PRAISE MAY TULLY

Niece of Mrs. Eugene O'Connell is Vaudeville Star Now.

The Portland Oregonian prints the following concerning Miss May Tully, a niece of Mrs. Eugene O'Connell, who is well known on the Bay through visits at the O'Connell home here:

"May Tully, comedienne of note, occupies first place on the bill to open at the Orpheum Sunday in 'The Battle Cry of Freedom,' a satire on Reno divorces, written by her and Roseman Bulger. Miss Tully has been a prominent stage figure for years, one of her great successes being achieved in the sketch, 'Stop! Look! Listen!' in which she caricatured footlight stars. She also won plaudits in 'Curves,' a baseball skit, in which she appeared with Christy Mathewson and 'Chief' Myers. In 'The Battle Cry of Freedom' the story is built around an overcrowded hotel in which two Mrs. Smiths are lodged. It develops that one is the wife and the other the ex-wife of the Smith who appears on the scene. The situations are extremely comical and, with vivacious May Tully in the leading role, laughs are created for every minute of the life of the skit." F. E. Hague and wife went to Portland to meet Miss Tully this week.

THE WEATHER

(By Associated Press.)

OREGON—Showers tonight and probably Wednesday.

Winds mostly southerly.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE REPORT.

For twenty-four hours ending at 4:43 a. m., July 2, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorological observer:

- Maximum 66
- Minimum 47
- At 4:43 a. m. 52
- Precipitation none
- Wind northwest; partly cloudy.

Special Police—L. W. Traver and Walter Richardson are doing special day police duty, during the celebration and Levi Smith is on special at night.

Meet Today.—Mrs. Isaacs is entertaining the C. W. B. M. at the home of Mrs. C. A. Sehlbrede at Plat B this afternoon. An enjoyable time is anticipated.

Is Injured.—Walter Oldland was in town yesterday and is under the physician's care as a result of being hit with a snag while clearing land on the McMullen ranch.

Breaks Arm.—Ruth Hopson, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hopson, fell while sliding down a railing at their home last evening and broke her arm in two places.

New Position.—Miss Helen Bradley, who has been an efficient member of The Times' force for the past year has resigned to assist her father, W. C. Bradley, in the offices of the Bradley Candy Company. Miss Alpha Mauzey will succeed Miss Bradley in The Times' office.

Runaway Today.—A horse belonging to Jim Forty ran away today, becoming frightened after running into a rut at Bunker Hill. Mr. Forty and a companion were tipped out and the horse went on through town being stopped on Front street. No damage was done.

Has Fine Position.—R. M. Wieder has received word from his son, H. S. Wieder stating that he has taken charge of a million dollar contract and will have about six hundred men under him. The contract is for building an oil line thru from Bakersfield to the coast. Friends of Mr. Wieder here will be pleased to learn of his good fortune which is a result of marked ability, and wish him success in the largest undertaking he has ever handled.

Three Hurt at Mill.—Fred Barnes of Eastside and whose parents reside in North Bend had his foot badly injured in an accident at the C. A. Smith mill the day before yesterday. He is at Mercy hospital where he is reported getting along nicely. Alexander Sasie, a workman aiding in erecting the new smokestack, sustained a broken arm in an accident yesterday. Another workman whose name could not be learned sustained a broken shoulder.

Auto Hurts Boy.—Karl Abrahamson was slightly injured and his bicycle badly smashed in a collision with an automobile driven by Vernon Barker of Barker and Goodale. The accident took place at the corner of Broadway and Central. Abrahamson was riding along Central and collided with Barker's machine as it came down Broadway after making a trip to the race track. It is said that Barker was going at a pretty good clip.

Got Ring.—A mystery in the festivities at the Quist-Murch wedding has just been explained. When the wedding cake was cut, no one "fessed up" to having received the ring. Roy Bleecker was one of the guests. Mr. Bleecker and Miss Stanley had then arranged for their marriage in Portland, which they intended to keep secret, and when Mr. Bleecker got the ring in his piece of the cake, he is said to have quietly slipped it into his pocket, thinking thus to avoid comment that might lead to their secret being unfolded before they were ready.

Funeral Today.—The funeral of little Sarah Veronica Olson, daughter of Captain and Mrs. B. W. Olson, was held at St. Monica's Catholic church this morning at 9:30. Interment being at the I. O. O. F. cemetery. The floral tributes sent by the many sympathizing friends of the bereaved parents were very numerous and beautiful. Four boys, Albert Powers, Ned Smeaton, Valerian Vassy and Lauren Davis acted as pallbearers. There are expressions of sympathy from every side for the highly esteemed parents over the loss of their second child.
