One thousand men are in present movement. To check them, a federal column of nine thousand is being sent.

REFERS PLAN TO COMMITTEE

Chamber of Commerce to Have Railroad Petitions Taken Up. At last night's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, Dr. E. Mingo presented a petition which he wished to have circulated by that body, relative to the railroad situation here. The petition is in behalf of the Willamette-Pacific Railroad Co., who ask for the co-operation of the people of Marshfield in securing a railroad right of way through the corporate limits of the city. The petition is for the purpose of bringing about an amicable adjustment between the Terminal company and the Willamette Pacific Railroad Co. Dr. Mingo explained that it was not intended to arouse any opposition but was merely a friendly matter, giving the people a chance to express their attitude. C. R. Peck disliked the idea of the Chamber of Commerce taking action on the petition as there was not a sufficiently representative body present and Dr. McCormac decided to refer it to the railroad committee as a routine matter of business. The committee is composed of W. S. Chandler, who is the chairman, C. R. Peck, Dr. C. W. Tower, Hugh McLain and Alva Doll. It is expected that the matter will be taken up shortly by them.

Gov. Wilson, Democratic Candidate for President, Outlines Policy. SAYS TARIFF IS AT THE HEART OF QUESTION Will Make it the Campaign Slogan in Speech of Acceptance. SEAGIRT, July 6.—Gov. Wilson expressed the opinion today that the high cost of living is the burning issue of the hour and in that question at its heart lies the high protective tariff. "It is the issue," he said, "that he expects to cover fully in his speech of acceptance and in every campaign speech he may make. Undoubtedly the tariff is at the center of it," he said, "the thing is so interlaced on public questions of all kinds that the conclusions is inevitable, the tariff lies at the heart of it all. A great many of the trust questions of the time have arisen out of the tariff. The minute you get out from the center of the high tariff, you get into the trust question and into all others."

COOS BAY GIRL HAS ROMANCE

Wedding Has to Be Postponed Because Bridegroom Fails to Appear. Coos Bay people will be interested in articles taken from the San Francisco and Portland papers regarding Miss Margaret Foulke who was formerly a Marshfield girl. She went to school here about ten years ago and is known by all who lived on the Bay during that time. Her mother Mrs. Scott McKeown is one of the early pioneers of this section and resides with her husband on second street near Central. John Foulke a brother, is also living there with his family at the present time. Mrs. McKeown is very much worried over the affair. She said her daughter had always made her own living and had sent money home now and then. Two days ago a card was received supposed to be from the girl but written in a man's handwriting. Yesterday two more such cards were received, one reading, "Dear Mama: Suppose you will be surprised to hear I am in 'Prisco." Mr. and Mrs. John Foulke are waiting anxiously for some word from Mr. Foulke's sister. They do not understand why the post cards were sent or what their purpose could have been as they are certain they were not sent by the girl. Miss Foulke was here on a visit last September and October. There is no fear expressed for her financial condition as she is an expert tailor-ess and makes good money. She worked at the trade here in Marshfield and was in the employment of Norris Jensen. Mrs. McKeown does not hear from her daughter very often and did not know anything of her predicament except what she had heard from outside parties. Mr. McKeown, step-father of the girl, did not seem in the least bit worried and said the girl was old enough to take care of herself. Mrs. John Foulke said that she did not believe that her sister-in-law would return here. The San Francisco Chronicle prints the following story of the affair: Without even pausing to "fold his tents," like the Arabs of the poem, Charles Henry Laurier, who says he is a nephew of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, former Premier of Canada, is missing from the Argonaut Hotel since early Monday morning. To add to the mystery of the disappearance, Miss Madge Foulke, a pretty girl from Marshfield, Ore., in an apartment at 3222 Sixteenth street, sadly awaits
