ARE WE GETTING READY?

MONTH by month the time draws near for the opening of the Panama canal. The commercial world of Europe and Asia is aglow with preparations for that earth-changing event.

THE PEOPLE

It is in the strong arms and honest hearts of the great masses, who are not members of Congress, nor spouters at town meetings, that resides the safety of the state.

WITH THE TOAST AND TEA

GOOD EVENING. To be patient; to be kind; To be purposeful, and find Sweetness all along the way.

THE INLANDER

Never never climb a high hill Or gaze across the sea. But, oh, beyond the two of them Beyond the heights and blue of them.

THE BACHELOR GIRL SAYS The old fashioned girl used to wait until the right man came along before getting married.

With the aid of a perpetual smile and a little soft soap, any woman can make her pathway through life one long, smooth, beautiful toboggan slide.

Why should matrimony interfere with one's amusements in these days of self-rocking cradles, self-sufficient children, self-supporting wives and self-amusing husbands?

A young man always boasts proudly of his flirtation with a widow. Later he comes to see that it was about the easiest thing he ever tried.

Alas, if husbands were only like hosiery—the kind with which you receive a six months' "guarantee-or-exchange ticket!"

The trouble with a man's getting his salary raised is he thinks he has to live up to twice that much.

MRS. CALVIN CONNER left today for Salem to visit her parents. She went on the Breakwater by way of Portland.
