THE COMING RACE.

IT IS a remarkable fact that at least 12 of the 38 athletes who will represent the United States in the Olympic games at Stockholm next month...

THE DOG.

The dog is mankind's warmest friend; as such he's known to fame; to love, to follow and defend his master is his aim.

WANTS WOMAN CHOSEN

To the Honorable A. H. Powers through "The Times" this appeal is most respectfully directed: As to a prospective school director before the people in today's election, I beg you to weigh well the shameful political conditions that control in our local educational institutions...

These children represent the only real wealth and resource of our nation, as the only reason of our Conservation Policy, and the present Generation shall and does live in vain when it fails to properly educate the future one.

Mr. Powers, you yourself are too busy a man to conscientiously assume the duties and responsibilities that should befall a member of the school board.

ROOSEVELT WANTS REVOLT

vote would give them the upper hand in the organization of the convention. The Roosevelt leaders caucused with many of the state delegations today previously to the general caucus of the full delegations.

States Make Plans.

They also fixed up a slate naming Walter S. Dickey as chairman of the delegation; Thomas K. Niederhisinghaus for National Committeeman in place of Secretary Nagel; Governor Hadley for the committee on resolutions; Jess Tollerton on the credentials committee, and Chas. Redban for permanent organization.

At the meeting of the Ohio delegation a resolution was adopted authorizing A. L. Garford to cast 34 of Ohio's 48 delegates' votes for Roosevelt on all propositions in the program of the Roosevelt forces.

Up to Rosewater.

In his capacity as chairman of the National committee, Victor Rosewater will call the convention to order and will decide whether to entertain or refuse the motion of the Roosevelt men to consider the selection of delegates. The Roosevelt plan is revolutionary and Rosewater may insist on waiting for the report of the committee on credentials which usually would not come up for consideration before Wednesday.

Fear Serious Trouble.

Fears for the order of the convention were freely expressed and predictions of serious trouble were made frequently during the day. Police arrangements have been extended and emergency instructions issued.

Roosevelt plans to meet every one of the 1073 delegates to the convention and speak with them individually before the day is over. Tonight at the Auditorium theater, he will be the principal figure at a mass meeting of Roosevelt followers.

Report Must Stand.

Representative Olmstead, who will act as advisor to Col. Roosevelt in parliamentary matters, spent several hours today in consultation with a number of expert parliamentarians who after going over precedents reached the conclusion that the temporary roll as prepared by the National committee must be regarded as inviolate until superseded by a new roll prepared by the convention itself after action by the committee on credentials and he will so advise the chair.

Roosevelt's Family.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and Congressman Nicholas Longworth with Mrs. Longworth will be in Chicago to observe the fight of Col. Roosevelt for the Republican nomination. They have made reservations at the Blackstone hotel. Congressman and Mrs. Longworth came from Cincinnati. Mrs. Longworth has taken more than a mere daughter's interest in her father's present campaign. When the Roosevelt National headquarters were at Washington she telephoned daily from Cincinnati to get first hand reports of the developments.

Teodore Roosevelt, Jr., is in business in San Francisco, but for several weeks he has been in New York City, where he has kept in close touch with his father's campaign.

The Taft forces are very confident that Roosevelt will not be called on to submit a platform to the convention. Their notion is that President Taft will O. K. the platform the convention adopts and that, as already stated in these dispatches, will follow the general lines of the platform adopted by the New York delegate convention at Rochester recently.

We believe that this as a self-controlled, representative democracy. We believe that order is the prerequisite of progress. We believe that the guarantees of the bill of rights should be forever preserved.

We believe that the public conscience should express itself properly and affirmatively in the election of public officials and not negatively in their recall. We advocate the enactment of a workmen's compensation act.

We believe in adequate laws to prevent monopoly in trade. We favor the retention of the Sherman anti-trust act. There should be further legislation to define as criminal offenses specific acts which mark attempts to restrain and monopolize trade.

We oppose as subversive to our form of government the initiative, the compulsory referendum and the recall either of public servants or judicial decisions or any device which impairs consistency and continuity in the expression of popular will.

We oppose the recall of judges or any system which will introduce cowardice as an element in the administration of justice. Tickets at $100. Scalpers have come into possession of tickets for the Republican National convention. This was admitted by Col. Harry S. New, chairman of the subcommittee on arrangements, who at the time declared it a regrettable situation but something that the committee was powerless to prevent.

It is the opinion of the managers that the tickets were given the scalpers by subscribers to the fund to bring the convention to Chicago. Subscribers were promised a ticket for each $100 subscribed, and it is believed that many restaurant and hotel keepers who subscribed are expecting to get their money back through the scalpers.

The tickets have been contracted for at $100 apiece, but will not be delivered to the purchaser until today. Bets in New York. The New York Tribune says: The following odds on the results of the political campaigns this year were quoted yesterday at the offices of a curb broker in Broad street: Even money Roosevelt will fail of nomination, 7 to 10 he will be nominated, 6 to 5 that if Taft is nominated he will meet defeat, 1 to 3 that Roosevelt will be the next President, 2 to 1 he will not be, 2 to 1 that Taft will not be, and 1 to 2 that if Roosevelt runs on an independent ticket he will get more votes than Taft on the regular ticket.

The quotations are longer on the Democratic side. Even money is offered, to be sure, that the next President will be a Democrat, but against Clark's nomination the odds are 9 to 5, 2 1/2 to 1 against Wilson, 3 1/2 to 1 against Underwood, 4 to 1 against Harmon, 6 to 1 against Bryan, 8 to 1 against Gaynor, and 15 to 1 against any other man.

Cal Judy, the Loon Lake settler who was paroled from the state penitentiary a few years ago and has caused the Douglas County authorities a great deal of trouble since, refuses to vacate his old home at Loon Lake, which his ex-wife, now Mrs. John Solander, legally owns by virtue of a decision in her favor by the State Supreme Court two months ago. Judy declared that he would not give up the place, and Mrs. Solander, knowing well the belligerent nature of her ex-husband, did not consider it advisable to resort to force. Instead, she notified Sheriff Quine of the situation, and that officer left for Loon Lake Thursday night to eject Judy from the premises.—Roseburg Review.
