We show the cream of the season's best styles and patterns in plain and fancy weaves—worsted, cassimeres and serges—in all the colors stamped with the season's approval, blues, grays, browns, tans, in a variety of shades and combinations.

When will you be ready?

Sure, we've got it—the Clothcraft Blue Serge Special, No. 5130, $15.

Meet Next Week.—The Norwegian Lutheran Young People's Society, which was reported to be meeting this evening, will meet next Wednesday instead, the error arising from the fact that the society meets every three weeks instead of every other week as it did formerly.

Go On Breakwater.—Wm. Moe has resigned as operator at the local United Wireless station and will take a position as purser and wireless operator on the Breakwater this week. Mr. Warner, an operator from San Francisco, will succeed him as operator at the local wireless station.

Get Soaking.—Parties in from Ten Mile today report that a Marshfield party en route to the lakes yesterday were caught in the heavy rainstorm and given a severe soaking. Among those in the party were Dorsey Kreitzen and son, William, E. W. Kammerer and son, Belton, and Wm. Grimes.

Is Fined.—City Recorder Butler yesterday fined H. Mathison $10 for assaulting E. A. Valler, a non-in-law of Levi Heisler. The trouble occurred on North Front street the night before last. Both are employed on the Dredge Oregon, Mathison pleaded guilty and no details as to the cause of the trouble came out at the hearing.

Improve Road.—Capt. Edwards expects that the regular auto service via Allegany and Scottsburg can be instituted soon. Mr. McDonald has two crews of men improving the three miles of the worst stretch of road and expects to have it in good shape soon. The attempt to start the service this week was due to a misunderstanding.

Funeral Postponed.—The funeral of Robert Rooke, the North Coos River pioneer, which was to have been held today was postponed until tomorrow. The cause of the postponement was to enable Mrs. Frank Pray, a daughter, to attend. Mrs. Pray and her husband will arrive via Myrtle Point tonight from Springfield, Oregon. The funeral party will leave Marshfield in the morning.

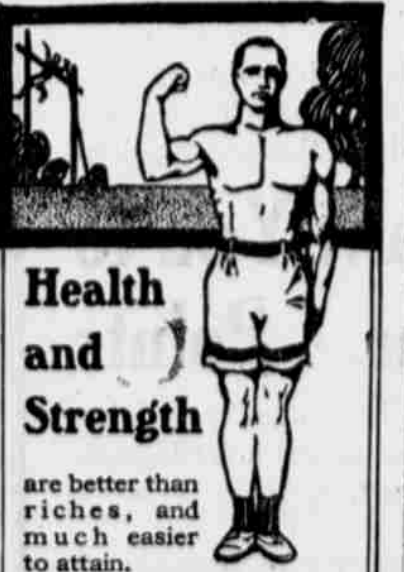

Is Fish Warden.—Intimation that the state is planning to keep close tab on the fishing on Rogue River is given in the appointment of Alfred Coughell, of Gold Beach, as deputy fish warden for that section. There has not been any fish warden on Rogue for a couple of years, since the stream has been closed for commercial fishing, and it is presumed that the appointment now made is due to the fact that some local parties have announced that they will engage in shipping salted fish from Rogue River this year.

Caterpillars Were Bad.—In connection with the many complaints about caterpillars becoming so numerous as to be almost a pest here now, Tom Hall recalls that ten of fifteen years ago, Coos County experienced a real caterpillar pest. He says they were so numerous on the railroad track near Coaledo one day that the train was blocked by them, the insects getting on the rails and making them too slippery for the engine. After several hours delay, sufficient sand was dried to put on the rails so that the train could get through.

Issues Fine Folder.—Copies of a handsome folder issued by the Newport Commercial Club, advertising that section as a "year around" resort, have been received on the Bay. Geo. Blanchard, formerly manager of the Coos Bay Gas & Electric company here but now manager of the Newport Gas & Electric company, is president of the Newport Commercial Club. Since assuming his position, Mr. Blanchard has been doing much to boost the Newport section and the advertising folder which he has had the club just issue will accomplish much in that direction.
