

The Great Reason

Why I like to buy at this store," remarked one of our customers a few days ago,— "is that I know I am safe here. You have never yet sold me anything that wasn't right, and I guess you'd make good, if the goods didn't."

An expression like that makes us feel as if life was worth living. We'd rather hear one customer say that, than sell a hundred dollars worth of merchandise. And we believe that it is the general feeling among our customers.

We find it pays to handle only "the goods that make good." Wouldn't it pay you to buy only at the store that makes good? We think so; just bear us in mind when you need anything in our line.

NEWS FROM NEARBY TOWNS

COQUILLE CULLINGS.

News of the County Seat as Told by The Sentinel.

Miss Gertrude Miller of Marshfield, came over Tuesday to visit relatives and friends for an indefinite time. Miss Miller is just recovering from a surgical operation and will not be able to resume her work as stenographer in J. D. Goss' office this summer.

Capt. O. R. Willard left Monday for Portland and Puget Sound to negotiate for a modern passenger boat for the Coquille river. He will probably be absent a couple of weeks.

A very pleasant surprise party was given Captain Frank Willard last Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Johnson, the occasion being his thirty-sixth birthday.

Mrs. W. A. Custer went to Marshfield Wednesday morning to spend a few days with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Custer. She was accompanied by little Aerial McDonald.

LIBRARY AND HIGH SCHOOL

Coquille May Inaugurate New Idea In Building There.

COQUILLE, Ore., June 29.—The committee appointed at the annual school meeting to wait upon the trustees of the Coquille Library Association to negotiate for the purchase of a site for a high school, met Tuesday evening at R. S. Knowlton's residence.

Those present were the members of the committee H. O. Anderson, M. O. Hooten and R. S. Knowlton; also the trustees of the library association R. S. Knowlton, Mrs. Fred Belloni and John Quick.

The library trustees expressed a willingness to dispose of the library lots for school purposes for $1000, providing the school building erected thereon shall contain a permanent library room and a public gymnasium both to be under the school management. It was also understood that the $1000 should be used for the purchase of books for the library.

The committee was well pleased with the offer and will shortly report the proceedings of the meeting to the school board by whom they were appointed.

Public sentiment seems to be growing strongly in favor of the plan to purchase these lots, which will afford ground space 100x100, and the erection of the high school building thereon according to the plans above outlined.—Coquille Sentinel.

FIGHTS AT BANDON

Day and Farrell to Meet There July 3 in 20 Round Go.

The fights which to be pulled off in Bandon on July 3rd, are proving to be a source of interest to the followers of the fighting game in Coos County. In the main event, Jess Day will meet Kid Farrell in a twenty round go. Day has been training hard and should be in good condition. His followers believe he will be able to dispose of Farrell before the twentieth round.

There is to be a ten round preliminary which is creating almost as much interest as the main event. Del. Price and Geo. Smith will furnish the amusement and have wagered $50 on the side. Price has been on the Bay for some time and Smith is the colored bootblack at the Golden Oak Barber Shop. Both are heavy weights.

Bud Anderson and Rough House Charley Burns are matched for a twenty round fight to be pulled off at Klamath Falls July 3rd. Both are well known here. Anderson put out Young Henderson in the seventh round of what was to have been a twenty round contest, here last December and Burns has also fought here, meeting Guy Lee, Evans and Henderson at the skating rink. Anderson's last fight was with Abe Labe and he was given the decision after twenty rounds of milling.

NEWS OF COOS BAYITES

Former Residents, Now at Honolulu, Plan Trips.

A news letter from Honolulu says: "Norman B. Courteney, secretary to Governor Fraer, expects to spend his vacation with relatives and friends in Portland and Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lansing, of Coos Bay, Or., are guests of friends at Hilo. Floyd Lansing, a student at Corvallis, is expected to join his parents next month."

WORK ON BRIDGE.

The Eugene Guard says: "The Southern Pacific concrete men are now working on the first culvert out of Eugene on the Coos Bay line. This culvert is located on the McLaren place a short distance west of Blair street and inside the city limits. Other crews have been sent to the site of the first bridge across Coyote Creek several miles out."

"The Bates & Berger Construction company, of Spokane, which is doing the work, eventually expect a big force, but cannot definitely tell how soon they will strike a large job."

"Mr. Rasmussen said that they would push things as soon as they got starlighted out, which would be in a short time. The Southern Pacific is preparing for their work and has erected a large cofferdam on Coyote Creek and made other preparations for the bridge across that stream."

STEVE GALLIER RAILWAY MAGNATE.

Steve Gallier came up from Bandon last Friday to look after business matters connected with the proposed railroad from Bandon to Grants Pass.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

WELL BET ON 'UNCLE HENRY.'

R. J. Clinton, who was reported suffering from a fungus growth at the bottom of his left foot, a couple of months ago is still on the "limp" but hopes that the doctor will get the growth entirely burned out and healed over in time for him to go into training for the quarter mile foot race in which "Bob" and "Uncle Henry" will participate.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

MILKS 20 COWS AN HOUR.

Verne Lundy has recently installed a set of milking machines at his father's dairy south of the city, and while he has not decided as yet how great a success it will be, he is milking with it at the rate of about twenty cows an hour.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

WRITES OF COQUILLE

Archdeacon Horsfall Tells of Coos County Seat in Letter.

The Oregon Churchman prints the following: "The Rev. Wm. Horsfall, dean of the Southern convocation, reports that he and Mrs. Horsfall have returned to Bandon after their trip to Portland refreshed and strong. He says: 'At Coquille and Bandon I have taken the opportunity to tell our people of the growth and prosperity of the diocese. Our people are cheered with the good news of what is being done and by the Bishop's contemplated visit in September, greatly regretting that Mrs. Scadding will not be able to come this year. We have fair sized congregations, notwithstanding the fact that the beautiful weather keeps people from our services. Coquille has a population of 1200, eight churches, two There is considerable religious indifference theatres, and forty automobiles. The resident Methodist minister is trying to reach the men by street preaching. Saturday nights when people were on their way to moving picture shows or to do their marketing I saw him kneeling in the street, and heard him praying loudly and fervently, the people passing on, none caring to stop to listen. The pastor of the Presbyterian church said to me this morning: 'These fine Sundays are making my congregations quite small.' With ourselves I am thankful to say that so far there is little cause for complaint.'"

MYRTLE POINT MENTION.

News of The Week Gleaned from The Enterprise.

Ray Miller, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller of Bridge, was badly scalded one day last week by upsetting some hot milk over his person.

The semi-annual election of officers of the Presbyterian Aid Society took place last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. Strong, and the following ladies were elected to office for the ensuing six months: President, Mrs. W. J. Strong; Vice-President, Mrs. A. Hogue; Secretary-treasurer, Mrs. H. A. Guerin. Mrs. J. S. Whitaker was appointed chairman of the literary work which is carried on in connection with the Aid Society.

Mrs. Eugene Shetter and children returned to Bandon Wednesday after a week's visit at the home of Mrs. C. E. Broadbent. The ladies are old girl friends, having grown up together in the Coquille valley. As Mrs. Shetter has since been in various parts of the United States and the Hawaiian Islands, they had not seen each other for twenty years, and the visit was made especially interesting in reminiscences of the pioneer days. Mrs. Shetter will be remembered to old settlers as Miss Jennie Thealan.

L. J. Sipes and his grandson, Chat Israel and wife, recent arrivals from Kansas, drove into the Eckley country looking up a location for a stock ranch. The elder gentleman is a former resident of Coos county, and will enjoy a visit with oldtimers in Southern Coos and Northern Curry.

Roy Stevens has the construction of a large scow under way at one of the landing just below the forks of the river.

Jim Wilson went to George Pike's camp below Coquille Wednesday to accept a job of tending hook.

Mrs. Walter Condron was here from Marshfield a couple of days last week visiting her husband and son.

Thos. Dickson was looking after business affairs at Marshfield, Coquille and North Bend several days this week.

Mrs. E. J. Carver, who recently sold her residence property in this city to Mrs. L. Robbins, departed last Monday for Cincinnati, Ohio, where she will spend four months visiting relatives and old time friends.

WOMAN FORFEITS BAIL

Daisy Starr, a woman of the underworld, was arrested yesterday for using profane language on Front street. She was also intoxicated. She furnished $25.00 bail to appear before Recorder Butler this morning at 10 o'clock but did not show up, forfeiting her money. She directed her abuse against her reputed husband, a cripple, and attracted quite a crowd.

ECHO OF DRAIN LINE

Atty. A. N. Orcutt returned this morning from a visit to his former home in Iowa. He went via Los Angeles and New Orleans to Chicago, and returned via Omaha, Denver and Salt Lake. At the latter place he was to have participated in the trial of the lawsuit growing out of the failure of the C. E. Loss Co., contractors on the Drain-Coos Bay railroad. An accumulation of other cases, however, caused another postponement until the first week in September.—Roseburg Review.
