Mrs. Arthur McKeown plans to go with the children, Joey and Grace, to set up camp at the Maze soon after the Fourth.

Miss Mary Louise McArthur returned Wednesday evening from spending a few days with Miss Kathryn Horton at the McCollum place on South Coos River.

Mrs. A. T. Haines came down Tuesday to attend Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Smeaton's ball and the Elks' ball Wednesday evening, returning Thursday morning to stay until the Fourth of July celebrations.

PICNIC OUTINGS
 A jolly party of Marshfield young people enjoyed a picnic at Charleston last Sunday, a special launch being chartered for the trip. Various picnic diversions and frolics in the surf followed by a big basket dinner made the outing ideal. Among those in the party were Mrs. Ross, Misses Beatrice Roberts, Ellen Rudnas, Maud Noble, Georgene Zimmer, Minnie Harkensee and Martha Bernitt and Messrs. Wm. Hutchins, Guy Chambers, Archie Evans, John Motley, Ferd Painter and Preston Jones.

The Eastside Social and Athletic Club gave a largely attended picnic last Sunday. The Alert was chartered to carry the crowd to Allegany where the day was spent in games and picnic sports, and was greatly enjoyed in spite of the draw-back of wet weather. About seventy people attended.

The Wesleyan Bible class made an excursion on the Tioga last night to Delmont Goodwin's place on Coos River Heights. They had a delightful time and enjoyed the long climb up the hill to the place. Those going were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Russell, Miss Mary Stevens, Miss Marjorie Smith, Miss Jessie King, Misses Hattie, Nora and Gurea Hage, Miss Ruth Gihbertson, Miss Amy Isaacs, Miss Geneva Smith, Miss Ethel Metzler of Corvallis, Miss Maude Bailey, Miss Marjorie Swearingen, Miss Vera Wilson, Miss Norma Chase, Miss Naomi Smith, Miss Juno Young, L. Bolsinger, Mr. Thayer, Tom Hage, Justin Arms, Edward Steele, Earl Hutchins, Earl Brown, Harold Hunt and Roy Fulton.

EPISCOPAL TEAS

Perham, Mrs. F. E. Leefe, Mrs. Geo. F. Murch, Mrs. J. V. Smeaton, Mrs. W. T. Stoll, Miss Edith Dunning, Mrs. Christine Kruse, Mrs. J. Albert Matson and Mrs. W. A. Toye.

BRIDGE
 Mrs. D. C. Greene entertained Friday afternoon at five tables of Bridge in compliment to her guests, Mrs. P. A. Young and Miss Isabel Young. At the cards, Mrs. Geo. F. Murch and Mrs. F. E. Leefe won the first and second prizes and Mrs. Young was awarded the guest prize. Mrs. Greene's home was filled with bunches of crimson rambler and bunches of wild flowers.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON
 Mrs. M. C. Horton entertained at luncheon and Bridge Friday at tables beautifully decorated with yellow and laid for thirteen guests. Ribbon ribbons hung from the central chandelier to the yellow shaded candles at each place. Dainty cards of yellow rose-bud design indicated the places. The luncheon was served by Misses Lucy and Ruth Horton. At Bridge a handsome prize was won by Mrs. N. Rasmussen, the score cards also carrying out the color idea. Among the guests were Mesdames D. Y. Stafford, W. T. Merchant, P. A. Sandberg, A. L. Houseworth, N. Rasmussen, Kramer Batsford, E. Mings, Henry Sengstacken, J. S. Coke, Dorsey Kretzer, A. H. Powers, C. W. Tower and G. A. Bennett.

DANCES
 The North Bend Concert Band is making preparations to give a dance July Fourth at Eckhoff Hall and expects to have one of the largest crowds on that day that have ever turned out. This is the first dance they have attempted since organization.

Next week will see several dances by the Band as part of the celebrations for the Fourth. The Odd Fellows and Eagles' halls have been engaged for a couple of nights and big things are in preparation for adding to the jollity of the occasion.

WEDDINGS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS
 The marriage of Miss Ellen Sneddon, daughter of Mrs. Alice Sneddon, and Wm. Abel, Jr., was solemnized quietly at Coquille Tuesday afternoon in the presence of the groom's father and Miss Mary Wilson of Coquille. Justice Holden performed the ceremony. The bridal couple returned to Marshfield where they were tendered a wedding supper by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Abel, Sr. About fourteen guests were present. Young Mr. and Mrs. Abel will live in Marshfield.

NEWS OF NORWAY
 The Ladies' Club met Sunday afternoon for a strawberry feast at the home of Mrs. Calvin Ray. This was the last meeting for the summer and to commemorate it each lady had pieced a quilt and wrapped it. Little Ora Ray, blindfolded, passed the packages, and each lady wrote her name on a block of each quilt as it came to her. Thus the names of all present were inscribed on every square, and each lady carried away with her a valuable remembrance of the pleasant day.

The ball game Sunday afternoon between Riverton and Norway was a fine game although the weather was rather damp. The score was 6 to 3 in favor of the Norway boys, who were out in their new suits and made a fine showing.
