Move Onto Ranch—John Grant is arranging today to move from Ferndale onto the E. J. Coffey ranch on Coos River which he and Fred Selander have purchased. The ranch consists of 120 acres. The Coffeys will move to North Bend. Besides the land, the purchasers get all the stock and equipment on the place.

Town Is Burned—Chas. Hickox received a telegram today from Frank Bowron, Jr., a son of William Bowron, saying the whole town of Ray, Ariz., had been destroyed by fire. Mr. Bowron located at Ray about six months ago. He was in business for himself. The message did not state how heavily he had lost.

Error in Vote—By mistake the name of Tom Hall was included in those voting 'yes' on the resolution voted on at the school election Monday. The name of Dora Cathcart should also have been in the 'no' column making seventeen instead of fifteen against the resolution asking that Supt. Tiedgen be engaged for three years.

Enters Annapolis—Milton Oren Carlson, who recently passed the examinations for Annapolis, arrived there June 17, after visiting for a short time with friends at Minneapolis. He passed the physical examination at the naval academy and has been enrolled. He will receive his first vacation two years after his entrance and will have to remain in the service for eight years.

At Odd Fellows' Hall—It is announced that in case the weather next Saturday is unfavorable, the annual picnic of the Coos Bay Grange will be held at the Odd Fellows' hall in Marshfield in the afternoon instead of at Piper's Grove on South Coos River. The program, it is planned, will be largely devoted to addresses by the fruit experts from Oregon Agricultural College.

Near Accident—Driver King of the King-Gorst auto line had a narrow escape from a bad accident on his first trip this morning. In making the sharp turn on the Ferndale bridge, his machine skidded on the wet planks and before he could stop it knocked off a railing. A few feet more would have precipitated him into a gulch twenty or thirty feet deep.

Undergoes Operation—Coos Bay friends of F. A. Sacchi, who recently went to San Francisco for medical treatment, have received word that he expects to undergo an operation there. The operation is understood to be of a minor nature and that it will prove a success and afford permanent relief for him is the ardent wish of the many friends of the family here.

Fears for Husband—Marshal Carter has received a letter from a Mrs. John Appleton, of Oakland, Cal., in which she expresses fear for her husband who came to Coos Bay over a month ago. He is uneducated, cannot write and has a companion whom Mrs. Appleton fears would use foul means, if necessary, to get valuables and money from him. As Appleton is about 60 years old and has poor eyes she thinks he could be easily taken advantage of.

Store is Closed—The store of W. T. Merchant & Son was closed yesterday by the Bennett Trust Company, acting as agent for the San Francisco Board of Trade which represents a number of the small creditors. W. T. Merchant stated today that negotiations were now underway which he hoped might result in a speedy adjustment of the matter so that he would probably resume business. The telegraph line was out of commission this morning and delayed the negotiations some. The trouble has been partly due to a misunderstanding, Mr. Merchant says. The claims against the firm aggregate only a fraction of the value of the stock the firm carries.

Delays Haying—Rain last night and today is bad for the farmers as this is the haying season and a large amount of hay will be spoiled unless the weather clears off today.

Wrong Name Given—Through a misunderstanding the name of the new lodge of the Sons of Norway was given yesterday as "Dovre Lodge" when it should be "Dovre Lodge." Christ Lee was elected financial secretary of the lodge.
