

Guaranteed—Yet Cost No More

ISN'T it worth a great deal to you to be sure, before you buy them, that your clothes are all wool, will hold shape and style, and give satisfactory wear and service?

No doubt, you would be willing to pay extra for this assurance, and consider it a good investment.

But it isn't necessary. With every Clothcraft Suit or Overcoat, you can have a guarantee signed by the makers. This guarantee makes you sure of pure wool—sure of good tailoring—sure that your clothes will wear and hold their shape and snappy, fresh-bought appearance to the day you discard them. There's correctness and comfort in the fit, too, sure to please you. Yet, with all this insured quality, Clothcraft Clothes cost you only $10 to $25. In this price range you will be surprised at what we can give you for $15, $18 or $20. An investigation of Clothcraft means better clothes for less money. Ready to wear, ready fit, ready for service.

Just say 5130—if you want the best Blue Serge Suit at $15 you ever saw.

Netted Good Sum—Rev. Father Munro announces that $1124 was netted from the recent fair and bazaar given by the ladies of St. Monica's Catholic church at the tabernacle.

Party Postponed—On account of so many of the Progress club members being absent from the city it has been decided to hold the annual club party at a later date than Tuesday evening for which it was announced.

Lost Debate.—The Oregon University girls lost the debate with the University of Washington at Seattle last week, the Washington girls supporting suffrage. Miss Marjorie Coman, of Marshfield, was a member of the Oregon University team.

To Introduce Pheasants.—J. W. Bennett, Tom Maginins and Archie Madden are raising Chinese pheasants this year. Mr. Bennett has 11 young ones. He plans to distribute the birds when they get large enough among ranchers in this vicinity with a view of adding to the game birds in Coos County.

Get Together.—Hugh McLain, of Marshfield, and his Portland partner, Mr. Keating, have been awarded the contract for putting in a $25,000 waterworks system at Monmouth, Ore. The work will be directed by Mr. Keating and will require only an occasional visit from Mr. McLain.

Open New Restaurant.—W. J. Brown, who recently arrived here from Idaho Falls, Idaho, has purchased an interest with Fred Knudsen in the Baltimore restaurant which has just moved into fine new quarters at the corner of Commercial and Broadway. Mr. Brown is an experienced restaurateur and the new firm will prove a strong one.

Lot Is Sold.—The deal for the purchase of the S. C. Brown property at the southeast corner of Third and Commercial was closed late Saturday by C. H. Marsh. The corner is 50 x 100 feet, the long frontage on Commercial, and the price was $10,000. Mr. Brown plans to leave soon with his family for Salem and they may make their home in the capital city.

Start Work.—The driving of piling for the foundation for the machine shop which Bradshaw & Kimball will start here soon, began this morning. The building will be 50 x 75 and will be just south of the Holland plant on North Front street. It is being built by Contractor Johnson under the supervision of Architect Turpen. Mr. Bradshaw is now here and arranging for installing the plant.

Court Continues.—Judge J. S. Coke returned to Coquille this morning to resume the adjourned session of circuit court. It will probably be the end of the week before court adjourns. Last week an average of about one jury case a day was disposed of besides other matters. One of the Marshfield cases decided last week was that of Rabakopf vs. Ross over a $90 real estate commission, the decision being against Rabakopf, who had secured a verdict of Justice Pennock's court.

LARGE NUMBER ON EXCURSION

Between 200 and 300 Enjoy Trip to Bandon With Band Sunday.

Between 200 and 300 Coos Bay people yesterday enjoyed the Coos Bay Band's excursion to Bandon. The trip was made without any untoward incident.

The train left about 7:30 in the morning and the excursionists returned about 8 o'clock last evening, tired but happy. Music was rendered by the band en route and a short concert was given at Bandon.

Low tide enabled the excursionists to get the full benefit of the beach. Dancing at the beach pavilion in the afternoon furnished diversion for many. The weather was delightful, no rain to speak of falling.

Manager Wilson and Director Fenton are highly pleased with the excursion which will net the band considerable for securing new music. Other excursions will probably be run during the summer.
