LOCAL NOTES

COOS BAY TIDES. Below is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.

The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison of consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. For high water on bar, subtract 2 hours 24 minutes.

Table with 4 columns: Date, Tides for June, and numerical values for high and low water.

THE WEATHER (By Associated Press.)

OREGON—Fair tonight and Tuesday fair and warmer with northerly winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE REPORT.

For twenty-four hours ending at 4:43 a. m., June 3, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorological observer: Maximum 62, Minimum 40, At 4:43 a. m. 45, Precipitation none, Wind northwest, clear.

Redondo Late—Owing to a stiff head wind and a rather rough sea, the Redondo will not get in from San Francisco until late this evening.

Is Appointed.—C. F. Thomas, who has been acting as deputy game warden under St. Noah, has been appointed to succeed Mr. Noah, who retired June 1.

Meet Tuesday—Another meeting of the Fourth of July celebration committee will be held Tuesday evening. Various matters in relation to the celebration will come up and a good attendance is desired.

Council Tonight.—The Marshfield city council will meet this evening to take up several street improvements matters, including the opening of bids on the paving of Anderson avenue, and other matters.

To Go To Bandon—Seven or eight members of the Marshfield Gun Club were out for the shoot yesterday and some good scores were made. Sec. Ekblad says the club will go to Bandon for a shoot next Sunday.

Gets Divorce—Judge Coke Saturday evening granted John W. Mael a divorce from Julia M. Mael and also granted him the custody of the two minor children, Lela May and Hazel Juanita. They reside at Smith-Powers Camp No. 7. Mael made statutory charges against his wife, some of the evidence being decidedly salacious.

New Man Coming—George Goodrum today received word that a Mr. Steel, an expert auto electrician and mechanic, would leave Portland on the Alliance for Coos Bay. He is being sent by the Cadillac people of Portland and will take M. L. Curry's place in Mr. Goodrum's employ. The report that Mr. Curry was a partner of Mr. Goodrum's was erroneous.

Hear Divorce Case—Before Judge Coke, in chambers, this afternoon, Capt. J. T. Macgenn gave evidence in the divorce case of Rev. J. T. M. Knox vs. Mrs. Knox. The case will not be disposed of for some time.

Gets Divorce—Saturday evening, Judge Coke granted the divorce petition of Jennie A. Davidson vs. Bertrand L. Davidson. Desertion was the charge. Mrs. Davidson is the sister of Mrs. T. M. Collier. The present whereabouts of Davidson are unknown.

Welcome Grand Lodge Officers.—Myrtle Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will hold a special session this evening to welcome L. R. Stinson and F. T. Wrightman, two of the grand lodge officers of the Oregon Knights of Pythias, who arrived here this morning to pay their annual visits to the lodges in this section.

Coos Bay People Hurt—It was reported here today that some former Coos Bay people were injured at Seattle last Thursday when Aviator Turpin's machine crashed into the grand stand at Seattle and killed one spectator and injured a score of others. No names of Coos Bay people were contained in the list of injured as given in a Seattle paper.

Files Charges—Geo. W. Beale, the well known Coos River rancher, today filed charges in Justice Pennock's court against Frank Terry, the Daniels Creek logger, accusing the latter of making threats against his life. The treats are said to have been made in altercation over a money matter. Constable Cox left for Daniels Creek this afternoon to bring Terry down.

Baby is Dead—I. Lando today received a card announcing the death of David Whitney Wiggins at Kansas City, Mo., May 24. He was the little son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Wiggins, who are well known on the Bay. Mrs. Wiggins was formerly Miss Besie Seabolt, who taught in the Marshfield Central school building a few years ago. Their many friends on the Bay will unite in extending their sympathy to them.

Enjoy Picnic—The Crab Club yesterday enjoyed a picnic at Charleston and initiated a couple of new members, S. C. Small and Mr. Richert. The initiation ceremonies were followed by a big banquet and general good time. Among those present were Messrs. Plantagan, Dungan, Neff, Harrigan, Montgomery, Peck, Huggins, Evertsen, Bargelt, Gilbertson and Condron and the two candidates. It is declared to have been one of the best sessions the club ever held.

Children Christened—Yesterday at the Marshfield Episcopal church, two children were christened by the Rev. R. E. Browning. The first was the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stauff who was christened Alice Marion, the sponsors being the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Johnson. The second was the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Swanton who was christened Alice Roberta, the sponsors being Mrs. J. W. Bennett and Mrs. J. S. Coke.

Friend of Wounded Man—Manager Fairchild of the Royal theatre, was much interested in the Associated Press dispatch in Saturday's Times about the shooting of Police Sergeant E. S. Peachin. Mrs. Peachin committed suicide after probably fatally wounding her husband. The Fairchild and Peachin families were friends in the middle west and later Mr. Fairchild visited them at Portland just before coming to Coos Bay. He says Mr. Peachin had just completed a law course and was planning to quit the police force and begin practicing.

In Bad Shape.—Green & Foster, of San Francisco, who formerly operated creameries on the Coquille and at Lakeside and who recently failed, are reported to be in bad shape. Receiver W. H. Almon of San Francisco, has made a statement in which he shows the liabilities to be $13,900 and the assets $7,100. The company still owns the Lakeside creamery but partial arrangements have been made by ranchers there to take it over and operate it on the co-operative plan. The firm has a number of creditors in this county, mostly bills for milk bought of ranchers.

Costello and Gilbert and McCormick and Duice are on the same bill at the Royal Tonight. An extra good program for 10c.

ROBERT BROWN returned to his home at Ten Mile Saturday after a short visit on the Bay during which he arranged to make final proof on his homestead.

L. A. LILLEQUIST, who came over from Coquille Saturday night to umpire yesterday's game, is planning to leave soon with Mrs. Lillequist for a month or six weeks' visit at his old home in Wisconsin. JOHN D. GOSS, I. R. Tower, R. K. Booth and R. A. Warnick have returned from Middle Creek near Coquille where they landed about two hundred mountain trout yesterday.

MRS. GEO. GULOVSON and baby have gone to Center Point, Ore., where they will spend a couple of months visiting relatives. That's what makes George look so lonesome.

WM. THOMAS of North Marshfield was taken to Mercy hospital today and probably will undergo an operation for an ailment which has confined him to his home for several months.

WM. LEDWARD returned today from a two weeks' outing at Ten Mile. He reports the fishing pretty good in places. F. G. Horton and a number of other Marshfield men are now enjoying an outing there.

C. P. LeFEBRE of Portland arrived here today to visit his old friend, Burt A. Doremus, and to look this section over with a view of locating on the Bay. He was so impressed with the appearance of things that he rented a house a few hours after his arrival and wired to Portland for his family to come here at once.

SHERIFF GAGE was here from Coquille today. He reports that there has not been any new criminal cases recently except a drunk who frightened a woman near Coquille last Friday and who was arrested by the Constable from Coquille.

GEORGE JENSEN, a former well known Marshfield baker, arrived here today from Elma, Wash., en route to Coquille where this week he will wed Miss Anna Colebrook. They expect to make their future home here.

JACK GUYTON leaves this week for Coquille where he will assist Editor Savage in getting up a Coquille Valley booster edition of the Coquille Herald. Mr. Guyton has just received a letter from Fred Pasley, who was formerly engaged in newspaper work on the Bay but who is now on The Times at Manila, P. I. Mr. Pasley says it is very hot there and that he will be glad when his year is up so that he can return to the United States.

HAYES TEMPLE, formerly engaged in the undertaking business in North Bend and Marshfield, arrived here yesterday for a short stay. He is now traveling for a machinery house. He has been engaged in the undertaking business at Lebanon, Ore., but had to give it up on account of his health. He is endeavoring to have Harry Bradford dispose of his barber business here and go to Lebanon to take charge of the undertaking business there. Mrs. Bradford and Pasquin are now visiting Mrs. Temple in Lebanon.

Will Lay Rails. Tom Coke, in charge of the construction on the Terminal railway, expects to immediately begin laying rails on North Front street where the piling have been driven. Just as soon as the rails are laid, the paving will be replaced. No more of the street will be torn up until after the big celebration here, July Fourth.

NORTH BEND NEWS.

Mrs. Jackson Sibbough gave a lecture yesterday at the United Brethren church before a very enthusiastic audience, converting twelve people to the white ribbon. Singing led the program followed by Scripture reading by Mrs. W. Chapelle, invocation by Mrs. Kate Rood, a solo by Miss Mildred Rood accompanied by Miss Ella Guernes, and the lecture "Purity" by Mrs. Sibbough, which latter was very forceful and effective. Mrs. Robt. McCann gave the closing prayer. A large audience enjoyed the lecture in Marshfield Sunday evening. A collection of $63 was taken and several honorary members were joined to the union.

Among the North Bend people who went to Marshfield to attend the Band dance Saturday night were the following: Misses Inez Pullen, Edith Thomas, Elizabeth and Ottilia Hoelling, Inez Anderson; Messrs. Fred Kruse, August Hoelling, Robert McLaughlin, George Dewey, Joe Winsor, Percy Phillips, Chas. Gaultlett, Wm. Davis and Frank Muskas.
