state eighth grade examinations will be conducted at the Marshfield High School building tomorrow. A class of thirteen from Marshfield will take them here. This will mark the final close of the school year in Marshfield, the regular school sessions being continued a week longer for the benefit of the pupils desiring to prepare for the examination.

Nothing New in Case—Marshal Carter stated today that there had been no developments in the L. M. Noble house robbery. No more of the missing articles have been found.

Case Tried—Before Justice Penock this afternoon, the charges against Geo. W. Beale against his brother-in-law, Frank Terry, are being heard. Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Liljeqvist is here prosecuting the case. The effort to have Terry bound over to the grand jury has been dropped and an effort is now being made to have him placed under bonds to keep the peace. A score of Coos River people have been called as witnesses.

Father Dead—In a letter to friends here, Miss Violet Henderson, who has been spending the past two months in California, states that she has just received word of the death of her father at Hot Springs, Ark. He died suddenly of heart failure. Owing to the long trip and the fact that she has not been well, Miss Henderson did not go east for the funeral. Miss Henderson and her uncle, Hugh Brown, will return to the Bay on the next Redondo. Her many friends will unite in extending sympathy in her bereavement.

NO PROSECUTION LIKELY
Local People Will Probably Get off Easy—Police Court Hearing
Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Liljeqvist who was in Marshfield today announced that there would be no prosecutions in the case of D. L. Foote and A. Erickson who were arrested with two companions here the night before last. Erickson and Miss Gregg were married at Coquille yesterday. Marshal Carter expects to have Foote and the others up in Police Court as they have $100 cash bail up for their appearance. It is also stated that the arrests were made at the Holiday House instead of the Portland rooming house as was reported yesterday.
