Back from Manila

—According to the Portland Journal Fred Pasley, a former Coos Bay reporter, who recently went to Manila to remain a year, is in Portland registered at the Annex hotel.

Has New Pharmacist.—The Owl Prescription Pharmacy has added a new prescription clerk in the person of R. A. Hayward, of Portland, a graduate registered pharmacist who will assist Frank D. Cohen in that establishment.

Will Have Music

—David O. Kenyon of Ten Mile, gives heed to the poetical Longfellow and proposes hereafter that the "nights shall be filled with music," having purchased a beautiful new Columbia gramophone from the Lockhart-Parsons Co.

Family Reunion Picnic

—C. H. Walters and family accompanied by their guests, spent Sunday at the hatchery, South Coos River. Included in the list of those present were A. J. Walters and family, brother of C. H. Walters, and C. E. Horton and wife and Miss Dora Standish, all of Adrian, Missouri.

Panther in Ferndale

—D. Ferguson says the regular annual report of a panther in the woods near Ferndale has made its appearance. Mr. Ferguson says the story makes its appearance regularly during the berry season and it may be to frighten some of the timid berry pickers away from the fruitful patches.

Baby Dies

—William Howard Cross, the infant son of W. H. Cross of the McDonald Vaughn logging camp, died this morning at 10:20 o'clock. The baby was four days old and was not expected to live from the time of its birth on account of skull pressure. The funeral will be private and will take place tomorrow.

Society Folks Use Mops

—Marshfield people are interested in accounts in the Portland papers of how a sudden shower reduced a waxed outdoor dancing floor to a puddle that compelled the members of the exclusive Irvington Club to roll up their sleeves and wield mops to put the floor in condition again and among those who wielded the mop for the cultivation of the terpsichorean art was J. L. Bowman, well known in Marshfield.

Sues for Divorce

—Lottie McLain, who is employed at the McClellan hotel, this morning filed a suit for divorce in the circuit court against her husband, William McLain. The plaintiff claims that she was married to her husband at Coquille City, in September, 1909, and soon thereafter moved to Roseburg. In June, 1911, she says her husband deserted her and has since remained away. Other than a decree of divorce the plaintiff asks for the custody of the one minor child born to their union. Attorney F. G. Micell represents the plaintiff.—Roseburg Evening News.

Finds Pearl Brooch

—The Times' want ads have again proven their efficiency in getting results. Last Friday, Miss Edith Hildenbrand lost a beautiful pearl brooch on the street. Saturday morning she placed a want ad in The Times. Saturday evening within an hour after the paper was issued the pin was brought to The Times office by little Howard Lewis, grandson of Thos. Howard, the jeweler, who with his mother is visiting at the Howard home. Miss Hildenbrand left for Portland on her vacation Saturday and will be surprised and delighted when she gets the news as she despaired of finding it.

Stuck on Muddflats

—A. B. Knorr and family and O. N. Wilson of the Red Cross Drug Store had a rather disconcerting experience in their return last evening from a pleasant Sunday outing at Charleston bay. They enjoyed the day picnicking so thoroughly that they did not start for home until late and when this side of Empire they missed the harbor light and ran onto the muddflats. They were stuck there for several hours and did not reach home until

PEOPLE GROW YOUNG IN CURRY

Two Remarkable Stories of People Who Refuse to Grow Old.

The following stories taken from the last issue of the Gold Beach Globe are interesting as displaying the unusual activities of people in advanced years. Coos county also has octogenarians who continue the duties of an active life. The Times would be pleased to have its readers report any facts concerning people who can equal the record of these two remarkable Curry county residents:

DOES HOUSEWORK AT 91

Remarkable Activity of Curry County Woman nearly 100

GOLD BEACH, July 8.—The Globe says: "Mrs. Lockwood, of Smith River, enjoyed her 91st birthday recently. She is the mother of nine children. All are living but three. Her husband died about eight years ago, and she has lived with her son, C. Lockwood, a blacksmith, of Smith River. Mrs. Lockwood is a wonderfully spry woman, does all her work, washing, ironing, scrubbing and everything that is to be done. She embroidered her daughter, Mrs. Crook, a pair of pillow cases on her ninetieth birthday with ease. Mrs. Lockwood has a kind word and smile for everyone she meets, and is especially kind to the sick. Her cheeks are as rosy as a sixteen year old girl's, and we expect, and sincerely hope, she will enjoy many more happy birthdays. "Grandma Lockwood has one grandchild and six great grand children in this county."

80 YEAR OLD BEAR HUNTER

Curry County Man Past Four Score Proves Good Shot.

While out in the woods a short distance from their home at Burnt Prairie, looking for a bee-tree, G. A. Root and wife suddenly happened upon a mother bear and two small cubs. The cubs took fright and climbed a tree squalling "bloody murder" as they climbed. The unusual noise from the little ones so enraged the mother bear that she hastily declared war upon the disturbing elements; emerging from the brush in a fit of raging anger, she rushed at the old man only a few paces away. Despite the fact that the old man has long since passed life's eightieth mile stone, with youthful agility and skill, he brot the rifle to his shoulder and dispatched the infuriated brute with a well directed ball through its brain.—Gold Beach Globe.

one o'clock this morning. In the meantime Miss Xenia Knorr who remained at home became alarmed and telephoned the Life Saving Station to learn if any small boat had drifted over the bar.

Move to Myrtle Point

—The household goods of Walter Condron have been removed to Myrtle Point where they will make their future home.

Stage Travel Heavy

—The outgoing travel via the Gardiner stage is unusually heavy these days. There were fourteen passengers Sunday and eighteen this morning on the outgoing stage.

In North Bend Tonight

—Dr. Harry Lane of Portland and Hugh McLain returned yesterday from a trip to Port Orford. Dr. Lane went to Empire this afternoon to renew his old friendships there. Tonight Dr. Lane will address the citizens of North Bend at the Star Theatre.

Ejectment Suit Heard

—The case of Harry Wilkins vs. Hillis Short was brought up before Justice Penock this morning and was taken under advisement by him. The suit was brought by Wilkins who is trying to obtain possession of the D. O. Keyon restaurant property at Lakeside.

Will Rush Building

—Work will start on the first of August in tearing down the buildings on the corner of Front and Central now occupied by Hillier's Cigar Store and the O. K. Barber Shop, and clearing the lots for the construction of the new three-story brick building to be erected there. The contract will be pushed to completion as soon as possible and it is hoped to have the lower floor ready for occupancy 60 days after construction begins. Will Chandler, who is to be the architect, will be here in a few days.

Treated Well in Myrtle Point

—F. P. Norton returned Saturday from Myrtle Point with his string of horses and reports that the turnout for the races there was excellent. On the first day about fifteen hundred people turned out and about twelve hundred the second. The gate receipts amounted to $1,000. He says the racing people received fine treatment and were more than satisfied with the way the events were run off by the Myrtle Point Track Association. Mr. Norton says that the new track is a good one but that the stretchers will have to be widened and that there is more room than is really necessary on the curves. By next year the track will be in fine shape. Myrtle Point is planning on a big fair this fall.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

The Casco sailed yesterday for Long Beach, Cal., with a half million feet of lumber.
