the Sunday's Oregonian. The picture was taken by Stadden and has been on exhibition at his studio.

Leave on Stage.—Among those leaving this morning on the Roseburg stage were J. M. Graham, Frank Watt, B. H. Dickey, Sarah Heunergardt and Loraine Heunergardt.

Marshfield Elks Pictured.—The familiar faces of George Rotnor, C. F. McKnight, George Goodrum, Willis Kennedy appear among a large number of Elks pictures in the Sunday Oregonian.

W. S. Turpen, Architect.—The plans for the new three-story brick building to be erected at the corner of Front street and Central avenue are being prepared by W. S. Turpen and not by Will Chandler, as erroneously stated previously.

Prominent Baptist Coming.—Mr. L. G. White, superintendent of the Pacific Coast division of the American Baptist Publication society, will arrive on the Washington from San Francisco tomorrow and will speak at the Baptist church Thursday evening.

Baseball Excursion.—There will be a big baseball excursion to all the Coquille Valley towns next Sunday. Marshfield will play at Myrtle Point, Eastside at Bandon, and North Bend at Coquille. It is thought that many people will take advantage of the cut rates.

Distinguished Visitor.—Mrs. Colgan will entertain soon in honor of Mrs. Nellie Moran who is organizer for South Dakota for the Royal Neighbors Lodge. Mrs. Moran is visiting at the homes of her brother and sister, Mr. Ed. Colgan and Mrs. A. Abbott.

Oakland Party Here.—A party of Oakland, California, men who are prospecting the Coos Bay country as a site for a summer home are in the city today. They expect to leave soon on a pleasure trip to Curry county. In the party are F. T. Swan, M. Kjelsberg and Charles Riskin.

Tunnel Contractor Here.—Philip Nelson, an experienced tunnel contractor, is in the city awaiting the arrival of the Southern Pacific engineers and contractors. He expects to secure some of the tunnel work on the new line and has come prepared to begin operations. He expects to make headquarters in North Bend.

Must Send Name.—The Times is in receipt of two communications which cannot be printed because the writers neglected to sign their names. This paper will not print articles that are not accompanied with the names of the writers. The names will not be published if so requested, but it is necessary that the Editor know the names of persons sending communications.

Install New Heater.—A new heating apparatus is being installed for the fire department, the old one having burned out. In the meantime Engineer Claude Stutman has put in a temporary device for keeping up steam so that Marshfield will not be without first class fire protection while the new fixtures are being put in. The work is being done by the firm of Willey & Schroeder.

Panther Is a Dog.—It is now believed that the panther who recently made his appearance in Ferndale, about the regions where the wild berries grow to be a large and lucious fruit, was nothing more or less than a great big beautiful dog. The panther story usually comes out every year when the berries begin to ripen in large quantities so that only a few of the bravest dare venture forth and pluck them.

Waite Buys Land Back.—At sheriff's sale this afternoon, F. B. Waite bought back 3342 acres of land at Round Prairie, on which he took a mortgage a few years ago from the Oregon Land & Orchard Company, of which Thomas W. Russell is trustee. The sale was made on a circuit court order foreclosing the mortgage, which amounted to $37,196, with about $2000 added in costs of litigation.—Roseburg Review.

N. J. Gorham, Cashier Bank of Woodville, Woodville, Ga., had a very severe attack of kidney trouble and the pains in his kidneys and back were terrible. "I got a bottle of Foley Kidney Pills from our druggist and they entirely relieved me. I have more benefit from them than any other medicine." Lockhart & Parsons Drug Co., "The Busy Corner."

North Bend Council.—The city council of North Bend meets tonight to take up various municipal matters. Nothing of importance is scheduled.

Tinkler on Redondo.—General Manager C. C. Tinkler, of the railway contracting firm that is soon to start construction on the Southern Pacific, is expected to arrive on the Redondo. The G. W. Shelley home in North Bend has been rented and will be occupied by Mr. Tinkler and family.

Successful Meeting.—Dr. Harry Lane left for Portland this morning after a pleasant visit with old friends in various parts of Coos county. Last night he held a successful meeting in North Bend and delivered an interesting address. A delegation of the Marshfield faithful headed by Dr. Straw accompanied Dr. Lane to North Bend and participated in the meeting.

Don't Monkey With a Monkey Wrench.—Perhaps it would be well to state that Mr. J. C. Jones' black eye is a result of being hit—with a monkey wrench while trying to doctor some machinery that was indisposed to work. The work was rather high above his head and accidentally letting go of the wrench, Mr. Jones sustained quite a severe gash above the eye. Black eyes are sometimes rather misleading.

Chapman Won.—Through an error in summarizing the events on the Fourth of July sport program, Ed Bolt was declared the winner of the pole vault for boys under 16, when Ignatius Chapman should have been given the honors. Ed Bolt took second place and Wayne Stead was third. The Times is pleased to record the championship won by Ignatius, who was formerly one of its force of faithful and efficient carrier boys.

Hats Off to Times Want Ads.—Ed Anderson, of Beaver Hill, is willing to take his hat off to The Times want ads. Ed purchased a new hat July 4 and on a joy ride to North Bend lost it. Mr. McCrary found it, put a want adv. in The Times last night. Mr. Anderson's friend, J. R. Sneddon, read the adv. and knowing the owner, gave immediate notice. Mr. Anderson will soon be in possession of his hat again. The Times want ads get results quickly.

Winning Fame As Artist.—The San Francisco Call of July 5 contains a portrait of Mrs. Nellie Barrell Scott, of San Francisco, who has won an international reputation as a painter of piscatorial life. Her paintings of California Golden trout are particularly commented upon in an article accompanying the photograph. Mrs. Scott is a sister of Mrs. C. W. Tower of this city and several of her paintings have been exhibited at different times in this city.

Jess Day to Fight in Portland.—Jack Gleason and Jess Day left this afternoon for Portland where Day will fight Thursday, his opponent to be picked between now and then. The boxing game at Tacoma is being revived and Day will probably fight for James Richardson, who is promoting some bouts there. He will meet either Berg, Fitzgerald or Sallor Petroskie some time towards the end of the month and a win from any of these men will put him in the front rank as a fighter. Day's progress on the outside will be watched with interest by fight fans on Coos Bay.
