

SOCIETY

(Continued from page 3.)

San Francisco where they will separate for their various vacations before returning in the fall to resume their teaching at the Marshfield schools.

Miss Striffler is to visit in Denver, Colo., and Carlsbad, New Mexico, before returning to Los Angeles and Marshfield. Mrs. Baldwin and daughter stop in Los Angeles for a few weeks, after which Mrs. Baldwin leaves by way of Nebraska for her home in Hillsdale, Mich., where she will spend the summer, returning probably in the fall to join Miss Baldwin in the return to Marshfield. Miss Palmer is to visit at Colorado Springs and Denver before going east to her home in Brooklyn, Michigan. Miss Carpenter will stop at several cities on her way to her home at Muskegon, Michigan, among them Los Angeles, Berkeley, San Francisco, Denver, Salt Lake City and Chicago.

Miss Tillie George, a sister of Mrs. Carl W. Evertsen, came in on the Breakwater today from the east to visit at the Evertsen home.

Mrs. J. T. Hall and daughter, Miss Elsie, are planning to leave on the next Redondo to spend a few weeks in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Warner and sister, Miss Alice Hoyt, are spending Sunday at Allegany. Miss Hoyt, who has been visiting here at the Warner home for the past six weeks, leaves on the next Redondo for her home in Oakland.

Mrs. Masters of Sumner attended the meeting of the W. C. T. U. at Eckhoff hall, North Bend, Thursday, when Mrs. Jackson Silbough lectured.

Mrs. A. H. Powers and daughter, Margaret, who have been visiting relatives in Minneapolis left there Thursday evening for home.

Miss May Bennett has wired that she will arrive on the Washington to spend a month at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bennett. She has been taking a course in the school for professional nurses at Lane hospital, San Francisco for the last two or three years and her return home will be warmly welcomed by her many friends on the Bay.

Miss Nellie Tower who is attending the University of Washington at Seattle is expected here about June 12 to spend the summer with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Tower.

Clifford Doane is expected home next Saturday to spend the summer vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Downs. He is taking a business course at McMinnville College.

Misses Mammie and Helen Gulovson left this week for Portland where they will visit relatives for a few weeks.

S. C. Sherrill who has taught at the Bunker Hill school the past year will leave tomorrow for Hillsboro, Ore., to visit his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Winkler have returned after spending their honeymoon traveling in California. They will be at home to their friends in Marshfield.

Edgar Swartz, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Tower, who has been visiting at the Tower home for a few weeks, left Thursday on the Redondo for his home in Freang.

Mrs. J. O. Langworthy and Miss Evelyn Langworthy left Thursday for San Francisco and other cities of California to visit with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Paul Peralta, before returning home.

Mrs. E. C. Paddock who has been quite sick the past week is reported much improved.

Miss Maude Noble and her guest, Miss Patsy Freer, have gone to Bandon for a short visit with friends.

Miss Signa Holmes left yesterday for a short visit with friends at Prosper.

Mrs. W. H. Kennedy will spend Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Larson, on Larson's Inlet.

Miss Laura Kruse of North Bend is an over Sunday guest of Mrs. R. K. Booth.

J. V. Smeaton, general manager of the C. A. Smith Lumber company, and wife and sons, Ted and Jim, are expected here on the Nann Smith to spend a couple of months on the Bay.

Ed, Carlson of Crookston, Minn., has been a guest at the Geo. F. Murch home the past week. He will leave tomorrow on the Breakwater.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Miller entertained at dinner Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Murch, Mrs. Mattie Tozer, Miss Charlotte Murch and Mr. Hugo Quist.

P. P. Quist and wife, and Mrs. N. O. Welander, father, mother and sister of Hugo Quist, are expected on the next Breakwater to visit in Marshfield for a while and to be present at the marriage of Mr. Quist and Miss Charlotte Murch a week from next Monday.

Mrs. M. Tozer, sister of Mrs. Geo. F. Murch, who has been visiting at the Murch home for the past few weeks, left Wednesday by way of Drain for her home in Minneapolis.

Major and Mrs. Morton Tower are spending the week-end at their summer home on South Coos river.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bargelt and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Parsons, left Friday in their car for Portland to take in the Rose Carnival and the Elks, Masons and Eastern Star conventions.

J. Albert Matson and wife and son, Julius, spent the latter part of the week at their summer home, The Nook, on South Coos River.

W. F. Kolm and wife and baby are expected here soon from Schuyler, Neb., to visit at the home of Mrs. Kolm's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bernitt. They may make their permanent home on the Bay.

Miss Annie Smith is expected to return next week from Richmond, Cal., where she has been visiting her cousin, Miss Helen Wicks.

Mrs. Thomas Harvey and baby who are visiting at the home of Mrs. Harvey's parents in Grants Pass write Mr. Harvey that it is very warm there. She plans to spend about a month there.

Mrs. C. C. Going and children, A. E. Johnson and wife and Mrs. J. L. Koontz and children constituted a picnic party that spent a very enjoyable day at the Hatchery Friday.

The Firemen's Association of North Bend are preparing for a big picnic to Sumner tomorrow.

The graduating exercises of the North Bend Eighth Grade will be held at the school house Wednesday evening.

Miss Violet Henderson and her uncle, Hugh Brown, are expected to arrive here next week. Miss Henderson has been visiting in Oakland and other California cities for a couple of months. Mr. Brown will make a short stay here to look after business matters. During the past week, Miss Henderson received the sad news of the death of her father at Hot Springs, Ark., of heart failure.

Miss Alice Curtis returned this week from a year's stay with relatives at Searsport, Me., the old home of her father, W. B. Curtis.

Mrs. Ross Smith leaves tomorrow for a visit at the home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Smith, in Portland and with friends in Washington.

Eric Bolt is expected home from Willamette University next week.

Mrs. Earl Savage left Thursday for Portland to visit there for a few weeks. She will be joined later by Mr. Savage.

L. T. Matthews has received a copy of an Aurora, Missouri, paper containing the following notice concerning his wife and son who are visiting there: "Mrs. J. H. Grier entertained Mrs. L. T. Matthews of Marshfield, Ore., her son Chal Matthews of Lexington, Ky., and son Roscoe Matthews and wife at dinner last Monday. Mrs. Matthews has been visiting relatives and friends here and will remain some time yet. Chal left for his field of labor last Tuesday morning. He is in charge of the art department of the government experimental station at Lexington, Ky., but expects to have his headquarters in Washington, D. C., in a short time. He is in the department of natural history and makes the pictures of all newly discovered insects, plants, etc. It requires a fine artist and accurate workman. He receives a large salary and as he is a product of the Aurora schools and graduate of the state university of this state we are proud of him. He is quite interested in the future of Russell Grier, 'The Menace' cartoonist."

Miss Agnes Carpenter and Edgar Swartz were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Tower and Miss Nora Tower at the Beach Monday.

Mrs. W. C. Folley left Thursday morning for Portland as a guest in the Mandigo car which will take Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Mandigo and daughter, Miss Gertrude, to the Rose Carnival. Mrs. Bailey is planning to visit in Portland for a couple of months.

Mrs. A. L. Butz entertained Miss Adine Palmer at dinner Tuesday.

Miss Palmer, Miss Elmore, Clyde Dindinger and F. L. Grannis made up one of the parties that picnicked at the beach Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brouillard entertained at a dinner-party Sunday at the home of Mrs. C. H. Brouillard.

at the home of Mrs. C. H. Brouillard.

at the home of Mrs. C. H. Brouillard.

at the home of Mrs. C. H. Brouillard.

at the home of Mrs. C. H. Brouillard.

Mrs. Elizabeth McDonald of San Francisco, Mr. Kern of San Francisco, Rev. D. A. MacLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hockett of Empire and Miss Della Brouillard.

Friday night Mrs. A. E. Richter, nee Miss Jamesina Hibbard, was guest of honor at a party given for her by Miss May Myren. Games and music furnished the evening's entertainment and supper was served at a late hour. Among the guests were Mrs. Richter, Misses Ruth Horton, Mary Kruse, Myrtle Cowan, Evelyn Flanagan, May Preuss, Inez Johnson, Marian Seaman, Elsie Hall and Lucy Powers; Messrs. Ralph Kruse, Sydney Clarke, Carl Larson, Wesley Seaman, Lee Byerly, Halbert Carlisle, Will Horton, Max Reigard, Guy Stutsman, Tom Patterson and George Johnson.

This afternoon Mrs. D. C. McCarty is entertaining the present officers of Doric Chapter of Eastern Star, and several of those who held office in 1910, the year Mrs. McCarty was Worthy Matron. She is entertaining about twenty guests.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. D. C. McCarty was hostess to a dozen or so little folks at a strawberry picnic at her home in West Marshfield. Her guests spent a delightful day playing on the hillside, picking wild flowers and eating the delicious berries and cream that their hostess served. Invited were Florence, Bess, Alice and Helen Flanagan, Proctor Flanagan, Frances, Edna and Blanche Mirrasoul, Lavina and Dorothy Painter, Helen Colgan, Jeanette Upton, Arthur Upton, and Emma, Lucile and Alice Douglas.

A surprise party was given in honor of Miss Lillian Cook Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Jack Davis of West Marshfield. Games and music were the principal diversions of the evening. Among those present were Florence Fox, Frances Demeritt, Edith Hawkman, Eva Wyatt, Eliza McKay, Edna Hawkman, Ethel Davis, Hazel Cook, James Elberly, Ray Demeritt, George Pratt, John Hymmer, Bill Milner and John Burke. Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Swanson were also guests of the party. Refreshments were served during the latter part of the evening.

Miss Harriet and Jens Hansen were hosts to a number of friends at a social party last night, entertaining at games and music. Miss Bruce Kelley gave several piano solos in the course of the evening. The house was decorated with white carnations and pink crepe festoons. Supper was served by Miss Eva Hansen at the long table. Among the guests were Misses Gertrude Scaife, Cora Dye, Bruce Kelley, Bessie Flanagan, Clara Sargeant and Eva Hansen; Lee Byerly, Festus Walter, Leo La Chapelle and Jens Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Evertsen entertained at breakfast this morning in welcome to Miss Matilda George of Port Huron, Mich., a sister of Mrs. Evertsen, who arrived on the Breakwater and will visit in Marshfield for some time. Among their guests were Mrs. Mary McKnight, Mrs. F. A. Hazard, Miss Blanche Ferdine and Miss Mary Mettla.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rogers were hosts to a party of Marshfield friends at their beautiful Coos River home last Sunday in compliment to Mrs. Elizabeth Adams whose birthday it was. The Shamrock took the party up the river at nine-thirty, returning in the evening. A sumptuous dinner was served in a room decorated with pink and white roses, following which the party was joined by Mrs. Stephen Rogers and the day was spent in wandering over the grounds and in exploring the many pretty walks in the vicinity. Among the guests were Mrs. Adams, Miss Mammie Mahoney, Miss Joan Fitzgerald, Rev. Father Munro, D. McDonald, Mair Dano, John Kronholm and Walter Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nasburg were host and hostess to a few friends informally Friday evening in compliment to Miss Pauline Heintz and Mr. Frank Shea of Portland. Among their guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Cohan, Mrs. Effie Farringer, Miss Genevieve Sengstacken, Miss Pauline Heintz, Russ Tower, John Merceen, Tom Bennett, Preston Jones and A. K. Peck.

John Merceen was host to five couples at a bowling party at the Smith mill Tuesday evening, entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nasburg, Miss Genevieve Sengstacken, Mrs. Effie Farringer, Miss Grace Kruse, Miss Florence Alken, Messrs. A. Lagerstrom, T. T. Bennett and C. Lagerstrom. An oyster supper ended the evening.

Mrs. Jas. Rolandson entertained a number of friends at sewing and tea yesterday afternoon, including among her guests Mrs. John Blatt, Mrs. Herman Blatt, Mrs. George Ayre, Mrs. W. B. Curtis, Mrs. Jas. Cowan, Mrs. E. A. Anderson and Mrs. Eva Gammill.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Wm. Craig entertained her neighbors and friends informally at needlework and served lunch. Among her guests were Mrs. Margaret La Chapelle, Mrs. Ozren, Mrs. Wm. Hyden, Mrs. Chas. La Chapelle, Mrs. Robertson and Mrs. Woods.

The C. W. B. M. met for its regular monthly meeting with Mrs. D. C. McCarty Tuesday. Talks and discussion on the day's topic, "The Outlook of British Columbia" formed the principal part of the program. Present were Mrs. R. A. Copple, Mrs. W. B. Cox, Mrs. C. A. Sehlbrede, Mrs. L. E. Hendrix, Mrs. T. Blain, Mrs. E. L. Hanson, Mrs. E. C. Drews, Mrs. Edwin Busby, Mrs. Harry Painter, Mrs. Chas. Powers, Mrs. Sarah Painter, Mrs. R. Isaacs, Miss Ruth Hopson, Mrs. Z. Doward, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Haworth, and Mrs. McCarty.

Miss Elizabeth Tellefson and Mr. Emil Gabrielson will entertain and serve at the Norwegian Lutheran Young People's Society meeting at the church hall Wednesday.

The Sisters of Bethany met in business session Wednesday at the home of Miss Maude Reed near Kittyville. Seventy dollars was paid on the debt leaving only a small remainder. Next week the society will meet for the last time this summer with Mrs. Arthur McKeown. Present Wednesday were Mrs. M. C. Maloney, Mrs. Fred Backman, Mrs. J. T. McCormac, Mrs. Mary McKnight, Mrs. Arthur McKeown, Mrs. Otto Schetter, Mrs. Earl Downing, Mrs. J. M. Upton, Mrs. F. A. Hazard, Mrs. J. W. Flanagan, Mrs. S. C. Small, Mrs. H. Reed and Miss Maude Reed.

Mrs. Alva Doll was hostess Wednesday to the B. W. M. C. at her home in South Marshfield. Mrs. Graef was leader, Mrs. J. C. Swinford, Mrs. D. A. Jones and Mrs. C. H. Wilson gave short talks on the topic of study, "Western Women in Eastern Lands." Miss Eddeeva Wheeler sang, Mrs. Colvin and Mrs. McCarty gave a vocal duet and the program concluded with a reading by Mrs. E. Kelly. Present were Mrs. C. H. Wilson, Mrs. J. C. Swinford, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Graef, Mrs. A. Z. Downs, Mrs. John Nagle, Mrs. D. A. Jones, Mrs. Colvin, Mrs. D. C. McCarty, Mrs. R. P. Harrington, Mrs. Henry Black, Mrs. Helen Baldwin, Mrs. E. D. McArthur, Jr., and Miss Eddeeva Wheeler. The society will meet with Mrs. Harrington the first Wednesday in July.

The "Priscillas" met Wednesday with Miss Genevieve Tellefson at her home at Eastside for a pleasant afternoon of music and sewing. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her sister Miss Blanche Tellefson. Present were Mrs. George Rourke, Mrs. Jim McIntosh, Mrs. Chas. Dennison, Mrs. Jay Montgomery, Miss Mabel Mathison, Miss Laura Dubay, and Misses Elizabeth and Blanche Tellefson.

The Ladies' Aid of the Norwegian Lutheran church will hold a meeting with Mrs. Will Nelson at her home in Bay Park Monday, when plans for the auction sale of June 16 will be completed.

The Altar Guild of North Bend met Thursday with Mrs. I. B. Bartle. Very little business was transacted, the club agreeing to meet in two weeks with Mrs. C. H. Brouillard. The afternoon was spent in needlework. Several guests were present, among them Mrs. Robt. Shook, Mrs. M. G. Coleman, Mrs. A. H. Derbyshire, Mrs. H. O'Mara and Mrs. R. P. Pendergrass of Marshfield. The club members attending were Mrs. J. G. Horn, Mrs. C. H. Brouillard, Mrs. J. G. Curran and Mrs. I. B. Bartle.

The Jolly Dozen will be entertained Wednesday, June 12, by Mrs. W. F. Squire.

A meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Emmanuel Episcopal church was held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Toye Tuesday at which a little business was done and adjournment was declared until the first week in October. Present were Mrs. J. T. McCormac, Mrs. Arthur McKeown, Mrs. J. W. Bennett, Mrs. Wm. Ledward, Mrs. F. E. Leefe, Mrs. Geo. F. Murch, Mrs. M. Tozer, Mrs. J. Albert Matson and Mrs. Jas. Cowan, Jr.

The Social Sewing Club met with Mrs. Geo. Ayre Thursday for an afternoon of sewing and chat. The club agreed to meet hereafter only twice a month, meeting in two weeks with Mrs. Rhodes. Present were Mrs. Max Tepper, Mrs. E. L. Robinson, and Mrs. Gammill, as guests, and Mrs. Rees, Mrs. Swanson, Mrs. Rhodes and Mrs. Swinford.

The Minnie-Wis Social Club greatly enjoyed their meeting with Mrs. D. A. Jones Tuesday afternoon for as school was out the teacher members were able to be present. A pleasant day was spent at sewing and lunch was served. Present were Mrs. E. E. Kelly, Mrs. F. S. Dresser, Mrs. Mary Thompson, Mrs. J. H. La Chapelle, Mrs. Chas. La Chapelle, Mrs. Helen Baldwin, Mrs. Wm. Perkins and Miss Inez Baldwin. The club members decided to continue meeting every other week throughout the summer, and will meet June 20 with Mrs. Mary Thompson.

A Portland paper prints the following concerning Miss Bronte Jennings, a former Coos Bay girl, whose marriage to Henry Cravat will take place in Coquille in July: "Complimentary to Miss Bronte Jennings, a bride-elect, Miss Ethel Gibson and Ferol Jackson entertained with a dinner party at their home at Stanley Station on Thursday evening. Covers were laid for eight."

Invitations were received here this week for the wedding of Miss Emma Eloise Morse, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Thomas L. Morse, and Selser Robert Pickett which will be solemnized at Morgan City, La., June 25. Miss Morse is a relative of Mrs. J. T. McCormac and she and Capt. Morse were guests at the McCormac home here a year or so ago and the charming young woman won many friends on the Bay.

The marriage of Miss Charlotte Murch and Mr. Hugo Quist which will be solemnized at the Marshfield Episcopal church a week from Monday evening is an event of much interest on the Bay, owing to the pop-

Correct Clothes

ALL THROUGH
Correct in Quality.
Correct in Style.
Added to this our saving to you because—

"Money Talks"
Is the reason we expect to sell you your next SUIT—
Now is the time—This is the store—

Hub Clothing and Shoe Co.

Marshfield. Bandon.

ularity and prominence of the young people. As many of the wedding party will be from out of town, the personnel of it cannot be announced until next week. Owing to the limited seating capacity of the church, only relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties will be invited to the ceremonies. The ceremony will be solemnized at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The marriage of Miss Mary Hansen and Henry Hartman took place Wednesday, June 5 at 8 o'clock in the morning, the Rev. H. I. Rutledge officiating. The home of the bride was handsomely decorated with white roses and evergreen, and the breakfast room with pink and white sweet-peas. The wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, with only a few intimate friends present. The bride wore white silk and carried white roses. The young couple left on the Breakwater for Portland where they will make their future home.

George Jensen and Miss Anna Colebrook of Coquille were married Thursday morning at the Marshfield Catholic rectory, the Rev. Father Munro officiating. Only immediate relatives were in attendance. Mr. Jensen recently returned to the Bay from Elma, Wash., and they expect to make their future home in Marshfield.

The following from a Portland paper will be of interest to the many friends that Robert McPherson made while visiting friends on the Bay a year or so ago: "At a quarter of eight Wednesday evening, the wedding of Miss Eva Jenkins and Robert G. McPherson was solemnized in Trinity chapel by Dr. A. A. Morrison. Only relatives and a few friends were present at the wedding, but a larger reception followed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. Jenkins, on Hoyt street. The bride was gowned in bridal white with veil and orange blossoms. She carried Bride roses. The best man was Milton W. Werschkul. Mr. and Mrs. McPherson will spend their honeymoon at Meadow Lake. They will occupy an apartment until their home on Willamette Heights is completed.

Coos Bay friends of A. A. Dimmick have been apprised of his forthcoming marriage to Miss Ida Pattison at South Bend, Wash. The nuptials will take place late in the summer, it is understood. Mr. Dimmick was located at South Bend for a couple of years until last fall when he returned to take a position as lumber inspector at the mills on the lower Coquille.

ALUMNI BANQUET

The annual banquet of the North Bend High School was held Friday evening in Taylor's hall. Rev. D. A. MacLeod acted as toastmaster and responses were made by Marion Reynolds, Harold Hunt, Supt. Raab, Mr. Jennings and Mr. Russell. Marion Reynolds gave the address of welcome to the new class and Harold Hunt responded for '12. The banquet table was beautifully decorated with California poppies and roses. Places were laid for the following: Rev. D. A. MacLeod, Mr. C. E. Maybee, Dr. and Mrs. I. B. Bartle, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Jennings, Miss Josephine Griffin, Mrs. Everitt, Miss Mildred Rood, Mr. Marion Reynolds, Miss Faith Hunt, Miss Grace Fulton, Mr. Louis Weir, Supt. A. C. Raab, Miss Edith Raab, Miss Frances Golden, Mr. Harold Hunt, Mr. Clyde Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Horn, Miss Georgiana Wyatt, Dr. Winkler, Mr. Harry Conroy, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kern, Miss Esther Imhoff, Miss Xenia Knorr, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Grubbs, Mrs. E. F. Russell, Mr. Clarence Kibbler.

At the annual meeting of the Alumni Association, Marion Reynolds was elected president, Harry Conroy vice-president, Harold Hunt treasurer and Miss Mildred Rood secretary.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH RECEPTION

Next Wednesday evening, a welcome reception will be tendered the Rev. Mr. Doward and family at the Marshfield Church of Christ. Rev. Doward and family arrived here recently from Nebraska. C. A. Sehlbrede is arranging a short program for the occasion and it is expected that the other ministers and many from other congregations will unite in making the occasion a most cordial welcome.

An interesting musical programme will be rendered, and addresses of welcome will be made by Rev. H. I. Rutledge of the M. E. Church, M. C. Horton of the Presbyterian church, Rev. G. LeRoy Hall of the Baptist church. Refreshments will be served at the close of the exercises. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to all.

(ADDITIONAL SOCIETY ON PAGE FOUR.)

Enjoy the Summer

Go fishing, hunting or rowing, but never go without a—

KODAK

RED CROSS DRUG STORE

Films and Supplies.