SOCIAL CALENDAR

TODAY
 Wedding of Miss Charlotte Murch and Mr. Hugo Quist.
TUESDAY
 Miss Frances Golden, entertaining.

C. Murch made a bicycle trip to Dora yesterday. They expect to organize a bicycle club and take weekly outings to different points in Coos, Curry and Douglas counties.

Go to Beach.—Among those making trips to the beach yesterday were E. W. Kammerer and family, J. T. Harrigan and party and Arthur McKeown and party.

Searches Place.—On a search warrant sworn out by F. S. Dow, Constable W. B. Cox today searched the G. W. Stewart place, near North Bend, for a sack of wheat which Mr. Dow claimed was stolen from him. No trace of the missing wheat was found.

Is Re-elected.—Judge Watkins was re-elected city attorney of Eastside at the last council meeting there. The Eastside council is also planning to open a street and road through to Bay City and on grading a street to connect up with the proposed water level road up Catching Inlet to Sumner.

Long Auto Trip.—M. J. Richardson came in this morning from Medford with a Cadillac for Gorst & King to be used in the North Bend-Marshfield auto line. He was accompanied by E. C. Burk and R. D. Hodson and reports the Allegany road to be in bad shape as a result of the recent rains.

Court Opens Today.—A number of Marshfield attorneys left here this morning to attend circuit court at Coquille. Among those going over were C. I. Reigard, H. G. Hoy, C. A. Schlbredre, J. M. Upton and Tom Bennett. Judge J. S. Coke left this morning to reconvene the term and Court Reporter Riddle came in via Myrtle Point.

Back to Coos Bay.—L. J. Sipes, a former resident of Coos Bay, returned here today after an absence of about twelve years. He first went to Oakland but returned to Salem about a year ago. He came here to meet a grandson, Chester Israel, who came here with his wife about a week ago from Oklahoma. En route here Friday, Mr. Sipes was on the stage with Adams who was killed in the shooting scrape near Reston.

Wins Money.—Word has been received here that F. P. Norton's horse, Marin, won fourth money in the 2:20 pace at Berkeley. There were eight starters in the event. Mr. Norton was well pleased over the outcome, as it was Marin's first race this year and he expects good things of her later on in the season. He also states that several Berkeley horses will be shipped here on the next Redondo to take part in the Coos County races.

Rumor Work Stopped.—Mr. Culver, a former Oklahoman, arrived here Saturday from Central Oregon with a view of locating here. Just before leaving Portland, he met a friend who told him that he had just been apprised by one of the Twoby Brothers that work was to be stopped on the Coos Bay line out of Eugene. He was unable to get any other particulars. Mr. Culver lived at Kingfisher, Okla., about 15 years ago and there knew Eugene Crosswait and had not seen him for years until Saturday. A few months ago when he came west, he heard of Coos Bay and wrote here for The Times. In reading the paper, he noticed the name of Mrs. Eugene Crosswait in a list of guests at a party and said that he at once concluded that she must be the wife of his former friend, so when he reached here he immediately looked Mr. Crosswait up.

LARGE CROWD ENJOYS PICNIC

Nearly 1000 Participate in Festivities of Sons of Norway Sunday.

With nearly 1000 people in attendance, the first annual picnic of the Sons of Norway at Enegren's Grove on South Coos River yesterday was a marked success. The weather was ideal and the great crowd enjoyed themselves immensely.

A dozen or so boats brought the picnickers from Marshfield and North Bend and the various inlets and took them home. Many reached the picnic grounds early in the morning and the last boat load left for home about 8 o'clock in the evening.

In the athletic program the principal event was a tug of war between a team chosen by John Johnson of Ferndale and a team chosen by August Frizzen of Marshfield and Johnson's team won.

Dancing was the principal diversion and scores tripped the light fantastic to excellent music during the afternoon and evening.
 O. M. Johnson and the other officers of the Sons of Norway are highly elated over the success of the event.

Trustworthy Toilet Preparations

Don't make the fatal mistake of using strange toilet requisites, without any guarantee as to their quality. If you do you're taking big chances of ruining your complexion. Bad toilet goods are worse than none, for they not only do no good, but often contain ingredients that are actually injurious to the skin.

We can recommend all the toilet helps we sell as being pure, fresh and excellent, containing only elements of high nutritive value to the skin.

REXALL CREAM OF ALMONDS is one of the safest and surest of skin beautifiers known to us. This delightful preparation is absolutely pure, and free from all grease and oil. It softens, whitens, soothes, heals and preserves the skin and insures a fresh and fair complexion. Sold with the Rexall guarantee.
