American Ant Bear, assorted species of monkeys, other curiosities. All are being exhibited in a large tent on Broadway, near Central avenue, Marshfield, for a few days only. Come and see this strange collection of living wonders from all parts of the world. The Big Snake will be fed on Monday and Tuesday evening. This is an educational exhibition.

have purchased an interest in the firm, is merely in its employ.

Camp Closed.—Owing to an accident to the machinery, the Smith-Powers Logging Company today closed down Camp No. 8.

Meet Wednesday.—Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church meet Wednesday with Mrs. H. R. Hyde instead of Mrs. Jas. Cox, as was previously announced.

Will Give Concert.—The Coos Bay Concert Band will give a concert at the city park on Wednesday evening, at 7:30. The program will be announced later.

Open Store.—M. W. Roberts has moved here from Allegany and made arrangements to open a grocery store at 379 North Front street. A son will be associated with him in the business.

Big Run of Shad.—There was a big run of shad in the Bay yesterday and they were also noticeable in the tributaries to an extent that trout fishing was practically spoiled. The trout make for the shallow water every time the shad come in.

Mail Delayed.—The mail boat ran on the mud flat en route here from Sumner this morning, causing a delay of several hours. Somewhere along the route part of the paper mail got sidetracked and in consequence many did not receive their Portland or San Francisco papers today.

Enjoy Shoot.—There was only a fair attendance at the Marshfield Gun Club's shoot yesterday, many of the members being unable to withstand the temptation to make the most of the fine weather by going on picnics, launch rides or auto trips. Some fairly good scores were made.

Boat Upset.—Two North Bend men whose names could not be obtained caused quite a stir at Empire yesterday. They had rigged a small rowboat with a sail and the boat upset near the lifesaving station. The crew from the station came to their assistance and they suffered nothing worse than a severe ducking.

Court in Session.—Judge Coke and most of the attorneys went to Coquille this morning for the adjourned term of circuit court. The first jury case to come up was expected to be that of Susette Green who was indicted by the last grand jury for keeping a disorderly house at Coquille.

First Visit in Years.—H. A. Wethy, a rancher living near Myrtle Point, paid his first visit to Marshfield Saturday in more than twenty years. He passed through here when he went to the valley to locate, but said that somehow or other he had never found time to come back for a visit. He was astounded to see how good a town Marshfield had got to be.

Fight Called Off.—Owing to only about 25 turning out for the Day-Street fight at the Marshfield Skating Rink Saturday night, the bout was called off. Billy Wilson and Sing Hosan boxed a few rounds while waiting to see whether enough would turn out to warrant pulling off the main event. They did not come. Manager John Herron has not announced whether he will make another attempt to stage it.

Finds Burglar.—Late Saturday evening, Dr. McCormack heard a noise on the back porch of his residence. He went to the door and opening it suddenly was confronted by a hard-looking stranger. The latter was caught by surprise and after uttering an exclamation made a hurried exit. A few packages of groceries that had been left on the porch were all that was missing, but marks were found indicating that he had tried to force open a window.

Coming On Breakwater.—J. H. Flanagan and J. W. Bennett and wife will return from Portland on the Breakwater. Messrs. Flanagan and Bennett have been there on negotiations for the sale of the Coos Bay Water company and it is understood that the prospective purchasers of their representatives will return with them.

Bazaar Success.—The bazaar conducted by the ladies of St. Monica's Catholic church at the Tabernacle building closed Saturday evening with a large attendance. The distribution of prizes was made, the principal one, a lot at Bunker Hill, going to C. F. McCollum, of North Bend. It is estimated that upwards of $1200 will be netted for the church from the three days' fair.

Buys Ranch.—Robert Rooke, Jr., of Coos River has purchased the Walter Bunch ranch at Loon Lake for $14,500. The Bunch ranch is one of the best in the Loon Lake country and besides the property, Mr. Rooke gets a large dairy herd and all the farm equipment. He will take possession at once. V. H. Harwood who had just leased the place will vacate and return to Astoria.

Child Dies.—Owen Shook, the 6-months-old infant of Owen Shook, died at the home of relatives in Marshfield today of ptomaine poisoning. The mother died when the child was only two days old.
