SENATOR LAFOLLETTE CALLS ON COL ROOSEVELT TO EXPLAIN

Makes New Demand for Public Statement of Expenditures in Campaign.

SAYS LARGE TRUSTS AIDED HIM FINANCIALLY

Declares That Progressive Doctrine Necessitates Publishing Donors.

(By Associated Press to the Coos Bay Times.)

MADISON, Wis., July 5.—United States Senator La Follette, in a printed statement today asks Col. Roosevelt for a second time to publish his expense account or else that the "Candidate make a statement of his reasons for thus spurning one of the basic principles of public morality and political decency."

La Follette says in part: "Big business, with big money derived from unfair privileges is ever in politics and ever is ready to place its funds back of a likely winner, who either is subservient in the sense that the chisel subservient to the hand of the carpenter, or servicable to the extent he is 'Harmless' in his performances."

"Special privilege puts money into political campaigns by way of investment and for such investments it demands substantial rewards. It is to protect the public interest from rewards such as these, conserved in twilight and consummated in secret, that the people demand publicity of campaign contributions."

"Theodore Roosevelt entered the contest for the presidential nomination as a 'progressive.' He made a strenuous campaign for votes and a noisy scramble for southern delegates on the ground that he represented progressive doctrine. In this fight he had the backing of the 'Steel Trust,' and the 'Harvester Trust.'"

"Financial giants like Perkins, Hanna and Munsey contributed to his cause. His campaign was characterized by a riotous expenditure of money yet he has made no public accounting. He has not taken the American people into his confidence. He has ignored the progressive principle of publicity."

FOR PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARIES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 5.—Representative Norris, of Nebraska, a progressive Republican, introduced a bill today that he declared would remedy the evils in presidential primaries. The Norris bill provides for a National convention of each party on the fourth Monday in June of every presidential year.

In the convention, each state's representation will be based on the party's strength in the state. Delegates to the convention will be elected at primaries held the first Tuesday in May, the result of the primaries being certified by the state officials to the Secretary of the Interior who would canvass the votes.

The voters would express a first and second choice for presidential candidates. The candidate having a majority of the first choice votes as canvassed by the Secretary of the Interior would become the nominee of the party. No action by the convention in regard to the nominee would be necessary unless none of the candidates received a majority in which case the convention would nominate. The bill would not go into effect until its plans were accepted and laws in conformity with it were passed at least in 20 states.

ELKS GATHER AT PORTLAND

Rose City Makes Elaborate Preparations for Grand Lodge Meeting.

(By Associated Press to the Coos Bay Times.)

PORTLAND, Ore., July 5.—Officers of the Grand Lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, who have already arrived in Portland for next week's grand lodge reunion, are enthusiastic over the preparations which have been made by the local lodge, No. 142, and state that never in the history of reunions of the order have such elaborate preparations, decorations and entertainment been carried out. The grand lodge opens next Monday, the sessions continuing one week.

As a courtesy to the Elks of the nation, who will be in Portland attending the annual reunion, Governor West has issued a proclamation declaring Thursday, July 11, a legal holiday.

FORMER PUPIL WON FOR WILSON

SON OF ROGER SULLIVAN OF ILLINOIS CAUSED FATHER TO THROW SUPPORT TO GOVERNOR IN NATIONAL CONVENTION.

(By Associated Press to the Coos Bay Times.)

SEA GIRT, N. J., July 5.—Joseph P. Tumulty, Gov. Wilson's private secretary, told his chief today the "inside story" of Illinois' change at Baltimore from Clark to Wilson. It all came about, Tumulty said he had been informed yesterday, through the unrelenting coaxing of the wife and son of Roger Sullivan, former congressman. "When young Sullivan was at Lawrenceville going to 'prep' school," the secretary said, "he was very fond of Prof. Wilson."

He asked his father to support the governor but the older Sullivan did not think as the son did and after the primaries told the boy that he would have to support Clark, the primary choice. The boy won Mrs. Sullivan's sympathy and together they began a Wilson campaign upon the leader. The upshot of it was that Sullivan promised that he would use his influence for Governor Wilson in case of a break from Clark. When the break came, the Clark leaders tried to hold him firm but he told them he had a promise to fulfill and kept his word.

The Illinois break to Wilson is declared by some to have begun the movement that won the nomination for Wilson.

FINAL STAND NEAR JUAREZ

General Orozco and Mexican Rebels Hasten North to Border Towns.

(By Associated Press to the Coos Bay Times.)

CHIHUAHUA, Mex., July 5.—It may be three days before the federals can repair the bridges and roadbed to reach this city. In the meantime, General Orozco will maintain order. The populace, however, are nervous and all foreigners are kept under cover. The saloons are closed under orders from General Orozco. Juarez will be the rebel capital hereafter. It is now confirmed that Juarez and Casas Grandes will soon receive the bulk of rebel troops and that a determined stand will be made to hold Juarez.

General Orozco arrived yesterday. Only a small portion of his army stopped here, the remaining troops trains going through the city at a rate of 15 miles an hour.

GUERRILLA WARFARE

Fleeing Rebels Plan to Make Campaign in Mountains of Sonora.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

EL PASO, Tex., July 5.—Organized revolution in Mexico so far as pretense to a military campaign warfare, threatening widespread devastation in northwestern Mexico. The fleeing rebels, it is reported, will be concentrated at Casas Grandes, from which point it was intended to effect an entrance to the rich mining state of Sonora. The evacuation of Chihuahua has left to the rebel control only one important point, Juarez.

General Orozco is expected at Juarez today to direct the movements of the various bands into which the rebel army is now disintegrating. Although the invasion of Sonora means a campaign in mountains, the rebels, most of them mountaineers, believe themselves equal to it. Revolution in that form, they say, will prove more vexatious to the government than an ordinary campaign. Four thousand federals are on their way to Sonora to intercept the rebels.

LOOTING IS BEGUN

Mexican Rebels Terrorize Foreigners at Casas Grandes.

(By Associated Press to the Coos Bay Times.)

CASAS GRANDES, Mexico, July 5.—The rebels under General Salazar, commanding the Vanguard of the insurrecto army has begun to terrorize this region. Tension among Americans and foreigners was increased today with imprisonment of C. E. Hollingsworth, manager of the general store here when he refused to give the rebels supplies. They looted his store.

JACK JOHNSON EASY VICTOR OVER FLYNN IN NINE ROUNDS

RIVERS ROBBED OF VICTORY

Wolgast Retains Lightweight Championship Through Referee's Unfairness.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

LOS ANGELES, July 5.—By what is declared by prize-fight fans in attendance to have been the unfair decision ever given in a bout of importance, Ad Wolgast was yesterday declared the victor over Joe Rivers in the thirteenth round of the championship at Vernon.

The decision nearly resulted in a riot and Referee Welch probably escaped from violent treatment by rushing to cover from the ring immediately after announcing his decision in favor of Wolgast.

According to the statements of prominent ringside spectators, Wolgast deliberately fouled Rivers but through the luck of the ring, Rivers simultaneously landed a knockout punch. Instead of heading Wolgast to count out Rivers who was lying on the floor writhing in agony from the vicious blow landed just above the groin. After pronouncing the count of ten, Welch turned and picked Wolgast and announced him the winner. The eager crowd rushed towards the ring and Welch made a dash for the outside. He eluded the crowd but later it was announced that "all bets were off."

"It was the worst case of robbery in the history of the American ring," said Manager Joe Levy. "Never before have I seen a referee pick up a man and give him the decision. The foul blow by Wolgast was seen by every one in the ring. It was the fourth or fifth that Wolgast had landed on Joe. The sum total of it was that Wolgast knew that he was whipped and resorted to foul tactics to save himself."

The fight by rounds: Round 1—Rivers led and clinched. Rivers landed three lefts to face and Wolgast covered. Rivers was much faster and his blocking was better than the champion's. In the clinches, Rivers landed three stiff rights to the face, jarring Wolgast. Rivers' round.

Round 2—Rivers opened a deep gash in Wolgast's neck and blood spurted out in a stream. Rivers pecked Wolgast ten times without a return and then put a stiff left to the stomach. Rivers put another stiff right to Wolgast's nose, starting a new flow of blood. Wolgast's brows fell short while Rivers' never missed. Rivers' round.

Round 3—Wolgast took a stiff left to the stomach a head. They exchanged fearful rights and lefts. Wolgast missed a right swing and Rivers put a left to the wind. They fought like tigers. Wolgast broke from a clinch and covered. Both were covered with blood. In the clinch Rivers opened the wound in Wolgast's neck. Round even.

Round 4—They clinched and Rivers sent Wolgast's head back with a right. Wolgast clinched but could not land at close range. Rivers blocked Wolgast but the champion bored in. Wolgast was wild and missed time and again. The Mexican put in a couple more to the wind. Rivers' round.

Round 6—They clinched. Wolgast missed and Rivers landed a left to the wind, nearly upsetting Wolgast. Another right to the jaw rocked Wolgast but he bored in, but his judgment on distance was poor. In a clinch, Rivers put a right to the jaw and Wolgast went down but was up in an instant. They fought like tigers. head to head. Rivers is getting the better of it. Rivers' round.

Round 7—They clinched. Rivers backed Wolgast to the ropes. Wolgast sent a left and right to the wind. Rivers covering. In the break, both landed light lefts. Rivers jared Wolgast and the champion hit low with a left. Both tired and clinched. Wolgast again landed low. Round even.

Black Champion Given Decision When State Police Stop Go at Las Vegas.

FLYNN'S BUTTING IS CAUSE OF ACTION

Colorado Fireman Made Poor Showing—Negro Receives $31,000 for Go.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

LAS VEGAS, July 5.—Jack Johnson is still heavy weight champion of the world, having been awarded the decision over Fireman Flynn here yesterday in the ninth round of what was to have been a forty-five round go.

Flynn did not have a look in. Every round was Johnson's and finally Flynn started butting the negro. He was repeatedly warned to cease butting and eventually the Captain of the State Police stopped the fight, Referee Edward Smith of Chicago giving the decision to Johnson.

A crowd of about 3,000 saw the go. Johnson was reported to have weighed in at 212 and Flynn at about 192.

The betting was limited, the final odds being ten to three in favor of Johnson. Just before time was called at 2:49, Promoter Jack Curley handed Jack Johnson a check for $31,100, fulfilling his agreement to pay the black champion $30,000, win or lose. The additional $1,100 was for training expenses. The fight by rounds:

Round 1—The men clinched. Johnson swung his left to Flynn's ear and repeatedly put short arm jolts to the jaw. Flynn backed Johnson against the rope, the champion putting his right to Flynn's left eye and cutting gash. All Johnson's round.

Round 2—Flynn rushes Johnson, putting light lefts to face and as they clinched upper cut heavily with rights to jaw. Champion toyed with Flynn, putting rights to the jaw. Flynn was very cautious. Johnson "kidded" with Flynn and the crowd. Flynn's mouth was bleeding as he took his seat, much worried.

Round 3—Flynn hooked a right twice to the jaw. Johnson cut loose a short arm upper cut to the jaw. Johnson was bleeding at the mouth. Flynn got the worst of a mix-up. Johnson landing a volley of rights and lefts to the fireman's mouth and jaw. It was Johnson's round.

Round 4—Flynn rushed and was met with a rain of rights and lefts to the face. Johnson apparently let Flynn tap him several times in the stomach, much to the amusement of the spectators. Flynn got a cheer as he rushed the black to the ropes and planted a solid left to the jaw. Johnson came back hard to the face. Johnson's round.

Round 5—Flynn jabbed away at Johnson's stomach but Johnson covered up and shot four lefts to the face and a left uppercut to the jaw. Flynn at close quarters landed half a dozen punches to the stomach but Johnson smiled and made no attempt to protect his mid-section. Flynn protested to the referee that Johnson was holding him. No further damage.

Round 6—Flynn butted three times. Flynn was reprimanded. Johnson dazzled the fireman with his speed, landing lefts and rights to the jaw. Again Flynn was cautioned for butting. Flynn claimed Johnson was holding him. Johnson, maddened, landed a volley of straight rights and lefts to the face, bewildering Flynn. Johnson apparently was trying to prolong the contest. Johnson's round.

Round 7—Johnson toyed with Flynn landing half a dozen rights and lefts to the face. Flynn bled profusely from the nose as Johnson beat a tattoo on that organ. Johnson's defense was impregnable and he landed blow after blow on the fireman.

Round 8—Flynn again butted and again was warned. Johnson continued to uppercut Flynn who was butting viciously. Flynn got all the worst of this round and the referee told him he would disqualify him if he continued his foul tactics. Flynn was warned ten times in this round to cease butting.

Round 9—Johnson held Flynn at arms' length in an attempt to guard himself against Flynn's butting. Flynn finally got in close, jumped a foot in the air and landed with the top of his head against the champion's jaw. Captain of Police Cowles realizing the referee was loath to end the contest on a foul jumped into the ring and brought the battle to an end. Referee Smith thereupon gave the decision to Johnson.

Johnson was given a terrific cheer while the crowd vented its wrath on Flynn.
