IN SOCIETY

Eugene Crosthwait were their hosts at dinner Friday night; Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Morrissey entertained Mr. and Mrs. Warwick, and daughter, Miss Nellie, and W. F. Miller at dinner Tuesday evening; Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Haines entertained them, and Thursday Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Houseworth. After the camping trip, the Warwicks plan to leave for California to make their home there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brouillard, of North Bend and Miss Della Brouillard have indefinitely postponed their intended departure for their old home in Iowa. Mrs. and Miss Brouillard will remain in North Bend while Mr. Brouillard makes a business trip east, continuing to make their home on Coos Bay.

Mrs. T. W. Rennie of North Bend left Wednesday for Medford, Oregon, to visit Mrs. R. G. Gale for a few weeks and possibly to bring the latter back with her to Coos Bay. Mrs. Gale was a former resident of North Bend.

Miss Maud Traer who for the past three years has been living in Chicago, is expected on the next Breakwater to make her home with her mother, Mrs. A. D. Traer.

Mrs. E. E. Straw left Thursday to join Dr. Straw at Klamath Falls where they will spend the next two or three weeks.

Mrs. R. M. Sarter returned this week from a visit with friends and relatives at Klamath Falls, where she formerly resided. She also attended the big Redondo festival there. She intended to go to Portland to attend the graduation exercises at St. Vincent's Hospital Nurses' Training school but as these will not be held until June 24, she had to change her plans. Two of her sisters, Misses Margaret and Mildred Callahan, will receive diplomas there. They visited here a year ago and are also expected to spend a few weeks here this fall.

Mair Dano left this week for a two weeks' vacation at Hood River from where he will go to Bandon to visit his mother and father.

Miss Edna Stanley arrived from Portland this week to visit at the E. S. Downing home and to attend the wedding Monday of Miss Charlotte Murch and Hugo Quist.

Mrs. J. T. Hall and daughter, Elsie, leave on the next Redondo for San Francisco to spend a few weeks' there shopping and visiting.

Last Sunday was spent by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Murch, Miss Charlotte Murch, and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Quist, Mrs. Ida Welander and Mr. Hugo Quist at the Murch's summer place, "The Nest," on South Coos River.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Quist, and Mrs. Ida Welander spent Friday at Bandon, and Tuesday visited Allegany and the beautiful Golden and Silver Falls near there.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Sandberg entertained Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Murch, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Quist, Mrs. Ida Welander, Miss Charlotte Murch and Mr. Hugo Quist at cards Wednesday evening.

Geo. D. Mandigo and wife and daughter, Miss Gertrude, write friends that they had a fine auto trip to Portland. They left Allegany last Friday and reached Salem at 9 o'clock Saturday evening, going into the Rose City on Sunday. They will spend some time in Portland visiting at the home of F. A. Kribs, Mrs. Mandigo's brother-in-law and with other relatives and friends. Mrs. W. C. Bailey and daughter, who accompanied them are visiting Mrs. Bailey's aunt, Mrs. H. G. Carlson in Portland.

Mrs. L. J. Simpson of North Bend went to Portland this week to attend the Rose Festival and spend a few weeks with friends. There she will meet her daughter, Miss Isabel Stearns, who has just graduated from St. Mary's Academy at Fairbault, Minn. Miss Stearns will probably accompany Mrs. Simpson home and spend the summer on the Bay.

Mrs. T. H. Barry and daughter, Miss Madge, returned to their home at Empire yesterday via Drain after spending a few weeks with Mrs. Harry Moffatt at Sacramento following Miss Barry's graduation from Dominican College at San Rafael. She was awarded two medals for her high scholarship.

Mrs. A. H. Powers and daughter, Miss Margaret, arrived home this week from a few weeks' visit Mrs. Power's mother, Mrs. Hogan, and sister, Miss Hogan. Mr. Powers met them at Scottsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Smeaton and sons, Ned and Jim, arrived here this week to spend a couple of months on the Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Dodge and children plan to leave on the next Redondo for San Francisco. Mrs. Dodge to go on to Minneapolis to visit relatives for several weeks and Mr. Dodge to return to the Bay.

Miss Evelyn Anderson is visiting friends in Bandon this week.

Mrs. Mary R. Smith left this week for Portland where she will meet her daughter, Mrs. Florence Hewes of McKittrick, California. After visiting relatives there for awhile, they will go to Salem where they will spend a few weeks with Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Vandervort.

Mrs. C. C. Going and children left this week for Portland where they will spend a few weeks with relatives and friends. Mr. Going will probably join them there later for the return trip.

HOME FROM COLLEGE

Invitations to the Commencement Exercises of Oregon University have been received by friends of graduates here. The Commencement week calendar, June 16 to 19, embraces the Baccalaureate Sermon Sunday; picnic breakfast, tennis finals, baseball, Shakespeare's "As You Like It", Maypole dances on the Campus and the Faculty Concert Monday; business meetings, President's reception, Glee Club Concert, fern and flower procession on the Campus, and the Falling and Beekman oratorical contest, Tuesday; and ends Wednesday, June 19, with the Commencement Address, University dinner to the Alumni and the Alumni ball. Many hundreds of parents and friends are visitors at Eugene during these few busy days, and many happy events are crowded into the short time that is so dear to college hearts. While Marshfield has no graduates this year, she is ably represented by Miss Marjorie Cowan who will soon be home to spend the summer vacation, and Ben Chandler, recently elected captain of the Oregon baseball forces, who will also return to the Bay soon to visit at the Coos River home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Chandler, Miss Pearl Reigard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Reigard, who has spent the last year at Oregon University returned today for the summer.

Miss Nellie Tower returned Thursday on the Breakwater by way of Portland from Seattle where she has been attending the University of Washington.

Geo. Flanagan, Jr., and John Noble, who are students at Columbia University in Portland returned home Thursday for the summer vacation.

Gordon Rasmussen returned the Breakwater from Oregon Agricultural College where he is in Junior year. His mother, Mrs. Rasmussen who has been visiting Portland for the last few weeks turned with him.

Walter Asplund and Fred McCmae came in the Breakwater Saturday and Thursday from Portland and Corvallis, at which place they have been attending A. C.

George Murch came in overland from Corvallis to spend his summer vacation at his home here and return to O. A. C. in the fall.

Eric Bolt is expected home Tuesday overland from Willamette University at Salem.
