ROSES FOR COOS BAY.

THERE is a splendid suggestion for Coos Bay in the Rose Festival at Portland this week. All reports from there are a unit in expression of the beauty of Portland's roses. It is worth a trip across the whole width of the United States to see these roses. They are wonders and wildernesses of beauty that no man can imagine before he has seen them. They float and billow over the city. They flood it with tides of color in exquisite reds and whites and tints. They perfume the aerial tides with odorous fragrance that needs a poet to express its deliciousness. Climbing up walls, dangling to the breeze and crowding private grounds and public places, they transform cottages to bowers and glorify palatial mansions with a new beauty.

The rose grows with greater luxuriance and beauty on Coos Bay than in Portland and more attention should be given to its cultivation. Once planted it continues to grow and flourish with very little attention. Publicity, it was claimed by an advertising agent at Portland recently, "is the real factor in the development of a country." The roses of Portland and the rose festival support his contention. They have done more than any other one feature to make the gate city of Oregon known to the economic value of beauty.

Coos Bay should profit by Portland's example.

LIVELY WEEK AHEAD.
NEITHER the revolution in Mexico nor the rebellion in Cuba nor the riots in Belgium need expect any attention from Americans this week or next. The Republican convention at Chicago is the rough-house of the world.

What's the matter with the boys in the high schools of Portland? All prizes for the best essays on the early history of the United States have been won by girls.

CANT SHUT OFF WATER.
The Supreme Court of the United States has just lately decided that a water company may not cut off a householder's supply in order to force him to pay his water rates.—Youth's Companion.

MANY ATTEND MOOSE SHOW

Clever Vaudeville Program Presented Under Auspices of Local Lodge.

A fair sized audience greeted the first of a series of entertainments under the auspices of the Local Order of Moose at Marshfield at the Masonic Opera House last evening. The program was by local talent, some of whom recently came to Coos Bay, and was of more than ordinary merit, the audience loudly applauding many of the numbers.

The horizontal bar exhibition by Frank Laube was one of the best of the kind ever seen here and would class with the work of many professional performers.

Frank R. Kirk in "Life's Funny Side" showed considerable ability as a monologue artist and declaimer, reciting some clever original verse and parodies.

Misses Ruby Hendry and Ruby Turner won much applause for their presentation of the Butterfly Dance. One clever feature of the program, a song and dance number by Misses Elsie Thomas and Edith Ayres, had to be omitted, owing to the death of Miss Thomas' father yesterday.

Song specialties and dances by Prof. Raymond and several numbers by a quartet consisting of Prof. Richards, Preston Jones, B. B. Ostlund and L. K. Ballinger were pleasing features of the entertainment. Several moving picture films were also shown.

It was announced that another vaudeville performance would be put on in a month or so under the auspices of the Moose.

GOOD CITIZEN DEAD

Peter Denoe, Aged 100, Succumbs at Coquille

The Coquille Herald says: "There appears upon the records of deaths in the office of Dr. Walter Collins county health officer, the name of Peter Denoe who passed away at the age of one hundred years on May 21 last. He was an old resident of the state of Oregon having lived in the Willamette Valley before coming to Coquille, J. A. Slagle of this city knew the deceased forty years ago and he says 'Denoe looked as old at that time as on the day he died.' No authentic account is obtainable regarding the history or habits of this man who attained this great age, and he is entertained among those who knew him best that 'his years of life even passed the centennial figure.'"

CARD OF THANKS

To the friends and neighbors who with kindly acts and words of sympathy lightened the burden of our recent bereavement in the death of a loving husband and father we extend our grateful and heartfelt thanks. We particularly thank the Masonic Lodge for their many gracious acts of kindness.

MRS. ROBERT ROOKE AND FAMILY.

VEHICLE TAX IS RESCINDED

North Bend Council Abolishes Special License—Plan Street Work.

The North Bend city council last evening rescinded the old vehicle license ordinance. The action was not generally expected and will end the turmoil that has been caused there by the efforts to collect the special tax. Some of the councilmen were opposed to taxing vehicles and it was also pointed out that with the opening of the waterfront road between North Bend and Marshfield, the Marshfield teamsters could come into North Bend and do business without having to pay the tax.

In this connection, the city engineer was instructed to visit the waterfront road and prepare plans and estimates for opening the road north from the end of the county road, which has been planned, to the Plaf B. dock where connection will be afforded to the cross street connecting up with Sherman avenue. The improvement now will be of a temporary character, the dredge fill being levelled out so that it can be traversed. The latter was left in the hands of the street committee with power to act.

Street Work is Planned
A resolution providing for the grading of Montana street from Sherman to Hamilton was also passed. The estimated cost of the improvement is $6933.50. Provision is only made for grading the street now.

A resolution providing for the grading of Sherman avenue from Florida to the Ball Park was also passed. The estimated cost is $7977.96. If hydraulic power were used in the grading the cost would only be $4422.20, but the saving offset by the comparatively small amount of work to be done would warrant the expense of installing a hydraulic plant.

The ordinance fixing the salary of the city wharfinger at $15 per month passed its final reading.

SUNDAY GAME DOUBLE-HEADER

Marshfield and North Bend and Eastside Here Tomorrow Afternoon.

Although the rainy weather has prevented the Marshfield team from getting much real practice this week, Capt. McCutcheon expects to be able to take North Bend in to camp here tomorrow afternoon. Marshfield will play a double-header, taking North Bend on first and Eastside on second. The first game will probably be called at 1:30 with North Bend. But one change will be made for the two games.

There will be a few changes in the Marshfield lineup tomorrow. McCutcheon will play third and Langworthy will go to right field in place of McKeown. It is expected that Norm Johnson will pitch the North Bend game and Sutton will pitch the Eastside game.

Tom Nicols has been chosen to umpire the first game tomorrow. It is expected that there will be good crowds of North Bend and Eastside rooters out for the game although the picnic of the Sons of Norway on Coos River is likely to detract from the local attendance.

Tomorrow afternoon the Ten Mile ball team will play the North Inlet team on the Lakeside grounds. A week from tomorrow, the married men will play the bachelors there. The new ball ground is about ready and more enthusiasm has been aroused over baseball there than there has been known in years.

PICNIC OUTINGS

Tomorrow is the day of the big annual picnic of the Sons of Norway. This year the crowd will go as in past years to Enegren's Grove on South Coos River, there to spend the day in dancing and the usual picnic sports, with an additional program of athletics in the afternoon. Boats leave at 7:30, 8:00, 10:30 and 1:00 o'clock.

Saturday was pleasantly spent at the Life Saving Station by Rev. B. F. Bengtson and members of his confirmation class, among the party Miss Elma Selander, Miss Stella Jutstrom, Miss Hilda Selander, Miss Hilda Brodd, Miss Nellie Olson, Miss Esther Brodd, Arthur Kolstad, Ellis Selander, Warner Kronquist, Irie Matson, Alfred Jutstrom, Ellis Grant and Anselm Johnson.

ELKS' BALL

Preparations for the anniversary ball of the Marshfield Lodge of Elks which will be held at the Eagles' hall Wednesday evening, June 25, have been practically completed by George Goodrum who is chairman of the committee on arrangements. The invitations will be issued early next week, each member of the lodge having the privilege of inviting one couple. The lodge members will appear in their uniforms for the first time. Music will be furnished by a six piece orchestra and dancing will begin at 9 o'clock. The patronesses will include Mrs. Eugene Crosthwait, Mrs. J. Albert Matson, Mrs. J. W. Hildenbrand, Mrs. W. H. Kenney, Mrs. A. T. Haines and Mrs. M. C. Maloney.

DANCES

The dance planned for last Saturday by the I. O. O. F. Dancing Club of North Bend was again postponed a week and will be given tonight.

Two pleasant dances were given last Saturday by Keyser's Orchestra in Empire and at the Finnish Hall by the Jolly Boys of Bunker Hill, an organization of the young men at the mill boarding house. Both were well attended and proved to be very enjoyable.

Where to Invest

Is a question which no one can answer satisfactorily without the best efforts of thought and judgment. Such points as the history of the locality, its prospects, correct proportion of income possibilities to values, directions of future growth, and many others, must all be taken together to form a correct conclusion. We have made these things a careful study, for many years, and feel that we are equipped to offer our clients the best possible guidance in the consideration of this important question.

We submit the following representative pieces to judges of good values, and are confident that no better investments can be found anywhere. We have many others as good.
