ARE BOOSTING FOR COOS BAY

Njerdum Bros. Spread Gospel of Local Industries In Portland.

The Sunday Oregonian publishes the following concerning one of Coos Bay's big industries now in process of formation:

"Robert Njerdum and Hjalte Njerdum, young Norwegians who are interested in the Coos Bay Pulp & Paper company, of Marshfield, have been at the Multnomah Hotel for several days awaiting the arrival of their wives from Norway."

"Hjalte Njerdum, in speaking of this new industry at Coos Bay, said: 'It will be a year before we begin the manufacture of wood pulp, as it takes that long to complete the buildings of reinforced concrete, and install the machinery. The machinery will largely be manufactured in this country but some parts will come from Europe.'"

"The process of separating the wood fiber in this country is known as the soda process, while we are to use the sulphate-of-soda process."

"We are jointly interested in the enterprise with the C. A. Smith Lumber Company and our raw material will consist of the refuse from the mill of that company, which is now destroyed."

"After the plant opens there will be fully 100 men employed. We are certain the business will be profitable, as in addition to the wood pulp we will have by-products of turpentine, wood alcohol and rosin. We hope to find a market for the wood pulp in this country, but should this fail there is a field for it in Japan."

"Our ultimate plan is to operate a paper mill at Coos Bay, but this will not be attempted at present."

SAYS SELLING SPENT HEAVILY

Portland Man Says Candidate for Senator Did Not Report Whole Cost.

SALEM, Ore., July 9.—Alleging that Ben Selling, Republican candidate for United States Senator, during his campaign expended thousands of dollars which were not included in his expense statement filed with the secretary of state, Arnold Keller, with offices in the Healy building in Portland, yesterday filed a written complaint against him with the secretary of state. Keller declares that the expense statement filed with the secretary does not conform to the law or the truth, alleging that in the months of January and February Selling expended for letters, postage and return postage, and other ways, the sum of $10,000, and that it is not included in his statement.

He alleges further that large sums were spent in newspaper advertising, during the same period, and also in canvassing in the interest of Selling and against Bourne, and that these expenses are not included in Selling's expense statement.

The law provides that whenever any citizen forwards a written complaint to the secretary of state that a candidate's expense account is not in conformity to the law, or is untrue, the secretary of state shall notify the delinquent. If he fails to file the additional statement then the matter will be referred to the district attorney to bring civil or criminal prosecutions on the evidence submitted, and if he does forward the statement and it shows the candidate violated the corrupt practices act through the expenditures, the matter shall be referred to the district attorney for action.

Selling's statement shows that he expended $784.16, and that his friends expended in his behalf $9,941.70. Under the law he is allowed to expend $1125.
