LOCAL NOTES

COOS BAY TIDES.

The tide is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.

The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison of consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. For high water on bar, subtract 2 hours 34 minutes.

Will Build—Geo. Cook is planning to erect a new bungalow on his Ferndale lots.

Will Give Party—Miss Esther Sullivan has issued invitations for a party to be given Monday, July 15.

Locate in Marshfield—Mr. Morrow, who arrived recently from Sisson, Cal., has taken a position with the Magnes & Matson store.

Begins Residence—Pat Tully, the contractor, commenced work today on the new residence of Dennis McCarthy on South Fifth street.

Will Give Picnic—The Marshfield High School Alumni is planning a moonlight ride for Saturday evening, July 20, at Jordan's Cove.

Gets New Auto—D. C. Greene, manager of the Oregon Power Co., has a fine 7 passenger Overland auto coming on the next Breakwater.

Plan Picnic—The ladies of the First Baptist church are contemplating a picnic Wednesday, July 17. Particulars will be given at a later date.

Bonfire Meeting—The B. Y. P. U. will hold a business meeting and bonfire party at the home of Mrs. Daisy Anderson at Bunker Hill Friday evening, July 12.

Baby Died—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Totten of Flagstaff died last evening. The funeral took place this afternoon from the G. W. Dungan undertaking parlors.

Alumni Meeting—A meeting of the four-year High School Alumni Association was held last evening at the home of Miss Marjory Cowan for the election of officers and other business.

Will meet at Store—All those who wish to attend the bonfire party at Bunker Hill tomorrow evening, will meet at the corner of Conner and Hoagland's store on South Broadway at 8 o'clock.

Will Know Soon—E. G. Perham is in receipt of a telegram from Medford stating that the argument in the injunction case in the bridge contract in which he is interested was argued in court yesterday and a decision is expected soon.

New Night Watch—Geo. W. Artis formerly Steward of the Motor Boat Club of North Bend has been temporarily appointed night officer in North Bend to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of A. H. McKay.

Bridgroom Coming—Lee Fuller is expected in on the next Breakwater. His marriage to Miss Ada Chapman, who for some time has been an efficient teacher in the Marshfield schools, will take place Wednesday, July 17.

E. W. Schrock III—E. W. Schrock, the proprietor of the hotel at Empire, and a well known resident of Coos county, has been seriously ill at Mercy hospital for several days. It is feared that Mr. Schrock may have to submit to a surgical operation.

Ordered Out of Town—Marshal Carter is rounding up some of the "Sons of Rest Club" and ordering them out of town. Some of the high officials of that organization became quite incensed at being ordered away and so have been stored in behind the bars until they get ready to go to work or leave.

Iles Company Coming—Manager Lemanski, of the Royal theater, is in receipt of a letter from Manager Meade, of the Margaret Iles Company, old time Coos Bay favorite, saying they have just closed a successful engagement at Klamath Falls and are on their way to Coos Bay. They will probably open at the Royal Saturday night.

May Locate Here—B. J. Palmer, the well known piano man of Medford, is in the city. Mr. Palmer is pleasantly remembered by the many friends he made during the time he conducted a branch house in Marshfield and they will be glad to know that he contemplates locating here in the future. Mr. Palmer is an enterprising business man and would be a welcome addition to the commercial circles of Coos Bay.
