BORN.

ADAMSON—To Mr. and Mrs. Nels P. Adamson, at their home in Fern- dale, Monday, June 3, a son. Mr. Adamson was for many years keeper of the Five Finger and Eldred Rock lighthouses on the Alaska Coast, and came to Coos Bay a little over a year ago. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Two More Fined—Two more auto speeders have been fined by City Recorder Butler, making eight penalized for speeding Sunday. The last two fined were Bill Erickson and Andy Erickson.

Plans to Build—Geo. Winchester is receiving bids on the new residence which he is planning to build near his home in West Marshfield. The residence will cost about $2500. S. C. Small has already leased the new building.

Meet Friday—Prof. Beggs announces that the next rehearsal for the Human Rosebud parade in the July Fourth celebration will be held next Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. He is desirous of having as many teachers and children as possible present Friday.

Saloon Changes—The Marshfield city council last evening ordered the license of the Brewery Saloon on North Front street transferred from Andrew Hekklia to the Coos Bay Liquor company. The action was taken on application of Albert Seelig who stated that the liquor company had purchased Hekklia's interests in the place.

Will Move—E. E. Bandel has leased this room in the Gow Why building on Broadway, across from The Times office, and will move his bicycle and repair business there from North Front street soon. The new quarters will be more convenient to his patrons and anything that will do this is what Mr. Bandel is after all the time. He will move in a few days.

Rev. Olson Officiated—Rev. J. Richard Olson, formerly of Marshfield, now of Portland, officiated at the first memorial exercises conducted by the Oregon Naval Militia at Portland last Thursday. A feature of the exercises was the casting of of roses on the Willamette river in honor of the lost sailors. Rev. Olson is chaplain of the Oregon Naval Militia.

Takes Horse South—F. P. Norton will leave on the Redondo with his pacer Marin which will be entered in the annual race meet of the San Francisco Butchers' Association which opens June 12. Some good prizes are offered. Mr. Norton says Marin will represent the Coos Bay butchers and he expects to get inside the money. He has had some good offers for Marin.

Hearing Postponed—The hearing of Frank Terry of Daniels Creek, charged by Geo. W. Beale with having made threats against the latter's life, has been set for tomorrow afternoon by Justice Penneck. Prosecuting Attorney Liljeqvist will be here for the hearing. Terry is a brother of Mrs. Beale.

Railway Rumors—Many railroad rumors were afloat here today but there was no verification of any of them. One was that the Southern Pacific had taken over the Terminal company but no one in authority here had been apprised of any such move and Supt. Miller had not been informed of it. Another report was that the Southern Pacific had bought the Sash and Door factory in North Bend as a depot site but this could not be confirmed. The company is negotiating with the Simpson people for a depot site and it is possible that the Sash and Door factory may be taken over as part of it.

Wed Today—Henry Hartman, chief cook on the Steamer Breakwater, and Miss Mary Hansen, were married today at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hansen in South Marshfield, the Rev. H. I. Rutledge officiating. Only members of the family, Mrs. Peter Scott, Sr., Mrs. Edgar Mauzey, Miss Bullards of Bandon and Mrs. H. I. Rutledge witnessed the ceremony. A wedding breakfast was served following which the young couple left on the Breakwater for Portland and other northern points where they will spend their honeymoon. They will make their home in Portland. A host of friends will unite in wishing them all the joys that time can bring.
