LOCAL NOTES

COOS BAY TIDES.
Time is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.

The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison of consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. For high water on bar, subtract 3 hours 24 minutes.

Picnic Sunday—The Eastside Athletic club is arranging for a picnic excursion to Sumner next Sunday.

Build Residence—Tom Lawhorne returned to his ranch above Allegany today after completing arrangements for material to build a new residence on the ranch.

Will Picnic—The B. Y. P. U. has arranged for a moonlight picnic at Jordan's cove tomorrow night. It is expected that about fifty of the younger members of the congregation of the Baptist church will participate. The girls are to take basket dinners for the crowd. The Allice H will leave at 7:15 from the Market avenue wharf.

Dies in Salem—Word has been received here of the death at Salem, Oregon, of Ed Lamport, a brother of Harry Lamport, a well known Coos Bay logger. No particulars have been received. Mr. Lamport was in the harness business at Salem for a number of years and visited his brother and F. P. Norton in Marshfield a number of times.

Did Not Threaten—Mr. and Mrs. John Herman of Bunker Hill, deny that Mrs. Herman threatened any of the charity party with a gun. They state that the party was very boisterous and did much actual damage and they said that the police would be called but no firearms were displayed or threatened to be used although the provocation was very great.

Celebrate Event—The celebration of the anniversary of the freedom of Norway will be held at the Finnish hall tomorrow night, May 17. The arrangements have been perfected by a committee of the Norwegian Lutheran church. There will be a short program and refreshments will be served. Special boats will be run from North Bend to accommodate visitors from there.

Build New Barn—A. R. McDonald, who was in from Tenmile to attend his daughter's wedding, reports that he is having a large, new barn built on his ranch. The survey of the Southern Pacific goes directly through the old barn and as the railway expects to take possession of the right of way June 15, Mr. McDonald is compelled to hasten completion of the new building.

Is Arrested—Marshal Carter today arrested A. Erickson, a chauffeur of D. L. Foote, on the charge of running his machine on the street with the muffler off. This is in violation of a city ordinance. Marshal Carter says a number of autoists here will be arrested unless they

Children are much more likely to contract the contagious diseases when they have colds. Whooping cough, diphtheria, scarlet fever and consumption are diseases that are often contracted when the child has a cold. That is why all medical authorities say beware of colds. For the quick cure of colds you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.

cease speeding up and making so much noise with their machines. Erickson will have a hearing soon before Recorder Butler.

Coming Here—Capt. Edgar Simpson today received a telegram from G. J. Blomberg, senior officer of the Oregon Naval Militia, stating that he would be here on the next Breakwater to review the local divisions and get them ready for the annual cruise. He will also visit the Bandon division.

Back from Trip—A. Frank, head of a large leather house in San Francisco, and L. Greenbaum, an engineer from San Francisco, arrived here yesterday from Gardiner where they have been guests of Warren Reed on a fishing trip. They were elated over that section and the fine time that Mr. Reed showed them.

S. P. Man Here—J. L. Buell, who had charge of securing the right of way for the Southern Pacific from Eugene to the Umpqua, arrived here today from Gardiner where he has been enjoying a short outing. He is accompanied by Mrs. Buell. His visit here is said to be on purely personal matters.

Give Up Band—At the regular meeting of the Elks' lodge last evening, after hearing reports of committees, it was decided that the expense of taking the band, about $1,000, would be too great for the lodge to assume. It was hoped to receive some assistance from the Chamber of Commerce and the business men but railway matters have been engrossing so much attention that it was impossible to get any definite action and with much regret the project was abandoned.

Fine Concert—There was a good turnout last evening to enjoy the first open air concert of the season by the Coos Bay Concert Band at the Marshfield city park. The program was one of unusual excellence and its rendition under the direction of Director Fenton won much applause from the crowd. At the conclusion of the program, J. W. Bennett made a little talk in which he lauded the band and urged that the city park be improved, a better band stand erected and the place beautified.

Married This Morning—Neptune Young and Miss Mary McDonald, two well known young people of Tenmile, were married by Father Munro, of St. Monica's church at 10:00 o'clock this morning. The bride is the eldest daughter of one of A. R. McDonald, one of the well known pioneers of that section, and is a young lady of many estimable qualities. The groom is superintendent of Mr. McDonald's creamery and during his stay there has made many friends. The happy couple will make their home on the McDonald place and a host of friends will wish them a long, happy and prosperous married life.

things in readiness for their summer outing.

MRS. A. B. DALY, who has been in Arizona for the benefit of her health, writes Mr. Daly that she is considerably improved and will probably return to the Bay soon.

N. MOON returned today via Drain from Gold Hill, Oregon, where he has spent a month or so. He says the crop prospects are good but that otherwise it is rather quiet in that section.

WARREN REED came in this morning from Gardiner. He reports things are booming there as a result of the renewed activity of the railroads and the prospects for early construction.

BLUFORD DAVIS left today for Coquille. He expects that his suit against J. W. Russell will come up for trial this afternoon. The case involves a claim for damages to the Davis ranch while Mr. Russell was a tenant on the Coos river property.

BEN MEMULLEN, of Myrtle Point, is in Marshfield on business and pleasure. He reports that good progress is being made on the fairgrounds and race track there and that a good race meet will be held there July 4 and 5.

CARL ALBRECHT has returned from South Inlet, where he is arranging to resume work on the new highway to L. J. Simpson's summer home at Shore Acres. It will require a couple of months' work of a crew of a dozen men or so to complete the highway.

GEORGE RITZOR, manager of the Woolen Mills store, arrived home this morning via the old Coos Bay Wagon road from a business trip to Portland. He says that the road is still rather rough but considerable improvements are being made on the Coos county end of it. They left Roseburg at 5:00 o'clock yesterday morning and reached here at 2 o'clock this morning. J. L. Bowman is now in New York. Business is rather quiet at Portland but the prospects for the season are good.

AMONG THE SICK
August Farley will enter Mercy hospital tomorrow and will undergo an operation Saturday.
Mrs. Carl Eganoff, who underwent an operation at Mercy hospital yesterday, is reported getting along nicely.

Harold Martin, who has been suffering from frequent attacks of appendicitis, was taken to Mercy hospital yesterday to undergo an operation for the removal of his appendix.

Mrs. Warren Reed of Gardiner who has been spending the last few weeks here for medical treatment is improving rapidly. Mr. Reed came down today to visit her.

Miss Ollie Richards of Sumner yesterday underwent an operation at Mercy hospital for the amputation of a toe which was injured some time ago. She was able to return to her home today.
