

CONVENTION PROCEEDINGS

demonstration of the day, greeted them.

Senator Root, temporary chairman, entered at 10:54 and was greeted with applause.

Senator Root, James W. Watson and Governor Hadley, the Taft and Roosevelt floor leaders, conferred for several minutes before the gavel fell. Senator Root called the convention to order at 11:15 a. m.

After prayer by Rev. Solz, Senator Root announced that an agreement had been reached between Watson and Hadley that three hours debate be equally divided. Hadley opened the debate arguing to unseat the 92 contested Taft delegates. Hadley presented a statement of 14 members of the National committee that 92 contested delegates should not be seated.

Gov. Hadley said, "We could have met immediately and forcibly overcome the arbitrary and unparliamentary ruling of yesterday. We could have forcibly insisted on claiming the roll on that motion and we could have forcibly taken control. Instead we chose to wait patiently until today." He was cheered frequently. Gov. Hadley did not attempt to go into the details of the various contested cases, saying he would leave that matter to another speaker. He read the "indictment" of the national committee as uttered by Roosevelt in his speech at the auditorium mass meeting Monday night.

Gov. Hadley who was interrupted frequently during the first portion of his remarks rebuked the disturbers by asking for serious consideration of the arguments on both sides. Hadley was followed by W. T. Dovell for the other side. Dovell declared it was utterly false that "the state of Washington ever was carried for Roosevelt."

Dovell was interrupted with angry jeers and questions from the Roosevelt partisans. H. J. Allen of Kansas followed Dovell supporting Hadley's motion. Allen ridiculed Dovell's statement about the Washington primary and quoted figures to show that Taft's vote had been small.

Allen said Roosevelt said he had got all but about 500 of the 6000 votes cast in Seattle. A delegate asked how many voters there were in Seattle and Allen admitted that there were possibly a hundred thousand. Allen denounced the methods of the Washington state leaders at state convention saying the conditions were such that all Roosevelt men were practically barred from the hall. He denounced the national committee and took a fling at the credentials committee which as yet remained to be named.

Dovell was interrupted by groans by the Roosevelt forces when he said, "when it was discovered the night before the state convention that the Taft forces were in control, the adherents of Roosevelt declined to come to the convention because they knew they were beaten."

The clerk for the information of the convention then read the names which the Hadley motion would strike from the roll and the list of those which it would seat.

Allen was challenged to say whether he intended to support the nominee of the convention. He said he would "on one condition—that his nomination is not accompanied by fraud and thievery." A great uproar of cheers and angry shouts followed.

Newcomb of New York raised a point of order against the interruptions. The chair sustained the motion and asked for fair play on both sides. Senator Hemmenway spoke against Hadley's motion.

Hemmenway declared that of the fourteen members of the National Committee protesting committees' roll, all but two have been retired from the committee this year.

George Record of New Jersey spoke in support of Hadley's motion. "If you recognize the right of the committee to pass on your right of state delegates to sit in the National convention," said Record. "You have established government by the minority. You are submitting to a partial and packed tribunal in cases where the verdict is reached before the evidence submitted."

C. C. Littleton supported the Hadley motion. Littleton said he was a delegate himself and intended to vote for Taft.

MAY STOP MANEUVERS

Veto by Taft of Army Bill Will Cause Grief (By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

WASHINGTON, June 19.—President Taft's veto of the army appropriation bill may prevent this year's maneuvers in camps of the regular army and National Guard. The bill vetoed by the President contained an appropriation of $1,350,000 to pay part of the expense of the encampments. The northwest encampments are scheduled for July 21.

EIGHT HOUR LAW

President Taft Exempts Panama Canal Contracts From It. (By Associated Press to the Coos Bay Times.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—President Taft signed today the act of Congress limiting eight hours per day service for laborers and mechanics employed on government work and immediately issued an executive order exempting any contracts in connection with the Panama Canal until June 1, 1915. The canal will be finished before that date.

THAYER GRIMES AT CONVENTION

Only Marshfield Man There— Flynn Wires Col. Grimes Close Forecast.

So far as known, Thayer Grimes is the only Coos Bay man attending the National Republican convention in Chicago. He has been there attending an art school and Dennis Flynn of Oklahoma who visited here a few months ago, wired yesterday that Thayer and his son, Streeter Flynn, were attending the convention.

Mr. Flynn is a member of the National Republican central committee from Oklahoma. He is a Taft man and he wired Col. Grimes yesterday morning that Root would be elected chairman by about sixty votes and Taft would win the nomination by about twenty votes.

Mr. Flynn's forecast on the chairmanship was almost exact, Root winning by just 56 votes.

ENGLISH GIRL WEDS

TRULY MODEL MAN

BOSTON, June 19.—It will indeed be an odd ceremony that binds Miss Jessie Holliday, the English portrait painter, to Edmund T. Dana, a grandson of Longfellow. The match is purely one of mind with reason on the throne where cupid ought to be. And here are the things that reason does not require in the marriage ceremony: A minister, a religious ceremony, bridesmaids, best man and ushers. Edmund M. Parker, a Boston lawyer, will go out to the Cambridge estate of the Danas and will take the formal acknowledgment of the people's contract to marry, whereupon they will consider themselves duly married. Edmund T. Dana will be a model husband in every sense of the word, as he neither drinks, smokes or chews, and is very fond of his home.

FOUR GENERATIONS

IN ALBANY HOME

ALBANY, Ore., June 18.—Four generations live in one house in this city and the oldest is just 57 years of age. Mrs. C. M. Mason represents the second generation and says she has never been away from her mother, Mrs. Emma Stringer, for more than a year at a time during her life and that her daughter, Mrs. Lillian Price, and her grandson, Monroe Price, have always lived with her. Mrs. Mason was married when she was 16 years of age and was a grandmother at 35.

PLAN NEW ROAD

North Bend Meeting Appoints Committee to Handle Matter

At a meeting of those interested in the proposed new road from Albany via Cooston to Peterson's Landing North Inlet, a committee was named to try and raise funds for one-half the expense of the construction of the road. Many along the route are expressing a willingness to cooperate to the fullest extent and Mr. Gilbertson has offered to build about 4,800 feet of it through his property. The committee appointed to confer with the property owners along the route about subscriptions toward the cost of the road consists of A. R. Raab, Harry Winkler, C. C. Hanson, J. G. Mullen and N. E. Daggett.

KRIBS WAS KING REX

The Portland Oregonian says: "Unmasked Rex Oregonus appeared in the final electrical parade of rose festival week Saturday night as Frederick A. Kribs, millionaire lumberman, capitalist, real estate owner, ardent rose grower and festival supporter. No festival king was ever accorded great volume of popular acclaim by so great a throng of loyal, fun-loving subjects."—Mr. Kribs is a brother-in-law of Geo. D. Mandigo of North Bend. The Mandigo family are now guests at the Kribs' home.
