

SOCIETY GOSSIP

(Continued from page 2.)

occasion being their sixth wedding anniversary. The living room was decorated with lilacs and roses and the dining room carried out the color scheme of pink and lavender. The evening was spent in music and conversation. Mr. and Mrs. Reid's guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Russell, Mrs. O'Brien, Miss O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Gettins, and Mrs. Schibred.

Last Tuesday evening, the Loyal Order of Moose gave a banquet and social at the Odd Fellows hall for members and their friends. There was a large attendance and a jolly evening was spent with music. A program of toasts was enjoyed. I. S. Smith presiding as toastmaster.

Among those who responded were Dr. Winkler, D. D. Dawson of Medford, Mrs. Fluela Turner, Mrs. Raymond, C. I. Reigard and Chas. Courter. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Reigard, C. H. Walter, Wm. Sullivan, O. S. Torrey, C. E. Powers, R. E. Pinegor, B. F. Wyatt, F. G. Horton, Chas. Hoffman, E. C. Drews, T. J. Scaife, J. W. Mitchell, W. J. Cosmey, O. O. Lund, A. B. Campbell, E. D. Busby, G. W. Tribbey, C. H. Curtis, G. T. Coleman, D. D. Dawson, V. O. Pratt, C. A. Lee, J. Pitman, and C. R. Woodward; Misses Maybelle Farley, Nellie Tribbey, Della Pratt, Anna Reed, Ruth Dungan, Thelma Dodge, Helen Sullivan, Julia Olson, Ella McLaurin, Gertrude Scaife, and Desirée Wyatt; Mesdames Fluela Turner, C. W. Montgomery, G. J. Lemanski, Laura Humphrey, Georgina Tope, Thomas Goodale, H. R. Hyde, Robt. L. Simpson, and F. C. Ellerbeck; Messrs. Alex Peterson, Joe Dodge, H. C. Miller, Wm. Sleep, Edward Thomas, G. W. Dungan, F. O. Green, M. S. Crossen, Guy Lattin, J. Swanton, Noble Pitman, E. Ellerbeck, Ray Ollivant, Bert Tribbey, Harvey Walter, G. L. Dindinger, M. A. Sweetman, C. Raymond, I. S. Smith, Geo. E. Cook, W. H. Dindinger, Chas. Courter, E. F. Winkler and J. W. Hunt.

Mrs. E. W. Kammerer will go to California about June 15 for a few weeks' visit and will probably be accompanied home by her cousin, Miss Ramona Radcliffe who won so many friends during her visit here in 1909.

The Cordiality Club will be entertained Sunday with a picnic up Coos River given by Mrs. Fluela Turner and Mr. Geo. Dindinger. Those included in the list are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hildenbrand, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Savage, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fenton, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Dodson, Mrs. Patterson, Mr. Dindinger and William Sleep.

The Minnie-Wis Club will hold their annual picnic next Sunday when accompanied by the families of the members they will spend the day on Coos River. Mrs. La Chapelle and Mrs. D. A. Jones are the committee on arrangements and Mrs. Dresser and Mrs. Baldwin the committee for the luncheon.

The member of Doric Chapter, Eastern Star, enjoyed a social and informal evening at which refreshments were served on Tuesday last at the lodge rooms.

Mrs. Boyd M. Richardson is planning to reoccupy their former home on Pine street, now occupied by the M. C. Horton family. Dr. Richardson is giving up his practice in Portland to go to Montevideo and plans to spend a couple of years in South America. Mrs. Richardson and children will spend the time in Marshfield.

Mrs. Wm. Ford and baby are expected here from Portland soon to spend the greater portion of the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O'Connell. Mr. Ford will come down later in the summer to spend his vacation here.

Mrs. L. A. Wheret last Tuesday afternoon was hostess at one of the last of a series of teas which have been given by the ladies of the local Presbyterian church. Among her guests were Mrs. F. A. Tiedgen, Mrs. A. L. Barker, Mrs. J. H. Cox, Mrs. F. M. Flye, Mrs. McCulloch and Mrs. D. C. McCarty.

Mrs. W. F. Miller who had planned to visit relatives in the middle west this summer has indefinitely postponed her trip.

C. J. Mills and wife who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Miller while Mr. Mills has been attending to matters on the Bay will leave shortly for San Francisco. Mrs. Mills who has been in ill-health is much improved.

This evening, the Marshfield baseball team will give another benefit dance at the Eagles' Hall. There promises to be an unusually large attendance.

The dance given by the Woodmen at the Finnish Hall last Saturday evening was largely attended and proved most enjoyable. It is expected that the Woodmen will give another series of dances in the near future, the first one having proved such a decided success.

Harry Conro was awarded the silver medal in the Demorest Contest which was conducted in Cooson Thursday evening under the direction of Dr. Clarke of North Bend. About thirty North Bend people were in attendance and there was a large turnout of Cooson people who had decorated the hall prettily for the occasion. The judges were Ben Tye, W. L. Potter and Mr. Arnat. Besides the speaking, the North Bend High School male quartette rendered a number of selections and Dr. Clark made a pleasing address. Those participating in the contest were John Hanson, Joe Barber, Harold Hunt, Harry Conro, Fremont Hodson and Clarence Kibbler.

Mrs. Paul Schillerstrom of North Bend left today for Florence where she will spend a few weeks and will take in the noted Rhododendron Festival there.

Prof. Davidson of North Bend and his bride arrived on the Bay this week from Portland where they were recently married. They will make their future home here and will be welcomed by the many friends that Mr. Davidson has made during his residence here.

Dr. Bird B. Clark will entertain the members of the North Bend High School track team at a banquet at her home next Tuesday evening.

Miss Amy Reynolds, a popular North Bend young woman, left this week for Oregon City where her folks now reside and where she will make her future home.

Chas. H. Murr and wife of North Bend are planning to leave shortly for Arizona where they will make their future home.

The North Bend Concert band will give a ball at Eckhoff hall this evening.

Mrs. Anderson entertained on Thursday afternoon at her home in Bunker Hill, Mrs. Lizzie Bents, Mrs. Rae Chapin, Mrs. Fred Grinold, Mrs. Turner McNabb, Mrs. C. W. Gardner, Mrs. E. E. Kelly, Mrs. H. Richardson, Mrs. Ellen Carlson and Alice Richardson. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in social conversation and the company was favored during the afternoon by vocal solos and a recitation by Mrs. E. E. Kelly. Luncheon was served by the hostess under a large maple tree on the lawn.

The Coos Bay Motor Boat Club will hold its last social next Monday evening when prizes for the season will be awarded. The committee in charge of it consists of Miss Laura Kruse, Mrs. M. G. Coleman, Mrs. Neil Banks, Mrs. Henry O'Mara and Mrs. Bartle. It has been decided to have the first cruise of the summer May 26 when the trip will be made to Piper's Grove where a picnic will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Mandigo of North Bend will leave about June 1 via Allegany in their auto for a month's visit with relatives in Portland. Most of the time will be spent at the F. A. Kribs home, Mrs. Kribs and Mrs. Mandigo being sisters. Mrs. C. H. Brouillard and Miss Della Brouillard will accompany them.

R. J. Coke of North Bend who recently sold his residence in North Bend has moved of his household effects to Capt. Shook of the Dredge Oregon. Mr. Coke will leave shortly for Los Angeles to join Mrs. Coke and their son Ralph. Capt. and Mrs. Shook will occupy the Coke residence.

Last Monday night, members of the North Bend Wesleyan Bible Class tendered a farewell reception to Mr. Burtes McNay and Mr. Lee Craven, who left for Ada to try homestead life and also Mr. Geo. Arlis who leaves for Arizona on the next Redondo. Many interesting games were played until a late hour when refreshments were served. The members then wished the boys well in their lonely bachelorhood, hoping they would soon tire of it and return to Coos Bay.

The Altar Guild of the North Bend Episcopal church will meet next Thursday at the home of Mrs. George Giesendorfer.

A very pleasant time was enjoyed by the members of the M. E. Aid Society of North Bend, Wednesday afternoon, the occasion being a reception given in honor of the new members who came in during the contest which closed last Thursday. The Wesleyan Bible Class room was transformed into a beautiful bower, the color scheme being green and pink. After a social hour, a short program, consisting of a vocal solo by little Bernice Glazier and address of welcome by Mrs. Hisey, Mrs. F. W. Stevens and Mrs. William Nelson, was rendered. The party then adjourned to the dining room where a three course Buffet Luncheon was served. Those present were Miss Ella Gurnea, and Mesdames L. Balsiger, Mary Chappelle, M. E. Everitt, J. Grout, A. L. Gubser, A. S. Hisey, A. Isaacs, E. McDaniels, W. Neilson, J. S. Newkirk, J. E. Stevens, F. W. Stevens, C. J. Van Zile, C. A. Wilson, Elmer Wood, C. A. Nollner, Ella J. Covey, J. A. Woodhull, H. M. Barnes, Fred Glazier, Jack Nowlin, Hodson, Cora B. Ritchey, Herbert Moore, S. G. Gurnea, Tom Juza, Roy O. Brainard, H. O. Fry, C. F. Chase, S. Rogstad, E. R. McLeod, L. W. Tope, Andrew Holte, H. Peterson, I. Freeland, Babcock, Chas. H. Marshall.

The Altar Guild of the Episcopal Church will give a series of teas similar to those the Presbyterian ladies have just completed; the proceeds to be applied upon the church debt. Mrs. J. W. Bennett will give the first tea Monday afternoon.

Mrs. F. M. Friedberg entertained the A. N. W. Club at her home in West Marshfield on Thursday of this week. Mrs. Hazard will entertain the club next week. Those present Thursday were Mrs. J. T. McCormac, Mrs. W. P. Murphy, Mrs. S. Lando, Mrs. E. Mungus, Mrs. Chas. Kaiser, Mrs. F. A. Hazard, Mrs. Mary McKnight, Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mrs. L. M. Noble, Mrs. F. E. Allen, Mrs. J. T. Hall and Mrs. M. R. Smith.

The Progress Club met Monday with the retiring president, Mrs. J. M. Upton for the annual business meeting and election of officers. Plans were made and a committee composed of Mrs. W. S. Nicholson, Mrs. W. F. McDowney and Mrs. A. L. Barker was appointed to arrange for the annual club party which will be held on the evening of May 24 at the home of Mrs. I. S. Kaufman. The husbands of the club members will be the guests for the evening. The following officers were elected for the coming year:

President—Mrs. M. C. Maloney.
Vice-President—Mrs. F. G. Horton.
Secretary—Mrs. A. L. Barker.
Treasurer—Mrs. W. F. McDowney.

Mrs. W. S. Nicholson was elected chairman of the executive committee to succeed Mrs. Maloney who resigned to take the president's chair. Mrs. M. C. Horton was elected a member of this committee also. After the business session Mrs. Upton, assisted by Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Colhan, served refreshments.

The club members present were Mrs. E. M. Barry Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger, Mrs. A. L. Barker, Mrs. W. F. McDowney, Mrs. F. G. Horton, Mrs. C. W. Tower, Mrs. M. C. Maloney, Mrs. I. S. Kaufman, Mrs. W. S. Nicholson, Mrs. F. E. Leefer, Mrs. A. L. Buttz and Mrs. J. M. Upton.

The Sisters of Bethany met last Wednesday with Mrs. McLeod on North Broadway and spent the afternoon in sewing. Arrangements were made to hold a cooked food sale on Saturday, May 18, at Perry & Nicholson's store. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, May 22, with Mrs. J. T. McCormac, and all ladies of the church are requested to be present. The hostess assisted by Mrs. W. P. Murphy served delicious refreshments to the following guests: Mesdames Robert Fenton, Carl Evertsen, Harry Bradford, Arthur McKeown, Earl Savage, J. T. McCormac, J. Kendall, F. A. Hazard, Mary McKnight, J. L. Ferry, Lloyd Jacobs, W. B. Curtis, Frank Denning, S. Lando, Wm. Roher, W. P. Murphy, F. A. Sacchi and Joe McKeown, Jack Kendall, Louise Maloney and Francis Sacchi.

Mrs. Harry Bradford and Mrs. Robert Fenton are planning to leave soon for a two months' visit at northern points: in Portland, and on Puget Sound. Mr. Bradford and Mr. Fenton will join them in July for the return trip.

Mrs. Lloyd Jacobs and small son who have been visiting in Marshfield plan to return to their home in Portland for the Rose Carnival. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ferrey, her parents, will accompany her north for a short stay in the Rose City.

Mrs. Herbert Lockhart and little daughter and Mrs. Emma Nasburg are now in San Francisco where they will remain for a month before returning to the Bay for the summer.

The Priscilla Club met with Mrs. Dennison of Bay City on Wednesday last. The afternoon was spent in sewing and at the conclusion the hostess served delicious refreshments. The club will meet next relatives on the Bay. Her fiancé, Prof. Alger, will arrive here later and their marriage will be solemnized in Marshfield early in August. They will make their home at El Centro where Mr. Alger is principal of the High School.

Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger and wife and children are planning to spend part of the summer camping out in the mountains beyond Myrtle Point.

Miss Daisy Dean Rugh, who formerly taught school in the Marshfield schools, is expected here early in June from Indiana to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger and with Miss Charlotte Murch.

Mrs. M. C. Horton and daughter, Miss Lucy, are expected home from California about June 1. They have been in Los Angeles the past week. Miss Horton is rapidly recuperating from the injuries she sustained in an accident there recently.

George Murch and Fred McCormac who are attending Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis are expected home about June 19 to spend the summer vacation on the Bay.

At the Diocesan Convention of the Episcopal church in Portland this week, Mrs. J. W. Bennett of Marshfield was elected corresponding secretary of the Women's Auxiliary.

Another of a series of dances given by the Marshfield Dancing club was enjoyed at the Eagles' Hall last evening. Nearly all of the members were present and the dance was even more delightfully informal than usual. The next of the series will be given two weeks from last evening. Two or three dances more will be given by the club.

This afternoon at the Christian church, the Coos Bay Christian Women's Board of Missions is holding a reception in honor of Mrs. Hunter of Portland who is devoting her energies to forwarding the work. Mrs. Hunter will speak tomorrow at the church. The next regular meeting of the organization will be held the first Tuesday in June with Mrs. McCurt.

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Joe Williams, George Goodrum, Miss Florence Alken, Mrs. W. T. Merchant and Marian Horsfall composed a party who enjoyed an auto trip and picnic at the beach last Sunday.

The Marshfield Baptist church Juniors are planning to hold their annual picnic about June 1. The date and place will be definitely determined at a meeting to be held tomorrow.

Miss Alice Tickell is expected here this evening from Coquille to spend Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. LeRoy Hall.

Miss Ruth Hoagland is entertaining a number of her young friends at a tea at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hoagland, on South Broadway this afternoon.

The Mizpah Bible Class held a business meeting at the Presbyterian church parlors Friday evening. After the business meeting, the remainder of the evening was spent in social chat, games and singing. Home made candy was served. Those present were Misses Bessie Immet, Mildred Rod, Clara Watters, Danie Baine, Frances Golden, Alice Watters, Grace Williams and Mesdames Walter McLeod, George Hisey, Claude Stutsman, Carl Greve, Red D. A. McLeod, Oscar Carlson, Carl Peterson and Marian Reynolds.

Dorsey Kreitzer will entertain a number of friends on a picnic tomorrow in honor of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kepler and daughter, Thelma, of Dayton, Ohio, who arrived here this week to visit at the Kreitzer home. Mrs. Kepler is a sister of Mr. Kreitzer.

Miss Josephine Eddy, who has been teaching school at El Centro, Calif., is expected here about June 10 to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. P. N. Flagg and other

You owe your body a double duty; to keep it healthful and properly garbed. Outdoor recreation will do one—We will do the other.

“WEAR A BENJAMIN” $18.00 TO $40.00

Benjamin Clothes Hub Clothing and Shoe Co. MARSHFIELD. BAXNDOK.

KODAK advertisement featuring the brand name in large letters, an illustration of a family walking on a beach, and text describing Kodak photography and the Red Cross Drug Store.

Continuation of the Society Gossip from the previous page, including various news items and social events.