BORN

STEVENS—To Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stevens of South Coos River Tuesday morning, June 18, 1912, a boy. Mother and child are doing nicely and the father is happier than either Taft or Roosevelt today. He will probably avoid reports from the convention before deciding whether to name the newcomer William or Teddy.

Sells Restaurant—A. W. Nichols has sold the Merchants Cafe to Long & O'Rourke, who assumed charge today. Mr. Nichols is going to San Jose, Cal., where he has been offered a good position with a fruit packing house.

Gets Signatures—Miss Pearl Redgard this morning secured 89 signatures for the initiative petition prepared by the commission appointed by Gov. West to draft a measure for a division of the state taxes between Oregon University and Oregon Agricultural College.

School Burns—Parties arriving from Coquille yesterday report that the Prosper school house was destroyed by fire Sunday. The loss is about $2500 and is covered by $2500 insurance. A spark from Archie Knuse's shingle mill is supposed to have caused the blaze.

Plan for Gym—Frank Howell, Lee Byerly and Ralph Bishop have started the organization of an open air gymnasium. They have already erected part of their apparatus. Frank Howell, who has had considerable experience in gym work will act as director.

Gets Kodak—As a result of what ad in The Times last evening, Fred Bentz of Bunker Hill, recovered a kodak which he lost at the Sons of Norway picnic last Sunday. He also recovered a bunch of keys which he had lost. The property was turned over to O. M. Johnson by the parties who found it.

Form Lodge Here—The organization of the Sons of Norway was begun last night at the Chamber of Commerce and will be completed this evening, the meeting to be held at the Finnish Hall. W. B. Olson, of Seattle, head organizer on the coast will leave tomorrow on the Breakwater for Portland.

Makes Long Trip—The following from a Portland paper will be of interest to the many friends that Miss McClure made on Coos Bay while visiting her friend, Mrs. E. B. Seabrook here a few years ago: "Miss Jean McClure, of Portland Heights, is touring California and Mexico with her brother, Frank McClure."

In Juvenile Court—Judge John P. Hall is this afternoon trying the case of Mrs. J. A. Graham of North Bend. Those prosecuting the case are trying to take from her her three young children on the charge that they do not receive proper care. She will not receive proper care.

The Coquille Garage, Coquille, Oregon. J. C. Walling, Prop.

light the case and hold that her children are well provided for. Her husband and son work at North Bend and she herself works part of the time.

Wed Last Night—Clarence Collier, of Catching Inlet, and Mrs. Jennie Davison, were married last night at the T. M. Collier home.

Wed in California—Word has been received here that Goldie Bescott, who shot and killed Charles Murray last December, has married Jack Millett, formerly a bartender at the Owl saloon on North Front street. The marriage took place in California shortly after the Bescott woman was given her freedom.

Is Improving—Mr. Lando has received word from St. Vincent's hospital at Portland where his wife, Mrs. Kate Lando, recently underwent an operation that she is getting along fairly well. It will probably be a few weeks before she can leave the hospital. Mrs. P. M. Wilbur visited Mrs. Lando last week. Mrs. Wilbur has gone on to Tacoma to visit friends before returning here.

Baseball Practice—The Marshfield Baseball club had the best practice of the year last night. Since yesterday's defeat they have settled several little difficulties and expect to play ball as a team instead of working individually. They will also try to strengthen their batting and hope to reverse the tables on North Bend next Sunday.

Clash Over License—Andrew Hekkla, formerly of the Brewery saloon and who had the clash with the Coos Bay Liquor company, has posted notice of his intention to open a saloon in the building at 384 North Front street, July 1. This will mean a revival of the scrap in the council as to whether Hekkla or the Coos Bay Liquor company is entitled to the license, the number of saloons here being limited.

New Hose Team—The Marshfield hose team is working hard for the contest here on the Fourth and Captain Claude Stutsman expects this year's team to equal or excel that of last. Those who will represent Marshfield this year are Karl Larson, Guy Stutsman, Frank Smith, Ray Olivant, Geo. Seelig and M. Kruger. Will Longstaff and Carl Arlandson are nozzle men and L. W. Traver and Claude Stutsman will be on the hydrant.

Great Social Event—The marriage of Mr. Hugo Quist and Miss Charlotte Murch was solemnized last evening at the Marshfield Episcopal church. Archbishop Horsfall officiating, the beautiful ring ceremony being used. The church was prettily decorated and the marriage was one of the prettiest ever witnessed on the Bay. After the ceremony a reception was tendered intimate friends of the family at their home in West Marshfield. Full details of the beautiful and impressive affair will be given in the social department of The Times on Saturday.

Returns With Bride—Among the passengers on the Alliance from Portland were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lyon whose coming was pleasurable awaited by many friends in Bay City who were eager to welcome the bride and groom. The wedding which took place in Albany, Oregon, Thursday June 13, marked the culmination of the youthful romance of Chas. Lyon and Miss Bertha Widener, of Harrisburg, Oregon, who were boy and girl sweethearts together. Chas. Lyon, who is an employe of the C. A. Smith mill and a son of W. N. Lyon of Bay City left the first of the month for Harrisburg where he was joined by his bride-to-be and with a party of friends they went to Albany where they were married. They went to the Portland Festival on their honeymoon and returned to Coos Bay on the Alliance. The young man is well known and popular here and he and his lovely bride were given a royal welcome to their new home by many friends who will unite with The Times in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous married life.

AMONG THE SICK

Joe Noble, who recently underwent an operation at Mercy Hospital for a fractured arm, was able to be out yesterday.

MORE MEN TO WORK

Engineer Hoey Puts Larger Force on Coos Bay Line
The Eugene Guard says:
"H. P. Hoey, head of the department of Southern Pacific construction engineers in this city, returned last night from a trip to southern Oregon and to California. He spent some time at Klamath Falls where the track on the part of the line completed last winter is being brought into condition for use. He says that no new contract has been let on the cutoff. Nothing definite has been announced in regard to the line from Eugene to Marshfield but Mr. Hoey has ordered two gangs of construction engineers to leave today for the other side of the tunnel to trace out wagon roads and do certain preliminary surveying in order that work may not be delayed when announcement is made."

CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to express grateful thanks and appreciation of all the assistance given and help shown during my recent bereavement, for the many beautiful flowers and all the other favors.
—MRS. SELMA THOMAS AND FAMILY.
